Welcome to Beit Rayim

“Chezi’s Chochma” by Rabbi Zionce

We send our wishes to Rabbi Chezi for a refuah shlemah as he rests and recuperates. For now, please enjoy his Chochma from Pesach 2015:

Shalom,

I hope the matzah is treating you well.

We all know that the Hebrew word Pesach (or Passover) has its origins in the biblical account of the angel of death “passing over” the homes of the Jewish/Israelite households and sparing our first-born sons. There is an obscure rabbinic commentary suggesting another meaning to the name of our holy day.

Peh in Hebrew means mouth and siach means dialogue.

The combination of these two words is Pesach. At our seders we all use our mouths not only to eat all of the delicacies on our table but also to engage in dialogue.

On Passover more Jews observe kashrut than at any other time of the year. So many of us meticulously check everything we eat to determine if it is kosher. As Passover comes to an end, may we continue to keep in mind not only what food and drink goes in our mouths, but also the words that come out of our mouths.

Chag Sameach and Shabbat Shalom,

rabbi@beitrayim.org

ZIKARON BASALON

Zikaron BaSalon (Hebrew for "memories in the living room") is an annual event, which takes place on Israeli Holocaust Memorial Day.

Zikaron BaSalon offers a new, meaningful and intimate way to commemorate this day by gathering people together to open their hearts to the stories of the survivors, sing, think, read, talk and most importantly- listen.

Please do not engage in conversation in the kiddush area immediately outside our sanctuary. Any noise in this area disturbs the service. If necessary, please feel free to step out to the atrium.
