TEMPLE EMANUEL BULLETIN

November-December 2023 | Cheshvan – Tevet 5784 | Volume 90, No. 2

Gratitude and Grief, Miracles and Meaning

Modim Anachnu Lach – we give thanks. This simple phrase opens one of the most substantial and often repeated prayers in our liturgy. Our tradition is grounded in gratitude – and yet, we know that at this moment in time as we watch all of the tragedy unfolding in Israel, as we struggle with grief, anxiety, fear, and sadness, it can be hard to feel grateful. The origins of this prayer of gratitude – Modim anachnu lach – are already found in the Talmud – revealing an ancient instinct to drive toward expressions of thanks even as the world feels heavy and hard to hold. The sages of the Talmud – our ancestors – and the generations that followed them surely saw their share of calamity, and yet, the gratitude remained. As hard as it might be to say these words out loud, heartfelt, sincere, expressions of thanks and perspective anchor us to our core values and connect us to our community, especially in these in this time of grief. And so we continue to say them – “we give thanks”; we cry them and shout them and whisper them and cherish them.

For almost the entire history of Temple Emanuel, we have used these words of gratitude not only to bring us together in Jewish community, but also to reach out and unite with others across faith communities. This year, as we celebrate our 150th Anniversary at Temple Emanuel, we are proud to host in our own sanctuary, our Annual Interfaith Thanksgiving Service – Thursday, November 23rd, at 10:00am. The first “Community Thanksgiving Service” was held in 1876 as a partnership between several member congregations and this same group has continued to gather together each year, with other representative congregations joining in along the way. An excerpt from the history books of Central Christian Church – one of our founding partners in this service – shares some of the origins of this service:

“Brother J.H McCullough, pastor of Central Christian Church, organized the first Community Thanksgiving Service in Denver and hosted it at the Unity Church at 17th and California streets, where Central Christian was leasing space at the time. An unnamed Presbyterian minister officiated, other Christians and Unitarians, and notably members of Temple Emanuel, the first synagogue established in Colorado, were in attendance. This was the first Interfaith Thanksgiving Service organized west of the Mississippi River and remains the longest established Interfaith Thanksgiving Service west of the Mississippi to this day. The service welcomed participants from the Denver Buddhist Church (which became the Tri-State Buddhist Temple) beginning in 1916, and over the years has welcomed new partners of different faiths so that today we have participants from Buddhist, Christian, Jewish, Muslim, and Unitarian expressions of faith.”

In this difficult time for our community, it is essential that we continue to honor and nurture our long-standing friendships. We celebrate one another and we teach each other. We listen to one another, and we advocate to each other. And so, on Thanksgiving this year, we will stand together and say together, “Modim Anachnu Lach – We Give Thanks.”

– Elizabeth Sacks, Senior Cantor

INSIDE TEMPLE

A Heartfelt Thanks

As my first High Holidays as President of the Board of Trustees comes to an end, I am filled with gratitude and inspiration. On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I want to take this opportunity to express our deepest appreciation to the remarkable individuals who made this High Holiday season an extraordinary success – our devoted clergy, dedicated staff and passionate lay leaders.

A special acknowledgment to The Ruby and Michael, Erma and Nate Baum Pulpit Fund and The Carl and Richard Tucker Music Fund for their continuous financial support. It is through their generosity that Temple Emanuel can uphold a standard of excellence in worship and education.

Our clergy team, including Rabbi Black, Cantor Sacks, Rabbi Hyatt and Steve Brodsky, led a variety of spiritual and meaningful worship experiences that fostered a sense of community and joy. Steven Stark and the entire professional team created a secure and welcoming environment. Our professional musicians, under the guidance of Accompanist Ken Mervine, and choir shared their incredible talents, enriching our worship experience. A heartfelt thank you to Colin Newton and the AV crew who worked tirelessly to ensure seamless implementation of sound, lighting and all things AV. Special recognition also goes to the Visual Tefillah team – Lori Kalata, Lin Sunshine, Doug Velick, Tommy Bell and Bob Emmerman — for all their dedicated efforts.

We are immensely grateful to Brad Cohen, Jocelyn Rosenberg, and our exceptional ELC and religious school staff who curated engaging and enjoyable educational programs for our children and teens. In the high country, Rose Savage Levenson and the Shwayder Camp staff carried our traditions forward, making Rosh HaShanah at Shwayder Camp a tremendous success.

Thank you to all our dedicated volunteers, ushers and especially Susan Chayet for coordinating their efforts. Our maintenance and grounds crew, led by Cairo Lopez, as well as our vigilant security officers played a crucial role in maintaining the cleanliness, functionality and safety of our beloved building. Your hard work did not go unnoticed.

Lastly to our congregants, your unwavering support and active participation have been the bedrock of our community. Your dedication to preserving our traditions and shaping our future is immeasurable. As we embark on our journey into the next 150 years together, may we be filled with blessings of joy and a deep sense of belonging.

Warmest wishes,

Wendy Nekritz, Board President, on behalf of the Board of Trustees

INSIDE TEMPLE

Gratitude

With the holidays just behind us, not only do we find ourselves consumed once again with our daily lives, but we now find ourselves deeply involved in celebrating our 150th anniversary. Before we are moving down this road of the 150th anniversary, I want to take this opportunity to connect back to those moments of gratitude, introspection, connectedness and joy that our community experienced during Elul, the High Holy Days and Sukkot... with Temple Emanuel and Shwayder filled to capacity! These first celebrations of the new year were a true reflection of our vibrant community.

It is no small task to prepare our facilities to host the many services, programs and childcare that go on during these busy times both at Temple Emanuel and Shwayder Camp. I want to publicly extend thanks to our fabulous Clergy for leading us in meaningful and engaging prayer, to our dedicated professional staff for stepping up to handle every detail and making those who walked through our doors feel welcomed, and to our top-notch maintenance staff who keeps things running smoothly and attends to every detail of our building and grounds. I would also like to extend gratitude to our security teams headed by Invicta Security and our off-duty policemen. Thank you; we cannot do it without you! I would also like to extend a heartfelt thank you to Wendy Nekritz and our Board of Trustees, our past presidents and countless volunteers.

Thank you; we could not do it without you!

It is so wonderful to see nearly everyone here for the high holy days as our community came together with energy and intention. And, while it will not be every day we see all 2,000 or so families here, we do want Temple to be a place where you want to be throughout the year. Please come and celebrate the myriad of events celebrating our 150th year. Our goal is to help you stay connected; meet other members with similar interests or who are in the same stage of life. Our creative and talented staff creates and facilitates a wide range of services and programs designed for the varied interests of our many congregants. Most importantly, we want you to feel welcomed walking through the doors of our community's spiritual home all year long.

In this, our 150th year, we look forward to seeing you often throughout the year. And if you are trying to find a way to get involved that suits you, please feel free to call me or our Director of Membership and Engagement, Susan Chayet, so that we can help to make your connection to Temple Emanuel meaningful.

— Steve Stark, Executive Director
