Dear friends,

Happy 2024! We are so excited to kick off the new year with two wonderful evenings of song and spirit as we continue the celebration of Temple Emanuel’s 150th year:

SHABBAT SHIRA – Shabbat of Song with Special Guest Composer Michael Hunter Ochs, the Shabbat Unplugged Band, Strings, and our High Holy Day Choir

Friday, January 26, 2024 – 5:30 p.m. Pre-Oneg, 6:00 p.m. Service

Shabbat Shira is when we read from the Torah the powerful story of the Israelites crossing the Sea of Reeds from slavery to freedom, and, in their joy, breaking into joyous song. This dramatic moment is traditionally linked to a celebration of the power of music and song, highlighting the idea that music can unite us as a community. This year, we lift up Shabbat Shira by welcoming esteemed composer Michael Hunter Ochs, who has been commissioned by Temple to write a new piece based on the text of Psalm 150 in honor of Temple’s 150th anniversary. Michael will join our full clergy team, our incredible band, strings, and High Holy Day Choir in leading our Shabbat service and for the debut of this wonderful new piece.

Michael will also join Rabbi Joseph Black and Cantorial Soloist Steve Brodsky for the Shabbat Morning Community Service on Saturday, January 27 at 11:00 am, where he will share more of his music and deliver the d’var Torah, speaking about the inspiration and evolution of his new commissioned piece for Temple Emanuel.

Temple Emanuel's 150th Year

Temple's Annual Fundraising Concert featuring Chava Mirel – Honoring Dick and Eddie Robinson

Saturday, February 3, 2024 – 6:30 p.m. Doors Open, 7:30 p.m. Havdalah and Concert, Post-Concert Dessert Reception

This year we are thrilled to honor Dick and Eddie Robinson – brothers, fourth generation Denver natives, and members of Temple for more than 50 years – who have committed so much of their lives in service to our community and our congregation. The Robinsons have been generous sponsors of Rosh HaShanah Unplugged and great supporters of our musical programming at Temple. Our featured performer this year will be the incomparable Chava Mirel, a unique presence in the world of music and spirit. Chava's music defies classifications of style or genre, exhibiting ease and fluency in an expansive array of musical styles ranging from folk to contemporary Jewish music to jazz fusion to world music to reggae. Chava has released five albums of her own, and is featured vocalist on two albums with global jazz fusion band Duende Libre. Celebrated for her rich, luxurious vocals, lush harmonies, and rhythmic phrasing, Chava is also known for her loving and compassionate presence. Whether in a spiritual gathering, concert hall, classroom or jazz club, Chava imbues her music and teachings with the universal themes of hope, caring, connection and inclusion. More information about tickets and sponsorship opportunities is included later in this Bulletin, and at the Temple Web site, www.emanueldenver.org/annual-fundraiser-concert.

Chava will also join our clergy and band for Shabbat Unplugged on Friday, February 2 at 6:00 p.m., with a Pre-Oneg before the service at 5:30 p.m.

Please join us for these outstanding evenings of song, spirit, and celebration!

– Steve Brodsky, Cantorial Soloist/Music Director
