As we approach the High Holy Days, our membership continues to increase as well as attendance at the Kantor ECEC and Religious and Hebrew Schools.

Since the founding of CNT, no one has been denied membership because of the cost of full dues and fees. As such, a significant number of our Congregants contribute what they can afford, and to cover shortfalls in the costs of our services and programs we look to our Menorah program to help meet the shortfall.

This year we have focused on expanding the benefits of the Menorah program which now begins with a minimum annual dues contribution of $3,600. Yes, this is an increase in the minimum amount for the program, but our costs and the number of families on reduced dues have also increased. And one added benefit for all Menorah program levels is ONSITE PARKING FOR HIGH HOLY DAY SERVICES.

Yes, in addition to the Mitzvah of continuing our tradition of membership for any family who cannot afford full dues and fees, being a Menorah level donor will mean no more parking across Valle Verde Drive in the Kohl's parking lot and schlepping across in the heat.

Contact Roberta at the office for further information and sign up.

I also urge your participation in the Chernikoff Torah Project which kicks off on Wednesday, September 21, 2022, with the first of the remaining unwritten letters being scribed, and will culminate on Sunday, February 5, 2023, with the scribing of the final letters. This is the first Torah commissioned for CNT since its founding, and, I would venture to guess, the only one for years to come, so we look forward to your family's participation.

I am writing this article, near the end of August, literally at the airport. I am on my way out of town as my wife and I celebrate our 40th wedding anniversary on Monday, August 29, 2022. In doing so, I am breaking my personal rule of “never travel in August” because it is so close to the Holy Days. But 40 years is different. A milestone to be celebrated and cherished.

So where are we headed? Hawaii? No. Israel? No. Some exotic place? No. Well, not exactly. Then again, I have never heard anyone call New Jersey exotic! Yes, we are going to New Jersey. Later in the year, when I have my Sabbatical starting in the midst of February we will go on many adventures during those several months of renewal.

But this week, we had a different plan.

Forty years ago, after we were married, Joni and I immediately relocated to Cincinnati in order for me to finish my last years in seminary. That same week, another couple moved there to finish their academic studies. We happened to have met them and were delighted to find another young Jewish couple our age. As it happened, we also were married the same week. A friendship was born and nurtured all these years. We celebrated our simchas and comforted each other in our sorrows. Distance did not matter. Time did not matter. That is friendship. As Joni and I celebrate our 40th, it is only fitting that we celebrate with our most cherished friends.

In a few short weeks, we will be entering into the sanctuary for Rosh Hashana. For many, it will be the first time back in many a month, perhaps in years, due to COVID. It will be a time not only of worship but of rekindling old friendships. That annual ritual of greeting for me has always been that special, sacred sparkle that brings excitement to the Holy Days. To see and be seen. To feel as if time has stopped and it was as if we have never been apart. That is the beauty of the Holy Days.

I look forward to seeing you all in person (and yes, for those who wish, we will stream Services). My Dad, of blessed memory, used to teach that a lot of life is “showing up.” Being there for each other. Listening to each other. Caring for each other. Being a friend to one another. That is what life is all about.

Forty years is a long time. But, right now, it seems like yesterday. This, too, is what life is all about. So, cherish the moments, they go by too fast.

While down in the hospital cafeteria getting some sustenance during day four/ round four of my husband Jeremy's chemotherapy treatment, something caught my eye – a packet of honey sticking up out of a bin next to the soda machine. I went over, grabbed it, and curiously smiled. I'm not a tea drinker (except before singing at a big Service or show), so honey is not something I usually look for in the condiments section. Why did it catch my eye today? Why did I take it with me? I went back up to Jeremy's hospital room, sat at my laptop, and prepared to sign into my first official year of Rabbinic School. I looked down at the honey in my hand... Then, it all made sense to me.

It's likely you know one of the gastronomic symbols of Rosh Hashanah is honey. Apples dipped in honey, challah dipped in honey, honey cake, and honeycomb... Honey is the food of the new year. Perhaps you also know the Torah is known as being as sweet as honey on our tongues, but you never knew where that comparison originated. In or around the 12th century, a custom developed in Germany where a child would attend their first day of school, learn the alef bet call and response with the head rabbi, and then the rabbi would put a little bit of honey on top of the letters on their slate (modern day: a piece of paper, or in my case, a laptop), and the child would lick it from the letters (the rabbis say honey is the culmination of all the sweetness of all the species on earth). The rabbi would then read these words from the book of Isaiah and have the child repeat, "God gave me a skilled tongue to know." Then, the child was given a peeled hard-boiled egg that had written on it (I assume on the discarded shell), "Child, fill your stomach and your belly will be filled with this scroll, and I ate it and it tasted as sweet as honey." The rabbi said those words, and the child repeated them. The child was fed a cake and the egg, and blessed with prayers that their mind may always be open.

While this parable is interesting and a bit far-fetched, it reminds us that, once studied, the words of the Torah are always upon our hearts and when we speak them, they are as sweet as honey. It reminds us that, for the Jewish people, education is highly valued and as necessary as the food that nourishes our bodies. It is a reminder that to teach is to learn and to learn is to teach, and we are constantly on a journey seeking the mysteries of the world and the wisdom of those who came before us. This story is also a reminder that ceremonies matter and if a young child would simply walk into their first day of school and sit down to begin learning, no lasting impression, no metaphorical hook, would be placed on their memory. Instead, when their parents pick them up after their first day and ask the age-old question, "How was your day? What did you learn?" Instead of the typical, "It was fine," or "Nothing," they shared... Honey. "The letters in the Torah are as sweet as honey."

I picked up the packet of honey. I brought it to my first day of school. As the class began, I opened that honey packet and pressed it to my lips and said, "Baruch Ata Adonai, Eloheinu Melech Haolam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu la'asok b'divrei Torah." Blessed are you, Eternal Source of Creation, who commands us to soak up the words of Torah."

This Rosh Hashanah, whatever is new, exciting, promising, encouraging, adventurous, unknown, or mysterious in your life, may you seek and embrace how it will bring you closer to the sweetness of the Torah. Never stop learning. Never stop growing. Expand your horizons. Be not afraid to leap.

Prospective Members To Rock With The Shabbatoners, CNT Community At Greatest Hits Shabbat

Wear your favorite concert T-shirt or dress up like a member of your favorite musical group for Congregation Ner Tamid's Greatest Hits Shabbat on Friday, September 16, 2022, at 6:15 p.m.

In the past, prospective Members enjoyed attending Beatles Shabbats at CNT to rock out with the music and sample the synagogue. This year the focus shifts to encompass other high-profile bands and new high-energy arrangements.

"For many years I've been asked to expand on Beatles Shabbat," CNT's Cantor Jessica Hutchings said. "For Greatest Hits Shabbat, I've taken pieces from many bands from across the decades."

Cantor Hutchings created the Beatles Shabbat phenomenon that has been experienced all over the world. She recalls divine inspiration struck when she was stuck in traffic on the Los Angeles 405N Freeway, headed to cantorial seminary.

"When the idea came to me, the prayers began to flow into the melodies of the most iconic musical group that ever lived, The Beatles," Cantor Hutchings said. "It was not until I brought the Service to Congregation Ner Tamid's Shabbatoners band that Beatles Shabbat truly made its mark. For years, it's been a staple at CNT, and many have suggested a Shabbat service featuring other famous musicians and genres. This year, The Shabbatoners and I are writing "Greatest Hits Shabbat" to bring in Shabbat on Friday, September 16."

CNT invites Members and not yet-Members to attend this special Service and find out if their favorite hit songs have been matched with their favorite prayers. CNT musicians will include Mike Adler, Eddie Birch, David Miller, Glori Rosenberger, David Rubinstein, Jay Poster, Ira Spector, Brad Torchin, and Avi Torjman.

Dave Matthews

Greatest Hits Shabbat attendees will also get the chance to view 38 photos of rock stars and famous musicians taken by CNT's Programming and Communications Coordinator Leslie T. Snadowsky. Snadowsky is a professional photographer who shoots for Splash News, the world's leading celebrity news agency. Her latest "Summer Superstars" collection includes photos of Tony Bennett, Jimmy Buffett, Duran Duran, Macy Gray, Nick Jonas, Jon Bon Jovi, Chaka Khan, B.B. King, Ludacris, Willie Nelson, Dave Matthews, Tim McGraw, Kid Rock, Ed Sheeran, Gwen Stefani, Sting, Keith Urban, and others. Snadowsky's photos will be on display at CNT starting on Friday, September 16.

Renowned Scribe, Rabbi Moshe Druin, To Kick Off CNT's Torah Project

Rabbi Moshe Druin will travel to Henderson, NV, to kick off Congregation Ner Tamid's Torah Project on Wednesday, September 21, 2022, from 4:45 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

CNT Members Jack and Elaine Chernikoff, and their son Neil Chernikoff, have commissioned the first brand new Torah for CNT. The Torah donation is in honor of Harvey Alan Chernikoff, Jack and Elaine's son and Neil's brother, who was born with learning disabilities and tragically passed away in 2011, at the age of 51.

The Chernikoff family reached out to Rabbi Druin's Sofer On Site International, one of the world's premier Torah Project developers, to create the Torah and bring it to the synagogue. Rabbi Druin is the President of Sofer On Site International, a renowned public speaker, sought-after lecturer, and storytelling educator. His heartfelt, yet dynamic presentations have endeared him to Jews of all affiliations, ages, and backgrounds.

When the Torah arrives, it will be unfinished, as Rabbi Druin will inscribe several of the remaining letters with Members of the Congregation. The final letters will be inscribed by Tu BiShvat on Sunday, February 5, 2023.

"Watching a Torah being written is an amazing Mitzvah that is very rare," CNT's Rabbi Sanford Akselrad said. "Congregation Ner Tamid invites everyone to attend this Kick-Off event and share in our joy. Among the many highlights will be music by our new Intergenerational Choir led by Cantor Jessica Hutchings, letter-scribing by master Sofer Rabbi Moshe Druin, and a reception sponsored by the Chernikoff family."

"Rabbi Druin is very excited to be coming to Congregation Ner Tamid," Sholom Lapidus, program coordinator and project management for Sofer on Site, said. "He is eager and passionate to relay the power and the message of what the Torah is, and he wants everyone there to take part in the Mitzvah journey."

Writing a new Torah or commissioning the writing of a scroll is the fulfillment of Mitzvah No. 613 – the very last Mitzvah in the Torah.

"The impact on the Congregation will be beyond words," Lapidus said. "Generally we talk about life in the physical world where most things come and go. People come and go, and things change. But when it comes to a Torah, from Mount Sinai to today and for generations to come, this is part of a journey that spans from the past to the future and will impact the children of the Congregation and their future families because they'll be able to say, 'I remember when it was dedicated.'"

“The most exciting part is when people meet the scribe, Rabbi Druin,” Lapidus said. “He writes the letters and every one of them has a meaning. When temple Members write letters with Rabbi Druin, they are connected through that letter and to the meaning of that letter and it’s a powerful connection.”

“During our Torah Project Kick-Off on Wednesday, September 21, our Members will get to meet an authentic scribe, Rabbi Druin, and witness him scribing in our new Torah as it comes closer to completion,” Rabbi Akselrad said. “If you think you know what the Torah is, think again. We ask parents and students to come for a free pre-educational part of the program, from 4:45 p.m. - 5:30 p.m., where we’ll have three interactive education stations. We’ll share amazing and fun information about what the Torah is and how it’s written and the values embraced within the Torah.”

During Wednesday’s Kick-Off ceremony, the new CNT Intergenerational Choir will perform an opening song, the Chernikoff family will talk about their son Harvey and why they donated a Torah to CNT in his honor, a short video about Harvey will be shown, Sofer Druin will talk about the new Torah, the Chernikoff family will write the first of the remaining letters in the new Torah followed by multiple CNT Members who belong to synagogue groups, and CNT’s Intergenerational Choir will close the ceremony with another song.

A reception will follow.

The Chernikoff Torah Project will allow CNT Members and the community at large to participate in the inscription of letters and naming opportunities for the five Books of the Torah, special passages, significant verses, weekly portions, and more.

Las Vegas-Themed Shabbat Hits The Jackpot

Thanks to all who attended our special Las Vegas-themed Prospective Member Shabbat on Friday, August 20, 2022, at 6:15 p.m. As Members and their guests entered the lobby, they were met by reps from CNT's Membership Committee, MENSch Club and Sisterhood, Preschool (who hosted crafts for the kids) and Religious School, Social Action, and Nevadans For The Common Good. Members who brought guests received fun CNT/ Las Vegas swag and prospective Members were given our new CNT branded T-shirts and tote bags. And everyone loved posing in front of our new Welcome to Fabulous Congregation Ner Tamid backdrop in the lobby.

Inside the Sanctuary, the Shabbat Service featured Rabbi Sanford Akselrad and Cantor Jessica Hutchings. Rabbi's sermon, Synagogue as a Transformative Experience, was about why the Synagogue has been at the heart of Jewish life for 2,000 years and why the synagogue is the place where Judaism is nurtured, grown, and reimaged again and again.

CNT's Member musical group The Shabbatones performed, there were bounce houses for the kids, and a pizza and "crazy" ice cream oneg took place on our patio. The line may have been a bit long at the Super Chill Premium Specialty Sundaes ice cream truck, but everyone said it was worth the wait as they enjoyed their Brownie Blasts, Cookies n' Cream Sundaes, Strawberry Cheesecake Sundaes, Reese's Sundaes, and Fro-Yo straight from the truck.

CNT Ushers In High Holy Days With Special Events

Selichot prayers for forgiveness will ring in the High Holy Days at Congregation Ner Tamid on Saturday, September 17, 2022. CNT's innovative Selichot Service begins at 7:30 p.m. and will include an outdoor drum circle and the ceremonial changing of Torah mantles.

"In more Orthodox congregations, this Service is held in the wee hours of the morning," CNT's Rabbi Sanford Akselrad said. "However, CNT has its own spin on this holiday. To get the community in the mood for the High Holy Days, we prepare ourselves spiritually. At CNT we hold a drum circle which allows us to harken back to our Biblical roots and remind ourselves that the gift of the Torah is like the beating heart of the Jewish people."

Attendees of all ages will be given drums and will follow the lead of a master drum leader. As the drumming ebbs and flows, Rabbi Akselrad will share various meditations and thought-provoking stories that reflect upon the meaning of the High Holy Days. The Service will conclude with the blowing of the Shofar.

"This year we will add another element to our Service," Rabbi Akselrad said. "The month of Elul is about transformation, so on Selichot we will begin those final days of transformation and introspection as we approach Rosh Hashanah. To commemorate the changing of the seasons, we will change our weekly Torah mantles to the white High Holy Day mantles. This will be done immediately following the Selichot Service and it will add an emotional and dramatic touch to a beautiful evening, marking the beginning of this sacred period of time."

As the clergy stands in their white robes with Congregants holding the Torahs, dressed in their fine white Holy Day mantles, the CNT community will immerse itself in the High Holy Day season.

CNT will celebrate Erev Rosh Hashanah with a Service on Sunday, September 25, at 7:30 p.m., and apples and honey will be served to all attendees.

The first day of Rosh Hashanah, on Monday, September 26, will include a Tot Service for Preschool students at 9:00 a.m. and both a Rosh Hashanah Youth Service and Traditional Service at 10:00 a.m. And the second day of Rosh Hashanah, on Tuesday, September 27, will also feature a 10:00 a.m. Service. Tickets for Members and not yet-Members will be available for all Rosh Hashanah Services. For more information call CNT at (702) 733-6292 and ask for Roberta.

"If you are looking for a warm, creative, and dynamic Congregation to spend the High Holy Days with, look no further than Congregation Ner Tamid," Cantor Jessica Hutchings said.

SANCTUARY DOORS – Our doors will open 15 minutes before each Service begins.

PRAYER BOOKS – If you have purchased High Holy Day Prayer Books, please bring your own: Gold Books for Rosh Hashanah, Blue Books for Yom Kippur.

COVID POLICY – Out of an abundance of caution, we are asking all who accept Honors this year to wear a KN-95 mask when they come up to the bimah. If an individual needs one, they will be provided at a station near the bimah. We ask that all who sit on the bimah wear masks as well. We also will have hand sanitizer stations at the entrance to the sanctuary and near the bimah.

PLEASE NOTE – For security reasons, all bags and personal items will be subject to search.

Preschool Director Tomaro Debuts New Column, #askfarrah

Farrah Tomaro, Director of The Gary & Lynn Kantor Early Childhood Education Center's Preschool at Congregation Ner Tamid, is writing a new Q&A column about the Kantor ECEC and early childhood education. Look for her column (and accompanying video blog) in our CNT Bulletin, website, e-blasts and on Facebook and Instagram (#askfarrah).

Send your questions to ftomaro@lvnertamid.org if you'd like to ask Farrah about the Preschool or early childhood education.

Q. Caregivers often ask, Why should I send my child to Preschool? What do they learn besides letters and numbers?

While academics are usually the first thing adults think about when they think of school, it's usually not developmentally appropriate to teach academics to a young learner. Children will learn in all academic domains when it is appropriate to their development.

Preschool is a time to master the building blocks that will lead to a successful academic career.

The preschool classroom is a place to practice: routines, stamina, paying attention to adults beyond our typical caregivers, transitioning from task to task, building peer relationships, language and literacy development.

Experiences should be set up within the preschool so there is ample time to develop these skills within an environment where it's safe to practice.

CNT Adult B’Nai Mitzvah Students Donate 500 Books To Charity

Congregation Ner Tamid Adult B’Nai Mitzvah students Valerie Catallozzi, Ann Brandt, Libby Miller, and John Henderson spent the summer hosting a book drive for Spread the Word Nevada (STWN), <https://spreadthewordnevada.org>.

“We are very excited to report we received more than $200 and collected and donated 500 books to STWN,” Catallozzi said about the successful Mitzvah project. “Thank you to CNT Members for your help. We couldn’t have done it without you.”

The group collected new and gently used children’s books, from Pre-K to 5th-grade reading levels, from local donors, CNT Members, family, and friends for STWN, a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting childhood literacy. STWN collects and distributes 60,000 books a month to at-risk students in low-income communities throughout Southern Nevada.

Shoes Collected, Nearly $2K Raised To Help The Homeless

Congregation Ner Tamid Adult B’Nai Mitzvah students Demetra McGowen, Mindy Bachrach, Lauren Vogel and Sonya Haggerty worked in cooperation with Greens and Proteins and St. Timothy’s Episcopal Church in Henderson, NV, to raise $1,983 and collect physical donations of shoes, take-out boxes and bottles of water to help the homeless through Friends of the Desert. Not only did CNT Members donate, but local online shoe and clothing retail giant Zappos also contributed a box of shoes.

On August 19, 2022, the CNT group gathered at St. Timothy’s Episcopal Church to deliver the donations and recite the HaMotzi before handing out 80 meals they helped prepare for the homeless.

“We had several boxes of items brought to the Temple filled with so many items the homeless and others who are struggling within our community needed,” organizer McGowen said. “Words cannot express the warmth and hope felt by each of us as we looked into the eyes of each person who reached back to receive the gift of love and compassion. I wonder if they realized the gift they gave to us?”

Chavurah Chazarai

Hillary Steinberg's Wine Not? Chavurah hosted a fabulous dinner and wine tasting event at Marché Bacchus Restaurant in Desert Shores on Saturday, August 20, 2022. They dined Lakeside with hors d'oeuvres, a three course meal, dessert and lots of wine. Even the camera got tipsy!

Susannah and Joe Altman will host the next Art of Fine Liquor Chavurah event at their home on September 17, 2022, at 5:00 p.m. They are organizing a vodka tasting and will provide some lite bites. Guests are asked to bring their favorite vodka and an appetizer or dessert to share.

Joan Fine's Book Club Chavurah meets on Monday September 19, at 4:30 p.m. to discuss The French Baker's War by Michael Whatling. Joan said they have room for a few more members.

CNT Members received an exclusive invitation from Hollywood royalty for the next Film Chavurah screening. Actress Beverly Washburn sent a video message inviting all Members to meet her and hear her talk about being a child actress in the movie classic "Old Yeller" on Wednesday, September 28. Washburn also appeared on "Star Trek" in 1966 and "Spider Baby or, the Maddest Story Ever Told" in 1967.

Doors open at 5:50 p.m., there will be a pre-film Happy Hour with food, drinks and conversation with Washburn beginning at 6:00 p.m., and the curtain goes up at 7:00 p.m.

The event takes place at The Theatre in the District Condos at 2220 Village Walk Dr. in Henderson. The entrance is on the north side of the District close to the north side entrance to REI.

Illisa Polis' 7th Grade B'Nai Mitzvah Chavurah will celebrate the start of the Religious School year with a fun Fro-Yo frolic to Menchie's Frozen Yogurt at 665 Green Valley Pkwy. on Sunday, October 2, from 3:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

And Michele Wertheimer's Mahjong Chavurah continues to meet at CNT's main lobby every Monday at 1:00 p.m.

KING DAVID MEMORIAL GARDEN

Roberta Unger,
runger@lvnertamid.org

When a loved one passes away, Jewish tradition teaches us to remember them annually by lighting a candle on the date of their passing, or Yahrzeit. We honor and show our love for the departed and remember that those who have passed away never truly leave us as long as we hold them in our hearts and adopt their life lessons into our own daily lives.

If you'd like to pay homage to a loved one, add their name to our Rows of Remembrance.

To reserve or to purchase a Yahrzeit plaque, please contact Roberta Unger, (702) 733-6292, runger@lvnertamid.org, to ensure your loved one's name is etched in stone.

Nevadans for the Common Good

"WE DON'T ACCOMPLISH anything in this world alone, and whatever happens is the result of the whole tapestry of one's life and all the weavings of individual threads from one another, that creates something."

– Sandra Day O'Connor

THE CNT NEVADANS FOR THE COMMON GOOD Committee and its ADDICTION & RECOVERY TEAM have recently established a MENTAL HEALTH Component and will be holding an orientation meeting on Wednesday, September 7, 2022, at St. Thomas More Catholic Community. Anyone interested in mental health and its effect on community members is invited to attend.

In addition, NCG will be holding confidential Mental Health Listening Sessions to be scheduled in the Fall for the Congregation and others who are interested. The sessions will focus on issues members are facing and how these may impact themselves and the general community. NCG will take this information and use it to track trends affecting our local Henderson and Las Vegas community. NCG, as a political, non-partisan organization, will utilize the trend data to talk to politicians so that they can hear what their constituents are saying. From this, bills and other political actions may occur. The first Listening Session will be held on Monday, September 19, at 6:30 p.m. at Foster Kinship, 3925 W. Cheyenne Avenue, #401, Las Vegas 89032. All Congregants are invited to participate in Listening Sessions, at this location or others around the valley, or in December (date to be determined) at CNT.

The organization will also be holding Neighborhood Walks throughout the city of Las Vegas with the purpose of building relationships, sharing information, learning about concerns, and connecting folks to nearby institutions. The Henderson Cluster (Green Valley United Methodist Church GVUMC, St. Thomas More Catholic Community, and CNT), will walk neighborhoods in downtown Henderson on Saturdays, October 15, and October 22, in the neighborhood surrounding GVUMC. This is a great opportunity for everyone to meet neighbors and hear their concerns. Come join us!

The CNT NCG Steering Committee meets the third Thursday of the month at 5:15 p.m. The Addiction & Recovery Team meets the fourth Tuesday of the month at 4:00 p.m., both currently via ZOOM. Email us for ZOOM information.
