MARCH 2024

ADAR I : ADAR II

Congregation Albert Ma Yesh

Congregation Albert, founded in 1897, is the oldest continuing Jewish organization in New Mexico. We are a Reform congregation whose members rejoice in our diversity. Together, we are committed to the ongoing works of building a congregation shaped by the Jewish values of Kedusha (spirituality), Kehillah (community), Torah Lishmah (lifelong learning), and Tikkun Olam (repairing the world).

Celebrating Jewish Women: Inspirational Leaders, Trailblazers, and Visionaries

As we commemorate Women's History Month, we reflect on the countless Jewish women whose contributions have shaped our world and inspired generations. From the realms of Jewish and secular thought to issues of equality, moral and ethical action, leadership, and cultural and religious matters, Jewish women have played pivotal roles, often overcoming significant barriers to make their voices heard and their impact felt. Let's take a moment to honor some of these remarkable individuals.

- Queen Esther: With Purim coming up, it is only fitting that we start with Queen Esther. Known for her courage and wisdom in saving the Jewish people from destruction in ancient Persia, Esther's story embodies the power of standing up for justice and protecting the vulnerable.
- Hannah Szenes (Senesh): A Hungarian poet and paratrooper, Senesh volunteered to rescue Jews during the Holocaust and remains a symbol of bravery and selflessness. Her poem Eli, Eli written in 1942 (and set to music by David Zehavi in 1945) remains a popular prayer and song for Jews worldwide. Hannah was captured during one of her underground missions in 1944, and, at age 23, tortured and executed at the hands of Nazi-allied Hungary.
- Emma Lazarus: Her words, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free," have become synonymous with the American dream and reflect her advocacy for immigrants and refugees.
- Ruth Bader Ginsburg: A trailblazer for gender equality, Ginsburg's legal career and tenure as a Supreme Court Justice transformed the landscape of women's rights in the United States. Her legacy continues to inspire those fighting for justice and equality worldwide.
- Miriam: Sister of Moses and a prophetess in her own right, Miriam's leadership, courage, optimism and insightfulness are celebrated in Jewish tradition.
- Golda Meir: Israel's first female prime minister, Meir's leadership during challenging times solidified her reputation as a strong and determined leader.
- Dr. Gisella Perl: A Holocaust survivor and gynecologist, Perl saved countless lives in Auschwitz through her medical skills and bravery.
- Anne Frank: Her diary, written while in hiding during the Holocaust, continues to touch hearts and minds around the world, serving as a testament to the human spirit in the face of adversity.
- Betty Friedan, Bella Abzug, Gloria Steinem: These Jewish women were leaders in the American feminist movement of the 1960s, advocating for women's rights and equality.

These are just a few examples of the countless Jewish women who have left an indelible mark on history. As we honor their contributions, let us also recognize the countless unsung heroes whose names may be lost to history but whose impact endures. May their legacies inspire us to continue the work of justice, equality, and compassion in our own time.

Wishing you Shalom,

Channa Lefton

Clergy Comments

Ashreinu ma tov chelkeinu...How goodly is our portion...how beautiful our heritage.

In the course of a typical winter day in New Mexico we often experience the splendor of freshly fallen snow on the mountains as well as the warmth of the sun and it's reflection around us. Each of these miracles, in their own way, reminds us of God's presence in nature. Our congregation is blessed with a beautiful space, which perhaps we sometimes take for granted, yet certainly not in our current age of "multi-access." This is the space where we come together to pray, study and conduct the sacred business of providing for the spiritual needs of our community.

Be Happy It's Adar! The holiday of Purim packs such a big punch that we are "happy" for the entire month and in this case TWO months. This year the month of Adar Sheini (the 2nd Adar) begins on Sunday, March 10.

There is an entire tractate of Talmud devoted to discussing "the" Megillah. There are four simple mitzvot - ה The Four "Mems" of Purim:

Mikra Megillah - Listen to the Reading of the Megillah: To celebrate the miraculous events of Purim, we listen to the reading of the Megillat Ester (the Scroll of Esther) on Purim or enjoy a Purimspiel (a creative telling of the story). Whenever Haman's name is mentioned, we twirl graggers and stamp our feet to "drown out" his evil name. Purim is the time when it's a mitzvah to make noise!

Mishteit - Seudat Purim Eat! As on all festivals, we celebrate Purim with a special meal rejoicing together and enjoying hamentashen. What is your favorite filling?

Mishloach Manot - Send Gifts of Food: On Purim we emphasize the importance of friendship by sending gifts of food to friends.

Matanot l'Evyonim - Give Tzedakah to the Needy: Concern for the needy is a year-round responsibility and on Purim especially it is a mitzvah to give tzedakah to the needy.

As we share this experience, with family and friends we are aware of the many continued changes occurring in our congregation and our world. It is both a gift and a challenge to create sacred space as well as sacred partnerships. The devotion of the leaders in our congregation is truly inspiring. It is a daily celebration to experience God's presence in their faces.

Chag Purim Sameach!

Our Atid Campaign

In our Torah reading cycle, we are currently reading about the building and the consecration of the Mishkan, the holy space dedicated to bringing the Divine among the community as they crossed the desert. It speaks not only of the structure, but also of the people that make up the community, and about making plans for future generations.

Given where we are in our Torah readings, it seems like the perfect time to share with you that we are initiating a capital campaign this year to focus on our own sacred spaces and hopeful future. Right now, we are in the very early planning phase of what we know will be an exciting and member-driven plan for our sustainable future.

To help lead us through this process, we have retained The Lapin Group, LLC, a nationally respected firm based in suburban Philadelphia serving synagogues and Jewish nonprofits in major fundraising campaigns. Hiring a skilled consultant to assist in a capital campaign is a common practice for nonprofit organizations. We are confident that the expertise of the Lapin Group will maximize our success in this important endeavor.

We are excited to continue building on our growth! We can't wait to welcome even more households into our sacred space and share with them all the blessings of Congregation Albert; to keep growing our programming by providing meaningful and gratifying membership engagement opportunities that reinforce our bonds as a community; to support and promote lifelong learning; and to actively live our values through volunteering in a variety of capacities as caring partners committed to tikkun olam - healing the world. Equally important is ensuring that we have the resources we need to care for our much-loved building structures so that they will see us through the next 126 years.

Please stay tuned. We will keep you informed as our Congregation Albert Atid ("future" in Hebrew) Campaign takes shape!

CA Green Team

Co-Leaders Judy Smith and Paula Donahue

Honoring the Memory of Sari Jensen

Sari Jensen, a long-time supporter of the CA Green Team's work, died unexpectedly this winter. Sari had a lot of experience teaching, writing, and researching. She relocated herself, her mother and 4 pets from Florida to New Mexico after two and a half decades of teaching. In Florida, she taught gifted Middle School students interactive units that included climate science, architecture, city planning and futuristics. She said it was great fun. In July of 2020, she completed The Climate Reality Project Global Training program and became a Climate Reality Trainer. She was involved in many environmental projects in New Mexico.

In 2021, she wrote this article for Ma Yesh. Her words are as valid now as when she wrote them. As spring and the planting season begins soon, she had this say....

We've all heard of the Big Ideas/Solutions/Actions to help our planet, but there are many small actions and choices we can make that will benefit us personally as well as the planet. Some actions reduce utility bills, feed us, clean our air and will make us feel good about our efforts.

Even people living in apartments, condos or other spaces without yards have options. Many miniature and small trees or shrubs are fine for container growing as are herbs, potted flowers and vegetables. A favorite small tree is the miniature lemon. The perks are beautiful flowers and lots of fresh lemons. You have the added benefit of being able to move it (on casters) so that it can block the sun.

Balcony or patio locations are perfect for potted vegetables, flowers and vines. Seed packets are labelled container/potted appropriate. Cherry tomato plants will add color to an entry or patio area and feed you! Everyone will benefit by having pots of marigolds and chrysanthemums by entries to keep out bugs. The oil and scent are noxious to bugs and pests.

Pesticides and herbicides are made with harmful chemicals. Stick to nature! Some dish soaps kill aphids. If you have a yard, import some ladybugs. Aphids are their favorite snack!

All plants improve air quality through photosynthesis. There are domestic air pollutants in your home such as carbon monoxide, benzene, and formaldehyde. A great indoor plant capable of synthesizing these pollutants is the philodendron. Just don't let your cat chew on it. It's toxic for felines. For fertilizers, use kitchen scraps like coffee grounds and vegetable peels. Never use nitrogen fertilizers. A research study done at East Anglia University, UK, and published in a recent issue of "Nature," found that Nitrous Oxide is a greenhouse gas 300 times more potent than CO2! Nitrous Oxide stays in the atmosphere for almost 100 years, far longer than CO2!

Small changes and choices do make a beneficial difference.

Meditation Shabbat

Co-Facilitators Paula Schwartz and Paula Donahue

Come join us for Shabbat Meditation on Zoom once a month on Saturday at 10:30 a.m. If you would like to receive a copy of the meditation service and a reminder with Zoom link, contact Paula Donahue to be added to a Congregation Albert meditation group email list. A simple Zoom link is also published in the Congregation Albert electronic announcements the week of the meditation. If you have questions about meditating call co-leaders Paula Schwartz and Paula Donahue.

Here is a practice we have used to prepare to meditate. It is adapted from a meditation by Denise Caverner

This is a short breath meditation about returning to a place of peace... Returning to a place of peace after a personal event like the loss of a loved one, a challenging situation or a global situation that is affecting your peace of mind. It is something that is throwing you off balance. You are now ready to return to homeostasis. This meditation will help you get out of your head and let go of thoughts and worries so that you can move into your intuitive, feeling body.

Find a comfortable way to sit. Take in a super breath. Bring this breath so deep that it moves beyond your physical body all the way to your emotional body. Breathe deeply into all the spaces of your body and as you breathe deeply, allow this breath to move into the spaces where your emotions lie. Give these emotions the attention that they are asking for. Breathe deeply and allow the breath to move into the spaces where these emotions lie, but do not hold onto them. Breathe into the spaces and set them free. Breathe into your hands... into your feet. Breathe into the core of your body and organs. Breathe into your headspace and into your heart. Slow the breath down and begin to allow the body to soften, and as it softens allow these feelings to be released. No longer hold on tightly. You soften... and you let go. Settle into a place of peace. Now, take a deep breath and exhale out with a sigh. Your sigh carries out these emotions. Release them. Let them go.

Continue to breathe deeply. Allow the body to soften a little bit more. Take a deep breath and with your exhale imagine you are blowing slowly through a straw. Practice this breath a few times allowing the body to relax just a bit more.

In this place of relaxation, breathe in the emotion of peace, and draw that breath deep past the physical body all the way to the emotional body. Breathe in deeply a feeling of peace, and allow it to move into your emotional body. Draw the breath in and allow that feeling of peace to move through you and allow peace to settle into your heart.

The Cantor Search committee has spent many hours this month carefully considering all of the applicants we interviewed in a first round. After some diligent and thoughtful reflections, we decided that two of the candidates had captured our attention enough to offer them second interviews.

Following those two interviews, we offered an in-person visit to one of the candidates who informed us that they had accepted another position.

As a committee, we felt that the other candidate would not be a good match for our congregation.

Our search continues for the person who will join our clergy team, and be the best match for us. We continue to be excited about all the opportunities that lie ahead, as we continue to go from strength to strength.

in Jewish History

NEW DATES!
Wednesdays, 6 p.m.
March 27 - April 17

Our Judaism is derived from the religion of the ancient Hebrews and Israelites and yet, at the same time, would be unrecognizable to our ancestors. How and why did Judaism evolve into the Judaism we know today? We will explore the answers to this question, by looking at the most significant and transformative events in our history. Our topics will include:

- a. The Assyrian and Babylonian destructions of the Kingdoms of Israel and Judah
- b. The Babylonian Exile, the destruction of the Second Temple by the Romans, and the development of Rabbinic Judaism
- c. The Expulsion from Spain
- d. The False Messiahs, Shabtai Tzvi and David Frank and the development of Chasidism
- e. How Napoleon changed everything leading to the Reform Movement

Brotherhood

Brotherhood has been busy this year. Our second brunch of the year was held on January 21 with Sam Bregman, District Attorney for Bernalillo County, as the featured speaker. Bregman engaged the attendees with a lively discussion. A lot of good questions were asked. The brunch was very successful, with a pre-pandemic sized audience of over 60.

Our first brunch, held on October 29, 2023, featured the prominent Rabbi Lea Muhlstein, a senior Rabbi at the Ark Synagogue in the United Kingdom. Rabbi Muhlstein joined us by Zoom from the UK. She addressed the topic of "Israel and Me – Why does it matter," which was facilitated by Rabbi Celia. Rabbi Muhlstein had recently taken a sabbatical in Israel, and had some interesting insights into the judicial overhaul, the divisions it has caused in Israel, and the attack on October 7. She also addressed how October 7 has affected daily life in Israel and the political landscape in Israel.

Brotherhood also supports Congregation events. We provided our "World Famous" Hot Dog Stand at the Hanukkah Fest, and will do this for the Purim Fest. Our hot dog stand was so successful, that we have been asked to cater a Bar Mitzvah with our hot dog stand. And Brotherhood was a sponsor of the Geshet/Member-New Member Event on February 3.

Upcoming events include a brunch on Sunday, April 21, the Brotherhood night at the Isotopes on Saturday, June 15, as well as a wine tasting. More details to follow.

And don't forget to join the fun by joining Brotherhood. There is a link on our website to join online: <https://congregationalbert.shulcloud.com/brotherhood>
