Shabbat HaGadol

Parshat Tzav
פרשת צו

ברוכים הבאים

Welcome to Beit Rayim

"Chezi's Chochma" by Rabbi Zionce

Shalom,

This Shabbat promises to be a great Shabbat because of its name... Shabbat HaGadol, which literally means "the great Shabbat".

While we continue our weekly reading of Tsav from our Torah, our Haftarah marks the special designation of Shabbat HaGadol.

Shabbat HaGadol is the special Sabbath before the great holy days of Pesach, and Pesach is great because every one of us is included!

Regardless of whether you are wise, ignorant, rebellious, simple, rich or poor... Jews and all people are welcome at the Seder table! There is a place for everyone, and everyone is equally welcome. The Talmud insists that even the poorest of the poor must be treated and fed equal to everyone else. We live in a world where many are not welcome and treated well by others. Pesach presents us with an excellent example of how humanity can treat each other with due honour and respect!

On this Shabbat HaGadol...

Let us appreciate the greatness of the gift of life that we possess.

Let us appreciate the greatness of our Jewish heritage and do all we can at the Seder and throughout the year to perpetuate that greatness into the future.

Let us appreciate the greatness of the blessings we have by being mindful to share our blessings, resources, friendship and love with others.

Let us appreciate the greatness of the world by demonstrating large measures of understanding, compassion, harmony and peace as much as possible.

At this spring season of greatness, let us make our Sedarim great, Pesach great, and relish the knowledge that greatness lies within us all! May each and every one of us do all that we can to make life great for ourselves and for others!

Shabbat Shalom and Hag Pesach Sameach to all!
