

Seder Check List

You'll need

1) Seder Plate

- a) Zroah - Roast Beet or Shank Bone
- b) Beitzah - Boiled Egg slightly roasted
- c) Maror – Horseradish or any bitter vegetable (see RA guidelines)
- d) Karpas – Parsely, Dill, or any green herb
- e) Haroset –

2) Matzah

Each person needs to consume at least one whole piece of Matzah. In addition, your table should have three pieces of Matzah on a separate plate covered with a nice cloth

3) Wine

- a) You'll need a Kiddush cup and enough red wine or grape juice for each person at your table to have four glasses
- b) Kos Miriam – this is a newer custom, consider having an additional Kiddush cup to have with water

4) Maror

In addition to the Maror on your Seder plate, you'll need a separate portion of Maror ready at the table to be consumed with Matza

5) Haroset

As with Maror, Haroset is consumed with Matza at the appropriate time

6) Beitzah

In addition to the egg on the Seder plate, everyone will need at least one hard boiled egg to be consumed at the appropriate time

7) Karpas

Each table should have a bowl of Karpas (dill/parsley) to consume

8) Salt Water

Both Beitzah and Karpas are dipped in salt water before eating. It's best if you have individual bowls of salt water for each person prepared in advance

9) Haggadah

We will be using the classic red and yellow Haggadot originally commissioned by Maxwell House in the 1950s. Most editions retain the same system of pagination, so hopefully everyone will be able to follow along. If you don't have a Haggadah, try looking at No Frills on Centre between Bathurst and Dufferin or the Kosher Sobey's at Clark by Bathurst.

10) Food

It may go without saying but we all need to eat!

11) Kippot

Males should wear a Kippah, as usual.
