Shabbat Parah

Parshat Vayakhel & Pekudei
פרשת ויקהל פקודי

ברוכים הבאים

Welcome to Beit Rayim

"Chezi's Chochma" by Rabbi Zionce

Shalom,

This Shabbat we read from two Torah scrolls. The first follows our weekly reading when we finish the book of Exodus with Vayakhel/Pekudei.

Our second Torah is read to commemorate the special designation of this Shabbat as Shabbat Parah, the Sabbath of the Cow on which we read the biblical commandment regarding the Red Heifer. The mitzvah of the Red Heifer is one that defies understanding. A Red Heifer is slaughtered, some of its blood is sprinkled toward the Tabernacle, the cow is burned and its ashes used for purification. Not King Solomon and not Rabbi Google were able to rationally understand this law.

There is so much we don't know. As Isaac Bashevis Singer, the Yiddish Nobel writer, once pointed out, "With all our knowledge we still don't know why a magnet doesn't work on cottage cheese." We don't know that, and so much more. Only G-d knows ... and we must put our faith in G-d, keeping in mind the Biblical words: "Ha-nistaros l'Hashem Elokeinu – that which is hidden is for G-d, but that which is revealed is for us and our children forever and ever."

Shabbat Shalom

Chezi Zionce

Jewish Campus

Want to be part of something truly special?

We are looking for two warm and welcoming host families for our next set of Shinshinim, arriving in August. Please contact Lorraine Bloom at lorraine.bloom@sympatico.ca or 905-889-4424 for more information about this fabulous opportunity.

WordSwap

Join us Shabbat March 17 when WordSwap comes to Beit Rayim! WordSwap is an innovative program that brings young Israelis from a variety of backgrounds to engage and change the conversation about Israel today.

This is a great opportunity for high school and university students to change the discourse on campus.
