Rabbi's Spotlight

Last week, our entire community was shocked and saddened by the sudden loss of Rabbi Chezi z"l. I was grateful to have had the opportunity to meet the rabbi and spend a bit of time with him over the past couple of months. I am disappointed that I won't have the opportunity to learn more from and with Rabbi Chezi z"l, but grateful that so many of you have shared your warm memories and stories. I hope that you will continue to do so. May his memory always be a blessing.

Shabbat Shalom,

from Rabbi Joshua Corber

Announcements

In April of 2017, our dear friend and Cantor, Eli Bard, was forced to put his Beit Rayim duties aside while he recovered from a stroke.

Today, Eli continues to focus on his recovery while many of those he mentored at Beit Rayim carry on with the traditions he instilled.

Now, when he attends our services, he is happy to sit as a regular member of his kehilah, rather than stand at his previous spot at the bimah.

However, even in his retirement, Eli Bard will never be just a regular member of Beit Rayim; it is in keeping with this sentiment that we are thrilled to announce Eli's new title, as it now appears on Beit Rayim letterhead ... Cantor Emeritus.

What my host family meant to me— by Lee Balzar Shinshin 2016-17

Hello again to the amazing Beit Rayim community which I miss so much!
I would like to share with all of you some incredible memories I have made last year as a ShinShin. I was lucky enough to be hosted by 3 amazing host families who have made me feel at home, where I was miles away from my actual home. All families were so kind to me and I'm so grateful to say that the connection I've made with them I'll never forget. Weather if it was introducing me to the Canadian winter and going winter clothes shopping with me, or having exciting discussions at home about Judaism and our beliefs about Israel, or just laughing, dancing or getting to know my family too, every minute was so exciting and welcoming and I really feel that these bonds can't be replaced. I can honestly say that I have 4 families in my heart after last year. It was always my dream to have a little sister, after last year I was fortunate enough to have gotten 7! It's so fun to still keep in touch with them and sharing my army experiences, hearing how they're doing and missing them so much at every birthday or celebration that you wish you could have been at. The experience with my host families was one of the things that have truly made my year so meaningful and gave a shoulder to lean on at hard times, and a place to get huge hugs at happy times. If you are able to, I strongly recommend to take part in this program and open your heart to another son/ daughter in your family!
