TEMPLE EMANUEL BULLETIN

August-September 2021 | Av – Elul – Tishrei 5781-5782 | Volume 88, No. 1

Dear Friends,

One of the central liturgical motifs of the Yamim Noraim – the Days of Awe – is the Hashiveinu Prayer. The words,

“Hashiveinu Adonai eilecha v’nashuva. Chadesh yameinu k’kedem”

“Return us, Adonai to You and we will return. Renew our Days as of old.”

This year, more than ever, this ancient prayer resonates in our hearts, souls and in the halls of Temple Emanuel. As we anticipate returning to our beautiful building in September after almost 19 months of exile, the words, Chadesh yameinu k’kedem - Renew our Days as of old, take on a whole new meaning. Yes, we are returning to the “Days of Old” when we were able to pray together and celebrate and savor the history and traditions of Temple Emanuel, but there also is much that will be new and renewed.

Over the course of the pandemic, we have been able to make significant improvements to our sanctuary. Some are obvious, others less so.

- ▶ In regard to our physical space, when you enter the sanctuary you will notice that, due to the flooding that took place on Forest Street this past December, we were forced to replace both the carpeting and the chairs in the Sanctuary. In many ways, this was somewhat of a blessing since both needed replacement.
- ▶ In regard to our spiritual space, things will also look a bit different this year. One of the key takeaways we learned from our COVID-19 Streaming Services came from the many comments we received about how comforting it was to experience worship in such an intimate, and “up close and personal” manner. While we were on your computer screens, we also were able to create a feeling of intimacy and one-to-one connection. You saw our faces, our homes, our families, and our vulnerability at a time when we were all learning how to rapidly recreate worship and life-cycle events in a virtual modality. This is something that we hope to preserve as much as possible as we transition to a hybrid model of both in-person and streamed services. One of the changes you will see is that we will be using a new podium that will extend from the stairs on the Bimah and reduce the distance between the Clergy and the Congregation. In addition, our choir and musicians will come down from the Choir Loft and sit on the Bema – thereby creating more of a feeling of connection with the music of this sacred time.

► Our liturgical experience will also build on last year's High Holy Days where we integrated both the "traditional" and "contemporary" motifs of our worship. We will not be having separate "unplugged" and "Traditional" options. This decision was based on several factors — not the least being since we will only be able to seat 60% capacity in the Sanctuary, we wanted to have a consistent liturgical voice throughout all of our services. As you will see in the enclosed information, the timing of services has changed in order to ensure proper social distancing and the safety of all of our members.

While things may look somewhat different on the surface, the concept of "renewing our days" while cherishing the past is – and always will be - the key to our decision making. We cannot wait to see you – in person and online – as we welcome in 5782.

"Hashiveinu Adonai eylecha v'nashuva. Chadesh yameinu k'kedem"

"Return us, Adonai to You and we will return. Renew our Days as of old."

With best wishes for a Shanah Tovah U'metukah – a good and sweet New Year, I am...

L'Shalom (In Peace),

- Rabbi Joseph R. Black
- Cantor Elizabeth Sacks
- Rabbi Emily Hyatt
- Steve D. Brodsky

We Return

It was just over a year ago when we were recording high holiday greetings on videotape that we shared with the congregation. We were obviously concerned with how the virtual services would be received by the congregation, but that wasn't my biggest concern. My biggest concern was whether, after an extended absence, our congregants would want to return in person. After all, the entire Temple staff succeeded creating a virtual community. What's easier than sitting in sweat pants and listening to Avinu Malkeinu? Would people feel the need for Temple Emanuel once the pandemic ended? Now, a year later, I feel a tremendous sense of relief that my concerns were for naught. We are finally in-person praying, socializing and re-connecting, as a community. The bonds we created in the virtual world carried over and we are all stronger and wiser for the experience. I look forward to praying with all of you who choose to attend services in person this high holiday season. And it should be even more special because thanks to a water main break we have new carpeting and seating in our gorgeous sanctuary. It will be a high holidays to remember. On behalf of Becky and our family, and the Board of Trustees, I want to wish you and your family a very happy and healthy new year.

- B'Shalom,
Danny Foster

WELCOME 5782

It is hard to believe that 5782 and the High Holy Days are already here! While the High Holy Days are at the same time every year on the Hebrew calendar, they are upon us early on the Gregorian calendar that we follow in our everyday lives. Erev Rosh Hashanah falls on Labor Day, Monday evening, September 6th. And while it seems like summer has just barely begun, we now find ourselves in the midst of high holiday preparation with a brand-new school year around the corner.

As we are beginning to emerge from the pandemic, Temple Emanuel has been re-opening in a thoughtful and intentional way. Protocols will be different in order to be as safe as possible. After extensive conversations with the Re-opening Task Force, our plans mandate that we will need everyone to register for services if you are planning to join us in person. There will be a limited number of seats in order for us to maximize distancing inside the building.

If you have any questions or do not have email/internet access, please call Temple Emanuel right away so that we can assist you. 303-388-4013.

- 1 Everyone must register for all High Holy Day services, lectures, family programs, and teen programs that they are interested in attending. Please call the temple if you need assistance with logging in.
- 2 To register you must login to your Shul Cloud account (this is our new membership database you have been hearing about for the last many months) Please call the temple if you need assistance with logging in.
- 3 Registration for all High Holy Day events at Temple will be open beginning August 2 at 10 am. Registration for Shwayder will open August 10 at 10 am.
  - Members may register non-member family members at this time
- 4 There will be NO TICKETS coming in the mail. The online registration will provide a confirmation email which should be saved for check-in the day of services.
- 5 There will be registration tables on the days of each High Holy Day event. All guests must check-in with the ushers at the registration tables.
- 6 We will not have full capacity, so no one will be allowed to attend if they have not registered, so please register!
- 7 We recommend that only those who have been fully vaccinated attend in-person services and events.
- 8 Services and events will be streamed. You can watch on our website www.emanueldenver.org or on our Facebook page

I would like to thank our Re-Opening Task force for their time and dedication. They have been and continue to be invaluable to keeping Temple Emanuel safe and sound.

Debbie and I would like to wish you all -- Shanah Tovah Umetukah – May you have a good and sweet new year!

– Steven Stark

What makes a sanctuary special? At Temple Emanuel, is it the beautiful stained-glass windows or the imposing ark? Is it being surrounded by almost 2,000 other Jews when you pray or is it the beauty of the ark being opened and displaying our Torahs? It is all those things, but even more important, it is the memories we have in that space. Perhaps it is a departed parent taking your hand during a High Holy Days service or watching your child read a speech at their B'nai Mitzvah. It could be standing under a tallit with your child at Consecration or seeing young and old dancing with the Torah at Simchat Torah. The power of memory, both those we have and those we make for others, is an important part of our tradition.

As you may be aware, we had to replace the carpeting and seats in the sanctuary due to flooding. It will still be the sacred place that means so much to us, but it will have a new look to it. This is an opportunity to make new memories in there.

You might be wondering what happened to all the plaques on the back of the seats that you have donated over the decades. The plaques could not be reused on the new seats, so we have taken all the names from those plaques and put them in a piece of art that will hang outside the sanctuary. You will be able to find those names in the categories of Gift of, In Honor of and In Memory of. Your names and those of your loved ones will be forever inscribed as part of our community. We will take time to dedicate this new piece of art prior to our Selichot service on August 28th. We hope you can join us then.

Beginning at the High Holy Days, we will offer you the opportunity to purchase plaques for the new seats in the sanctuary. Plaques will be $1,000, but if you are replacing a plaque that previously was in the sanctuary, you will get a discounted rate of $900. Look for more information about this in the coming weeks.

– Francie Miran

KADDISH LIST

The names listed below are taken from the memorial plaques in the Meditation Room. Names are read at the Friday evening and Saturday morning Shabbat services following the date of death. To find out how to purchase a plaque, contact Patricia Lackner, ext. 308. To have other names read on a Friday evening, call the Temple by Friday noon. You can also find the Kaddish list on our website at www.emanueldenver.org/yahrtzeit

Rabbi Joe and Sue Black and Lee Borofsky invite you to celebrate the upcoming wedding of their children, Elana Black and Greg Borofsky as they are blessed at Erev Shabbat services on Friday Night, September 17th at 6:00 PM. The wedding will take place in New York in October. Please join us as we ask God's blessing on their marriage.

FAMILY OPPORTUNITIES for the High Holidays

Services, experiences, festivals and more....

There are some wonderful opportunities for families to engage with Temple Emanuel over the High Holidays. Join us for the Young Family Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur Services in the Tent at 8:30 a.m. the first morning of the Holidays. Also, on Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur we are hosting concurrent Middle School and High School experiences focusing on the Mensch period table and Cheshbone Nefesh (accounting of the soul). These experiences are at 4:00 p.m. on the first day of each Holiday. It will be a time to connect with friends and explore these themes connected to the Holidays.

On Sunday, September 12th, join us for our Family High Holiday Festival which will include 45 minutes of festival activities and a High Holiday Highlight Service with our Clergy. Activities will include archery, mural painting, nine-square, Hamsa decorating and more. There are two sessions for the Family Festival — one at 10 a.m. and the other 12:30 p.m.

Registration for our Teen program, "Habayit: The Home for Temple Emanuel Teens" and our Max Frankel Religious School will open on August 13th. Please watch for information regarding this year's programming.

We also want to take a moment and say, "Thank you" to Rita Dahlke, who served as our Assistant Principal for over two decades. Her dedication and determination shined through and helped support our Religious School. We wish Rita all the best in her future endeavors and are grateful for all she did to uplift our community.

L'Shalom,
Brad Cohen, RJE, Director of Youth and Family Learning
