TEMPLE EMANUEL BULLETIN

September-October 2023 | Elul 5783 – Cheshvan 5784 | Volume 90, No. 1

Dear Friends,

This year will mark the 150th High Holy services held at Temple Emanuel. This remarkable milestone reflects the commitment, spiritual depth and love that members, clergy and staff of our Kehilla Kedosha – our holy congregation – have offered over the last century and a half. Over the course of the coming 12 months, we will honor our sesquicentennial anniversary with joyous celebration, deep learning, prayer and song. The themes of Harmony, History and Home will reverberate throughout our halls and in our hearts.

As your Clergy Team, we are honored and humbled by the gift of serving this sacred community. Over the course of the summer, we have been preparing for all the events and services that mark the Holy Days. As always, we strive to create a balance of old and new; sharing treasured melodies and liturgy that reflect our past while introducing new modalities of worship and learning that will inspire us to innovate and dedicate ourselves to the future.

Each year, during this sacred time, we, your clergy, are blessed to stand on the pulpit and gaze out at the diversity and continuity that ensures that Temple Emanuel will remain a vibrant a growing congregation for years to come. Some of you have been coming to services for generations. For others – this may be the first time you have attended services with us – or even attended at all. We are excited to greet all of you as we worship, study, and pray together.

During the month of Elul, the shofar calls us to return to our roots and look to the future. This is a liminal time: a period when we are gifted with the ability to learn from our past mistakes and successes as we chart a course for the future. Each of us walks our own path – but no one travels alone. We look forward to meeting together as we welcome a new year of celebration and new beginnings.

We can't wait to see you at services as well as all of the exciting events that are yet to come.

L'Shanah Tovah Tikateyvu – May we all have a joyous new year and may we be inscribed in the Book of Life for a blessing.

L'Shalom – Your Clergy Team:

Senior Rabbi Joseph R. Black
Senior Cantor Elizabeth Sacks
Associate Rabbi Emily Hyatt
Cantorial Soloist Steve Brodsky

Looking Forward to Coming Together

With the High Holy Days approaching, I am reflecting on my first few months serving as President of the Temple Emanuel Board of Trustees. I am invigorated and inspired by our clergy, staff and congregants. I am thankful to be surrounded by Temple Emanuel's talented professionals and lay leaders who work diligently to create a warm and welcoming place of worship. As we begin this High Holy season, I look forward to spending time with all of you. I sincerely hope that, just as I do, you consider Temple Emanuel your second home.

This year marks our 150th anniversary, and we are delighted to embark on a year-long celebration honoring our heritage and the enduring spirit of our community. As we celebrate this milestone, we are equally focused on building and ensuring our future. The Temple staff and our 150th committee chairs are curating meaningful engagement opportunities. From worship and lectures to social justice initiatives and educational events, there will be countless ways for you to become an integral part of our celebration.

As your Temple president, it brings me great joy to lead during this special time. On behalf of Ed and my family, as well as the Board of Trustees, I wish you and your loved ones a happy, healthy and sweet New Year — L'shana Tova U'metuka.

See you at Temple!

As we contemplate 5784, we have much to be thankful for and much to look forward to. As we prepare for the High Holy Days, we now begin the process of Chesbon HaNefesh – the accounting for our soul. It is a time of reflection and planning. We uncover lessons that are not just Jewish in nature but are more universal and applicable to everyday life... some that help us through a particular problem and some that stay with us for a lifetime, making us who we become as we evolve at every stage of our lives.

As we contemplate the year ahead, in addition to our incredible ongoing programs and worship, we will be celebrating our 150th anniversary! The year will offer something for everyone, as there is a lot to experience and celebrate.

Here are a few of the highlights of programs and events. Mark your calendars for the Fall, when Dr. Gary Zola, the recently retired Director of the American Jewish Archives will spend time with us and delve into the subject of what was happening around 150 years ago as many Jewish institutions are celebrating this milestone. We will also spend time looking through and celebrating our music archives. We will honor and celebrate the over 100 years of our Interfaith Thanksgiving with our Inter-Faith Partners. Hanukkah Hoopla is always fun, but we will be celebrating 150 years as well on this joyous annual event. Shabbat Shirah in January will feature an exciting musical artist who will unveil some surprises for the Congregation. The Spring will welcome a Scholar in Residence to study “what it means to belong,” as we look to the next 150 years. The Annual Meeting in March will feature Rabbi Rick Jacobs, the President of the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ) as our keynote for the weekend. The history committee in the spring will be sharing many exciting multimedia opportunities to look at our important and impactful history and contributions to our Jewish and Denver communities. We will have a celebratory Gala In May, with much fanfare. This is just the tip of the iceberg of a year of celebration. I look forward to seeing you all at a multitude of different events, education opportunities and worship. It was be a year chock-full of events and activities for all.

In addition, of course our small groups will continue to expand and grow, so watch out for new and exciting groups to begin. Currently, if you are interested we have well over 20 small groups that are active. If you have interested in joining a group, and/or if you are interested in starting/running one or more of our small groups, please contact Susan Chayet our Director of Membership and Engagement (chayet@emanueldenver.org).

So much is happening at Temple Emanuel over the coming weeks and months, so stay tuned to our E-notes and the Temple Emanuel Website (www.emanueldenver.org).

As we continue to bring our community together for services, celebrations and programs, I want to take a moment to thank you all for your time and dedication to Temple Emanuel. I am excited for what this new year of 5784 (and 2024) will bring.

Debbie and I would like to wish you all — Shanah Tovah Umetukah — May you have a good and sweet new year!

– Steven Stark
Executive Director

Melton Class:

Pray It Forward: God, Gratitude, Gather Together

Thursday Evening October 12 – November 16 (6 weeks) Registration Opens: September 5

Prayer provides a means to express gratitude. Prayer can be silent. Prayer can be communal. Prayer expresses our deepest needs and appreciation. This course follows the development of prayer, from the Tabernacle in the wilderness of Sinai, to the Temple in Jerusalem, to the Synagogue of today. The course will also explore some of the concepts behind prayer and blessings, as well as the power of meditation, as we link our past, present, and future, to the immediate and the transcendent. This is a journey of the soul — start today.

The Hebrew month of Elul is upon us once again.

Elul, the month leading up to the High Holy Days, requires each of us to engage in a process of self-examination known as Cheshbon Ha-Nefesh, an “inventory of our souls.” During this sacred season we stop to look closely at our relationships, thoughts, deeds, fears, and dreams. We do this so that we can enter into the Yamim Noraim, the Days of Awe, spiritually and personally open and prepared for the process of teshuvah (repentance/returning).

For the past several years here at Temple Emanuel we have marked the Four Weeks of Elul by examining our lives in all of the varied aspects and arenas in which we live: Spiritual, Physical, Interpersonal, and Communal. Each week, in both a message in our E-notes and from the bima on Friday night, a different member of our Clergy Team will share their thoughts and ask seven thought-provoking questions. The purpose of these questions is not to make us feel bad or unworthy, but rather to take advantage of this opportunity for a deeper moment of reflection. We hope that you will join us for four special Shabbat services during Elul:

FRIDAY, AUGUST 18

Our Spiritual Selves with Rabbi Joseph R. Black

What blessings have I found during this past year? Where or when have I felt close to God? How will I prepare myself spiritually for these Days of Awe?

FRIDAY, AUGUST 25

Our Physical Selves with Cantor Elizabeth Sacks

How have I met, or not met, my physical needs during this past year? How will I prepare myself physically for the High Holy Days – my body, my home?

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1

Our Interpersonal Selves with Cantorial Soloist Steve Brodsky

How have I handled my relationships this past year, both personal and professional? Are there people I have wronged that I need to ask to forgive me? What relationships in my life are in need of repair?

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

Our Communal Selves with Rabbi Emily Hyatt

In what ways have I connected with my congregation and my community in this past year? How have I worked to improve my community?

As always, Shabbat evenings begin with Pre-Oneg at 5:30 pm, Shabbat Worship in our tent at 6:00 pm, and ice cream following the service.
