TEMPLE EMANUEL BULLETIN

March-April 2021 | Nisan-Iyar 5781 | Volume 87, No. 4

Dear Friends,

Dear Friends,

It is hard to believe that a year has passed since we have been able to come together in person. On March 15th, 2020, we made the difficult decision to shut down physical programming at Temple Emanuel. While we have learned to adapt to a virtual world, we nonetheless mourn the loss of the moments of connection that we took for granted in the past. We long for opportunities to worship, study, celebrate simchas and sorrows together, and we pray for the day when we can do so without risk.

As difficult as these past 12 months have been, there also have been moments of holiness and inspiration. One key takeaway of this time is that we have reaffirmed the fact that our Kehilla Kedosha (sacred community) exists far beyond the walls of our beautiful building. Even though we cannot be together, we have not allowed our distance to distract us from our mission as a congregation. We have honed our ability to connect on a variety of streaming platforms and have discovered the powerful impact of how technology can enable us to experience meaningful and surprisingly intimate moments of connection.

We have gone through an entire cycle of the Jewish Calendar together. We have learned how to Zoom a seder, experience the beauty of the High Holy Days, and share in life-cycle events on camera. We have celebrated joyous holy moments, grieved our losses, carried out the business of running a congregation - all in front of our computer screens.

As we enter into the spring months and look forward to the summer, there is much about which we can be optimistic. The increasing availability of vaccines and the potential for herd immunity means that the isolation of the past year may soon be waning. We are all on a journey together. While we may not know its length or scope, we can see the end in sight.

The two festivals of Pesach and Shavuot serve as bookends on our people's spiritual journey from Egypt to Sinai. On Pesach we celebrate God's redemptive acts as we tell the story of our odyssey from slavery to freedom. Shavuot reminds us of the gift of Torah as well as commemorating the revelation at Mt. Sinai. In a very real sense, these past 12 months of dealing with COVID can also be seen as a journey. We are travelling a circuitous route of healing and self-discovery. Just as the Israelites learned to become a people during their wanderings, we too are in the process of assimilating the many lessons learned during this difficult and transformative period in our history.

May we emerge from our isolation renewed and with a new sense of purpose and commitment to our faith, our community, and a better future for all.

L'Shalom,

Rabbi Joseph R. Black

ShulCloud is Coming

This spring, we will be moving our membership management and web hosting platforms to ShulCloud! ShulCloud is an integrated synagogue website, calendar, and accounting system used by many synagogues to simplify and consolidate connection. In ShulCloud, you can register for Religious School and Temple Emanuel events, see your account in real time, track your family's mitzvot and memorials, make payments, and much more.

We're not yet ready to launch; we will keep you updated as we prepare to move over to ShulCloud completely. While we prepare, here are some things to note.

- 1 All members will have access to set log in information, taking them to their own member portal where they can check account balances, update personal information, and make donations or payments.
- 2 Our website will have a different layout! Not to worry – you will still be able to access all the programming, links, and schedules available now.
- 3 This will take some adjusting on your end and ours – we're excited to learn this new platform together!

Annual Meeting Minutes 4/16/2020

Mark Idelberg: Welcome everyone to the 145th Annual Meeting. Though we cannot be together in person, technology has brought us together. We are centered and focused on Temple Emanuel and how we can overcome and continue to bring people together. Temple Emanuel holds a special role when tragedy strikes and we will continue to support you however possible. We will focus on three ideas: Hineni, Kehila Kodosha, and l'dor v'dor.

Approval of 2019 Minutes

Elected Board of Trustees: Amy Pell, Ron Colson, Eloise Hirsh, Larry Kaplan and Lee Erickson. Passed

Rabbi Foster: This is a historic time that is very special and unique. The joy I feel as a parent is uncontainable. We are thrilled that all three children have chosen to participate in Jewish life with Debbie and her hagaddah, David with Shwayder, and Danny as the new President of the Board. Danny, I have two pieces of advice be strong and courageous. We are proud and bless you.

Danny Foster-President Elect: This is a special time for me. Thank you Mark for your leadership and for helping to teach me some of what I need to know as the incoming President. Thank you to the BOT and the exceptional work you do. We are all committed to make Temple Emanuel stronger as a BOT, Staff, Clergy and members. What we are doing is unique. We are facing challenges that are opportunities. I look forward to hearing from all of you.

Will Trachtman: We had several Brotherhood events this year from blood drives, bagels and learning, and scholarships to college students. This year we have chosen to honor Greg Ostravich who is a dedicated member of Brotherhood. He reads college essays, grills, and works hard to make everyone feel welcome.

Greg Ostravich: Thank you Brotherhood. I love to support the Temple Emanuel community. The events Brotherhood holds help to create community. Thank you.

Barb Schwartz: Good evening. I am grateful to the clergy for all of the virtual services and everything you have provided during this time. Sisterhood has had another busy year with member appreciation, bake sales, scarf making, hikes, and more. This year, we are honoring Laurie Prieve. She is a former past president, a supporter of all of our activities, attended several conventions, and helped us move to a digital platform.

Laurie Prieve: Thank you Barb and Sisterhood. Sisterhood has been part of my life for over 20 years. I am so happy I joined. I am honored to be recognized by these women.

Rabbi Foster: I would like to recognize the 50 year members. I am amazed by these generational families and all they have done for Temple Emanuel. Susan and Barry Shessel, Shari and Henry Schroeder, Robert and Charleen Dansky, Gene and Bev Duboff, and Karyn Gueck. Mazel Tov and Thank You.

Rabbi Black: Rabbi Foster and Joyce I want to give you a special blessing. What is the number 50? Lech l'cha God said to Abraham "Go forth and I will make your name great and bless you". Thank you for making my time here at Temple Emanuel a blessing. I have learned to love this community and you have been a blessing to me and the entire community. Mazel tov!

Susan Wartchow: We are happy to honor Candace Lyons and Woody Neiss. They are co-presidents of the PTA. They are active community members who have helped with movie night and community building. We are so thankful to have them and their growth mindsets.

Candace: Thank you Susan. We moved here 1½ years ago and the ELC has felt like a second family.

Woody: I am honored to work with Candace and Susan. The ELC is full of learning and educational opportunities at the heart of Judaism.

Cantor Sacks: The Volunteer of the Year is Bob Emmerman. His joy is infectious. He puts his soul into everything he does at Temple Emanuel from leading services, volunteering when ever needed, and his ability to help others.

Bob Emmerman: Thank you Cantor Sacks. When I heard from Steve Stark that I was being nominated I was shocked. We moved here 5 years ago and I knew we would join Temple Emanuel. This is an extraordinary community and I look forward to being here for many more years to come.

Steve Stark: Good evening and Thank you for joining us. We continue to try and serve the needs of our community during this very challenging time. I would like to thank everyone on the Operations Team for the effort they make in making sure the Temple runs smoothly. We welcomed Russ McDermott, to the team as our new Comptroller. The entire Operations team is hard working, dedicated, and fun to be with. I would also like to thank Rabbi Black for being an amazing co-CEO.

Rabbi Black: The meaning of the number 145 is Treasure. As our anxiety, unemployment, and stress builds we need to remember that our treasures are not just monetary. We have worked hard as a clergy and professional team to continue our mission and endure. I would like to thank everyone on the clergy team for all of their support and efforts as well as everyone on the Engagement Team for their continued out reach into the community. I would also like to thank Mark Idelberg for his amazing leadership over the past 3 year, it has been wonderful to work with you. Thank you to Steve Stark, you are a wonderful co-CEO and lastly, Thank you to my family for their support.

Mark: Thank you everyone who participated tonight both via Zoom and behind the scenes. We are so lucky to have a great clergy, professional team, and lay leadership which make Temple Emanuel outstanding.

Rabbi Baskin: L'dor v'dor. Working together we persevere.

Rabbi Hyatt: We are thankful to be together.

KEHILA 1874

Thank You to Those Members Who Have Made a Commitment Above the Sustaining Level

Kehila 1874, named for our community (kehila) and the year of our founding (1874), is our annual financial commitment model that began July 1, 2018. This model is helping Temple Emanuel fill long-standing gaps and achieve richer programming and education for all. We are excited about how Kehila is helping us realize our plans for a vibrant congregation today and our dreams of a strong and lasting legacy into the future for generations to come!
