Welcome to Beit Rayim ברוכים הבאים

"Chezi's Chochma" by Rabbi Zionce

Shalom,

This week's Torah portion of Ki Tissa begins with a census of our ancient Israelite ancestors. When instructing Moses to administer the census G-d uses the following words:

"when you lift up the heads of the children of Israel".

The rabbis deduce that G-d is teaching us that when a person is counted - when a person is noticed - it lifts up their spirits.

If you think about it, we too have our spirits lifted when someone recognizes us, when they know our name. As a rabbi, I experience this again and again when I approach someone in shul that I don't recognize and greet them warmly.

I urge you to try it the next time you are in shul. Go up to someone you don't know and say Shabbat Shalom. You will be lifting their spirits and doing G-d's work.

Shabbat Shalom

Chezi Zionce

Want to be part of something truly special?

We are looking for two warm and welcoming host families for our next set of Shinshinim, arriving in August. Please contact Lorraine Bloom at lorraine.bloom@sympatico.ca or 905-889-4424 for more information about this fabulous opportunity.

A message from our Co-Presidents

It has been another busy week at Beit Rayim: we hosted visiting Rabbi Joshua Corber for Shabbat and Sunday morning services; held a Havdalah service on the "the beach"; enjoyed Purim festivities at Hebrew School and in shul; and packed and delivered 500 Mishloach Manot baskets so our entire community could "taste the rainbow" and share in this Purim mitzvah. Thank you to everyone that attended services and provided feedback on Rabbi Corber's visit. We value your input.

We are so grateful to Larry Miller and Marlene Rosen for once again shepherding our Mishloach Manot project. This herculean task requires hours of planning and preparation, shopping and schlepping and a cast of... dozens. Volunteers packed, wrapped and delivered hundreds of baskets. And yes, they tested some hamantashen samples, too. Thanks to everyone who helped make this year's initiative such a success.

Now that Purim is over we are setting our sights on Passover. Join us for Passover- themed family activities such as our matzah factory visit and Family Scavenger Hunt. If you'd rather skip the cleaning and cooking, we will be holding our traditional first night seder on Friday, March 30th. Call the office to reserve your tickets, or sign up on our website.

Stay tuned to your e-blasts and Shabbat Bulletins for more details.

Shabbat Shalom,

Lawrence Janit and Bryan Gerson
Co-Presidents
