Landmark Leadership
Honoring Jan Friedland, Temple Emanuel’s First Woman President

What are the qualities of a great leader? Is it charisma and knowledge? Integrity, honesty, and humility? Vision, strength, and patience? Every year, we return to the story in our Torah of our ancestors moving from slavery to freedom to wandering to finally entering our land. And every year, we are confronted with questions about leadership – was Moses a good leader? Did Aaron, Moses’s brother, actually help Moses lead? While many of our established and contemporary commentaries focus on the leadership of Moses and Aaron, all of our ancient texts agree that there is another key leader of the Israelite people: Moses and Aaron’s sister – Miriam.

Described as a prophet herself in the Torah, the legend of Miriam’s leadership only grows deeper in later Jewish texts. She is described as confident, faithful, wise, caring, and directly responsible for the sustenance of the community through her ability to provide water – a literal and figurative reference to Miriam’s ability to understand the community’s vulnerabilities and to provide for them. While the roles of Moses and Aaron are interpreted in many ways, the consensus on Miriam’s centrality is unequivocal. Miriam led the people of Israel – with strength, with sustenance, and with singing.

This year, on Saturday, February 4th, at Temple Emanuel’s annual fundraiser, we will celebrate and honor Jan Friedland – Temple Emanuel’s first woman President of the Board of Trustees. In many ways, this event is the culmination of a year and a season spent honoring women in leadership – from the 100th anniversary of the first Bat Mitzvah and the 50th anniversary of women being ordained as clergy in the Reform Movement, to sixty-six women traveling to Israel with Rabbi Hyatt and myself. It is in this spirit that we joyfully honor Jan’s landmark leadership and lift a legacy of strong women leaders at Temple Emanuel. Jan served as President of the Board from 1983-1986 and blazed the trail for four women who followed her as president: Nancy Gart, Henny Kaufmann, Laurie Saltzman, and Ellen Abrams, as well as our current president-elect Wendy Nekritz.

Jan’s connection to Temple Emanuel lives deep in her bones. Together with her husband, Gary, Jan’s family currently represents five generations of Temple members. Jan’s father, Sam, was the attorney for Temple and oversaw the construction of the Grape Street campus; the memorial statue in the Temple Courtyard stands in his memory. Jan and Gary met at Shwayder Camp. And it was during Jan’s presidency that she initiated the Chai Society – a community of long-standing, dedicated Temple members who donated generously to sustain Temple well into the future. In addition to Temple Emanuel, Jan has been a strong leader throughout the Denver community, serving on and leading boards for institutions such as the Lamont Society at the University of Denver School of Music, Rose Medical Center, and George Washington High School.

We are thrilled to honor Jan by hosting an intimate evening concert with guest artist Lisa Loeb – a Grammy Award-winning American singer-songwriter and touring musician, SiriusXM radio host, actor, entrepreneur, and philanthropist who started her career with the platinum-selling hit song “Stay (I Missed You)” from the film Reality Bites. A trailblazing independent artist, Lisa recently released her 15th album, A Simple Trick To Happiness, to stellar reviews from critics and fans. Lisa is also well known to parents and kids for her five children’s albums, and two illustrated children’s books with music. Inspired by her own love of summer camp, in 2008, Lisa started The Camp Lisa Foundation, which sends underserved kids to summer camp. As an actor, Lisa will soon be appearing in Hallmark’s upcoming holiday movie, Hanukkah on Rye, in December.

Picture This!

We are a people of the Book. We meticulously note the history of our People and read it and re-read it year after year. We teach it, learn from it, and study it. Jews love history, and that includes the Jews of Temple Emanuel. In 1974 Marjorie Hornebein (z”l) a granddaughter of the founding members of Temple Emanuel, wrote a 100-year history of Temple Emanuel from its inception in 1874 through 1974. It is a wonderful read for Denver Jewish history enthusiasts. As we approach our 150th anniversary it is our goal to draft a compendium to the 100-year history (1974-2024). This book will be a blend of history in words and pictures. We have an amazing group of Temple volunteers working on the history project led by Sharon Elfenbein and Leslie Schaefer, as well as our documentary volunteers led by Donald Yale and Sharon Levy.

As we get closer to finishing this project we need your help. We need good, high-quality photographs to use in this book. We hope to have hundreds of Temple pictures to choose from. If you are interested in helping on this part of the project please reach out to Suzi Scher who will be organizing the photography component of this project.

We need volunteers and pictures! Suzi can be reached at ssmsweb@msn.com.

And as we continue to research Temple’s recent history, we note it is replete with the leadership of amazing women. Please join us February 4th at Temple’s annual fundraiser as we celebrate a true Temple pioneer, Jan Friedland. Jan was our first woman president and she paved the way for so many other exceptional women leaders. I am honored to have known Jan my entire life and consider her to be one of my strongest mentors as I have gone through my term as president. It should be a great evening of celebration for someone truly deserving.

On behalf of the Temple Emanuel Board of Trustees, I want to wish you and your families a happy and healthy 2023.

Danny Foster
President, Temple Emanuel Board of Trustees

On February 4th, 2023, Temple Emanuel will honor Jan – our first woman president of the board of Trustees – and celebrate our dedication to women in leadership. Our Saturday evening annual event will not only reflect on our year honoring women in faith, but will also coincidentally and fortuitously conclude Shabbat Shira, the Shabbat of Song – the very weekend during which we read aloud the song that the children of Israel sang as they crossed the Red Sea on their way to freedom; the very weekend during which we hear the Torah describe Miriam as a prophet for our people.

Inspired by the idea of Miriam, we will lift up Jan’s landmark leadership. Inspired by the idea of Miriam, we will enjoy a leading female artist of our time. Join us as we sing and celebrate together.

Between the Lines with Sue Parker Gerson

Jewish texts have informed Jewish thought and practice for over 3,000 years. But how do we connect to words written so long ago? What do they reveal today? And how do they inspire action? In this course, we will examine the many ways that we bring the words of our texts into our daily lives. We’ll look at the hints and clues in the letters of sacred Jewish texts: the Torah, the Prophets, the Talmud (no previous Hebrew knowledge required). We’ll exam structure and authorship. We’ll discuss the commentary of yesterday. We’ll share where we stand today. Dive into a sea of knowledge.

March 23rd – May 3rd

Love, Loss and Wisdom with Shayna Friedman

Discover, during this six-week course, the Jewish responses and rituals that take us through mourning and arrive at a place of healing. When death inevitably enters our lives, Jewish wisdom and ritual can help us cope with heartbreak and loss, the anguish of why suffering exists. We will also seek to understand the big questions of what Judaism says about life after death and its understanding of messianic times. With a wider lens, we gain a context with which to better understand our moments of anguish as individuals and as a community.

Registration will open 6 weeks prior to each session.
