"Chezi's Chochma" by Rabbi Zionce

We send our wishes to Rabbi Chezi for a refuah shlemah as he rests and recuperates. For now, please enjoy his Chochma from June 2015 / Sivan 5775

Shalom,

The popular story is told of the tourist in Israel who attended a recital and concert at the Moscovitz Auditorium. He was quite impressed with the architecture and the acoustics. The tourist inquired of the tour guide, "Is this magnificent auditorium named after Chaim Moscovitz, the famous Talmudic scholar?" "No", replied the guide "it is named after Sam Moscovitz, the writer" "Never heard of him; what did he write?" "A cheque", replied the guide.

Writing cheques is one way of supporting the important institutions and organizations in our diverse Jewish community. Kol Hakavod to those generous philanthropists whose contributions enable the success of our efforts.

Another tangible way of exhibiting support to the Jewish people is through volunteerism. Countless individuals sit on our board and communities donating their time to all of our Beit Rayim endeavours. In this week's Torah portion of Shelach Lecha we are reminded of the spies sent by Moses to reconnoiter the Land of Israel. Of the twelve spies listed in the parsha, eleven come from important "chashuv" families. Several of the spies have holy names containing "shem hashem," a derivative of the name G-d.

However, one spy, it appears, does not possess any distinct familial importance nor an important name.

Caleb has its origins in the Hebrew word for dog. The Torah refers to him as a Kenezite, a tribe who had joined with the Jewish people in a covenant with Abraham. Caleb, who together with Joshua, provides confidence and resolve in our ancient ancestral brethren, achieves a position of prominence through his actions.

The individuals who donate their time and efforts on behalf of our shul are the modern day "Calebs" of our Beit Rayim community. May they continue in the holy work, going from strength to strength and inspire others to emulate their actions.

Shabbat Shalom
