MI SHEBERACH

The Jewish Prayer for Healing Lyrics written by Debbie Friedman

Mi shebeirach avoteinu M'kor hab'racha l'imoteinu May the source of strength, Who blessed the ones before us,

Help us find the courage to make our lives a blessing, and let us say, Amen.

Mi shebeirach imoteinu
M'kor habrachah l'avoteinu
Bless those in need of healing
with refuah sh'leimah,
The renewal of body,
the renewal of spirit,
And let us say, Amen

One of the most frequent questions that I receive from congregants is regarding the meaning of the letters תוצבה, which is inscribed on the wall of our chapel, as well as typically on the bottom of a Jewish gravestone.

The letters are an acronym that appears in long form above the yahrzeit memorial wall in our sanctuary: Tehi Nishmato/a Tzarur/a Bitzrur HaChayim. The words translate as "May the memory of our loved one be bound up in the bonds of eternal life."

When we are in our most solemn moments of reflection during the Holy Days, the aspiration for our loved ones to live eternally is a comforting sentiment. But what does it mean? Aside from keeping them alive in our own memories, how may we, as the survivors, help to preserve our loved ones and grant them that feeling of eternal life?

For centuries, Jewish communities would write down their histories and record the names of their loved ones in Yizkor books, or books of remembrance. Many of these communities were lost during the Holocaust. Yet today, their Yizkor books are searchable online, serving as a last will and testament to these Jewish communities.

In this same tradition, each year our community remains indebted to the loving hands of our Sisterhood, who annually publishes our community's Yizkor Book. Contained in these pages are not only holiday greetings to one another, but the names of our loved ones whom we wish to remember during the New Year by giving tzedakah in their memory.

We hope that through recording the presence of our loved ones and sending greetings in this book, we will not only succeed in writing our departed loved ones into our Etz Chaim story, but add them to the annals of Jewish history that have endured from generation to generation.

As we enter the year 5784, "may the memory of our loved one be bound up in the bonds of eternal life." And may we ourselves never forget them.

B'shalom, Rabbi Daniel Dorsch

Debby Schonberger Dix

who taught us that we live,
and we love, and we leave;
that every day we have is a gift,
and that we must be glad for it.

As we continue to build our own sweet memories, she is never far from us.

Life's Whispers

Once upon a time the Eagle, the Lion and the great Fish met at the water's edge.

To the Eagle they asked, "What do you leave behind?" The Eagle replied, "I leave behind an empire of mountaintops, swirling winds and endless heavens."

To the Lion they asked, "What do you leave behind?" The Lion replied, "I leave behind an empire of jungles, forests and endless plains."

To the Great Fish they asked, "What do you leave behind?" The Great Fish replied, "I leave behind an empire of rivers, seas and oceans. "

As the Eagle, Lion and Great Fish pondered their answers, a butterfly floated by on a breath of air, its rainbow wings glistening in the sunlight.

"Tell us, Oh Butterfly," they bellowed haughtily, "what do you leave behind?"

The Butterfly gracefully settled on a slender blade of grass. "I have no empire – no endless heavens, no endless oceans. I am but a tiny, fragile creature but what I leave behind for those who have met me is an endless memory of unselfish beauty."

Your Etz Chaim Sisterhood would like to thank our fabulous Rabbis, the amazing professional staff, and all of our dedicated Etz Chaim volunteers, including the Executive Board, Board of Trustees, and all our wonderful affinity groups.

You all help make our Shul an exceptional place to be and make it easier for Sisterhood to continue to thrive and support our vibrant Etz Chaim community.

Etz Chaim Sisterhood is a part of an ongoing tradition since the founding of Congregation Etz Chaim in 1975.

Surrounding Others with Comfort and Peace

- Rebecca's Tent, a women's homeless shelter
- Provide handmade knitted items to MUST Ministries, a homeless shelter and service in Cobb County
- Jewish Family and Career Services food bank and more
- Breast Cancer Awareness "Pinktober" Mah-Jongg event supports Turning Point, a Breast Cancer Rehabilitation Center in Sandy Springs
- We play a vital role in the fundraising efforts for the synagogue, as well as being a benefactor to the community in which we live.
- Sunday Morning Minyan to support through prayer for those observing Yahrzeit and in Mourning

Lifting Others

- Supporting The Torah Fund to continue to make an important impact at our global Conservative / Masorti institutes of higher education
- Funds to our school and youth programs
- Continuing Shalom in the Shul education with Rabbi Lewis
- Partnerships with Lilmode

Surround Yourself with Those That Will Lift You Higher

- Our August Sisterhood Membership Kickoff was an engaging evening of being social, without the "distance". Our guest speaker, Stephanie Moyal, encouraged us to renew our friendships and move forward from the era of Covid. We bonded over refreshments and creating a Sisterhood mosaic to be made into a banner for future events.
- Joint events with other Etz Chaim affinity groups.
- A monthly Book Club features lively conversations, from the light-hearted to the serious, about members' selected books, with authors periodically joining via Zoom.

Many thanks to everyone who participated in our 5784 Greeting and Remembrance Book.

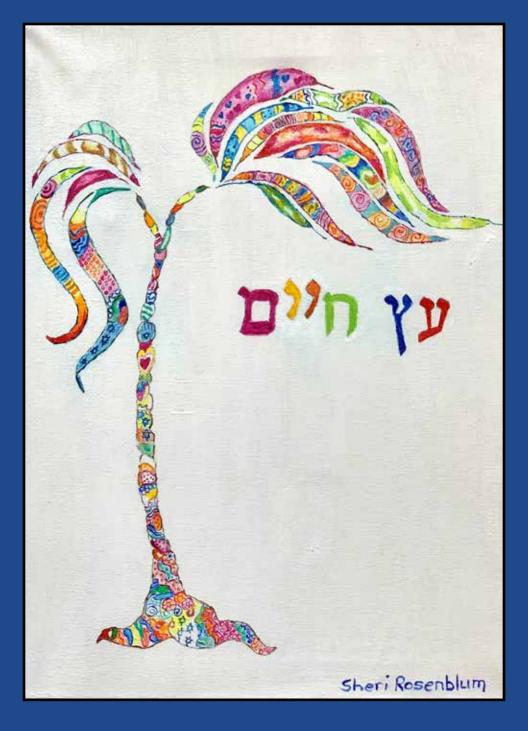

This is the single largest Sisterhood fundraiser of the year. Your contributions help fund programs and activities not only for Sisterhood, but for our Preschool, Religious School, Youth Department, Congregation, and community at large.

We value that you entrust us with your messages to your loved ones and apologize for any errors inadvertently made in this publication.

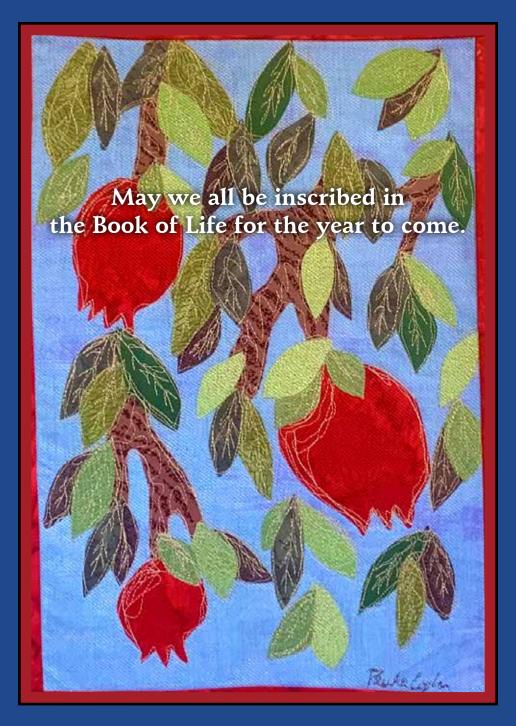

Special thanks to the entire administrative staff, especially Karen Chauvin and Bernice Isaac, Linda Weinroth, and everyone who helped produce and distribute this book.

We wish our Etz Chaim family a sweet, healthy, and happy New Year.
