A Good Apology

Now that summer is here, those of us active in synagogue life, and that includes every synagogue office staff all over the world, are not thinking about vacation plans. Most of us are overwhelmed with planning for the High Holidays. Tickets are printed and mailed out, honors are listed and distributed, Cantors are honing their vocal skills, and Rabbis are polishing up their sermons. It is easy to overlook the most important aspect of the coming Holidays—and that is the deeply challenging topic of repentance and forgiveness. Here is a sample letter of apology:

> "Dear Dog,
> I am so sorry about you being sent to the dog pound for the broken lamp which you did not break; the fish you did not spill; and the carpet that you did not wet; or the wall that you did not dirty with red paint…
> Things here at the house are calmer now, and just to show you that I have no hard feelings towards you, I am sending you a picture, so you will always remember me.
> Best regards,
> The Cat"

As you read the note over and over you gradually come to realize that it is not much of an apology. In fact it is more a case of rubbing it in, of being glad that the writer of the apology got away with murder, while the innocent dog is the one suffering from undeserved punishment. How do we avoid being the cat? We need to learn how to make a good apology, one that is real, that is sincere and honest. An apology that is legitimate is one that gets the job done, and to do so, it must have three parts:

Part One—To say "I am sorry." That accepts blame for the wrong act, and that is the first necessary ingredient of an authentic apology. However, the words "I am sorry" can also be empty and perfunctory, uttered without meaning or sincerity. That's why it also needs---

Part Two—"It is my fault." There are no excuses. When we accept fault, we have the power to do something about it. When we pass blame to others, as the cat did, we deflect any responsibility to keep it from happening again. Finally, the process requires—

Part Three—"What can I do to make it right?" Unless we change something, nothing changes. A good apology is followed by action. Otherwise, it is only words. If we are going to apologize, then do it well. Don't ruin your apology with an excuse that avoids backing it up with action.

As the summer progresses and we get closer and closer to the High Holidays, let us pledge to prepare for those special days properly. Let our apologies be real and sincere so that we can truly wipe the slate clean and get a fresh, healthy start with those to whom our apologies are addressed.

Have a wonderful and refreshing summer

Shalom,

Rabbi Samuel S. Kieffer

Temple Beth Am is an egalitarian conservative synagogue.
We strive to be a spiritual home wherein a Jewish path can begin or continue in the company of a caring and loving community. The atmosphere is open, the journey engaging, the community supportive.

From Our President...

I'm sure most of you have been defined by your relationships during your lives as I have. When I was a kid, I was Rabbi Zimmerman's daughter or Mrs. Zimmerman's daughter. When I was in high school, I was Mark's sister. When we go to England, I'm Terry's wife. When the kids were little I was Isabelle's mother or Ian's mother. When we first came to Beth Am, I was Ross' sister.

But the thing that most defines me is that I am Rabbi Zimmerman's daughter. Even though my father died when I was 18, my mom will tell you that I have lived most of my life with that responsibility in my mind. It has guided many of my actions throughout my life.

My father used to say that you don't have to be a Rabbi to be a good Jew. And I've always taken that to heart. I've tried to be a good Jew. And one of the ways that I have tried to do that is to be involved in my synagogue. For me, my synagogue is one of the most important things in my life. It's my place to be who I am. It's where I connect with other Jews and where I connect with G-d. And it's in those connections that I try to live up to my father's advice that you don't have to be a Rabbi to be a good Jew.

So all I really want to say to all of you is that not only am I honored by your trust in me, but I am grateful for the opportunity to do whatever I can to serve this Temple and its members.

I know that everyone looks to the incoming President to have goals for their term. I've been asked that question a lot for the last year, and here's my answer, naïve as it may sound to some of you. I want each and every member of this synagogue to feel good when they come here. I want them to feel welcomed and appreciated, and most importantly, happy, whether they are here for services or for a barbecue. I want all of you to feel joy when you come here. I want you to know that each and every one of you is an important member of our Kehilah, that each and every one of you is vital to our continued success, AND that we are all in this together. Not one of us can do everything, including me, although Terry will tell you that I have a tendency to think that I can. We all need to work together to accomplish our goals. We are a team and we need to work as a team. This is not about any one person's desires or any one person's ego. This is about what is best for our community. We need to help each other and work together. And I mean work. It's wonderful to have ideas about how things should be, but those things cannot happen unless you actually do the work to put it into action. And I mean you. Each and every one of you can make a difference by stepping up and doing your part, no matter how big or small.

We may not always agree on every aspect of how things are run here, but I promise you that every decision will be made with my heart and with the greatest intentions for the continuation of the many years of success that Temple Beth Am has enjoyed. And with my father's voice in my head reminding me that you don't have to be a Rabbi to be a good Jew.

Risa Worrow

Temple Beth Am President

Memorial Plaques

Honor the memory of loved ones by purchasing a memorial plaque. Plaques are displayed on the memorial boards located in the Sanctuary.

- During the Hebrew month of the deceased's Yahrzeit, lights adjacent to the plaque will be lit. Temple Beth Am will send a reminder of the Yahrzeit to the purchaser.
- During Selichot services, the Rabbi will announce the names on the new plaques installed during the past year.
- Cost for a plaque is $360. A reserve is also $360, with no further charge when the plaque is ordered.

Sisterhood News

JULY/AUGUST

Welcome to a new year for Sisterhood!

We have had a very productive summer in order to bring you many fun and educational programs this coming year. If you are still on the fence as to whether or not to join Sisterhood, please jump down and join in.

We are women of many ages and backgrounds that come together and work toward a common goal, because women together accomplish so much more than a woman alone. Whether it is participating in mitzvah projects, helping out at bingo, which raises money for the temple, getting together to organize someone's shiva, discussing a book we've read or simply playing mah jongg or schmoozing. If you haven't come to a Sisterhood event in a while, make this the year you change that. Although our calendar is still being worked on, here are a few things to look out for:

September	Look for our holiday flower sale
September 30	Nei'lah Nosh
October 10	Sukkah Sizzle
November 4	1st Book Discussion - The Zookeepers Wife (see separate article)
November 12	Global Day of Learning
December 10	Game Day
January 14	Old Bags Brunch
February 11	Book Discussion—TBA
February	Shalach Manot Sale
March 3	Women's Shabbat
March 13	Jewish Genealogical Society (in conjunction w/Men's Club)
April 29	Woman of Valor Luncheon
June 10	Game Day

Hope to see you at one of these events.

L'Shanah Tova, (maybe a bit early).

Maxine Szmulewitz
Sisterhood President

A MESSAGE FROM

The Men's Club of Temple Beth Am

A MESSAGE FROM

The Men's Club has kicked off its planning of the 2017-2018 season!

One of the events on the calendar will be a visit to a local Escape Room. What is an Escape Room, you ask? You and your friends are locked in a room and you have one hour to escape. To help you, there are clues scattered around the room which help you solve puzzles, which in turn help you find the key to the room. The solution to a puzzle can be a code to a padlock, an entry code to an inner door, or a red herring. Each solution to a puzzle helps you solve the final puzzle to leave the room. As time elapses, the puzzles become more difficult. Escape rooms require teamwork, communication, delegation, and critical thinking. Escape rooms can come in various themes such as solving mysteries, defusing a bomb, heading a rescue mission, investigating a crime, etc.

A little history about escape rooms. The "escape the room" genre was originally started in the early 2000s in the form of a point-and-click computer puzzle game. Examples of these games were named MOTAS (2001) and Crimson Room (2004),

In 2007, a company named SCRAP opened the first documented escape room in Japan. Budapest, Hungary is also frequently cited as the birthplace of escape rooms.

Five years later, in 2012, SCRAP, also known as Real Escape Game (REG), opened in San Francisco, California. Real Escape Game was the first company in America calling itself an "escape room". In late 2013, escape rooms were opened in New York City, beginning their expansion across the United States.

As of 2016, there are approximately 1,500 escape room facilities in the United States.

Escape rooms are not just for children. Companies including Google, Amazon, Facebook, and Netflix have used them for team building activities. Organizations such as temple Men's Clubs also participate.

I invite you all to join the Men's Club escape room experience. Stay tuned to the temple's website and Weekly What's Happening for more details. In addition to this event, the Men's Club is planning its annual Sunday Speaker Series. Please send any suggestions to me at mensclub@beth-am.org.

A friendly reminder: As you are filling out your temple renewal packages, don't forget to include your filled-out Men's Club membership forms.

Have a very happy summer!

Torah Fund 2017-2018

Torah Fund is the campaign that is helping to ensure the future of Conservative Judaism by providing scholarship money for rabbis, cantors, educators, synagogue administrators, professional and lay leaders, and many more. Your Torah Fund contribution helps to strengthen and perpetuate Conservative/Masorti Judaism throughout the world.

This year, with a contribution of $180 or more, you will receive a beautiful, two tone pin designed by Eytan Brandes. The pin is titled "Mah Tovu" which means "how good!" This is a phrase that originates in the Torah, in Numbers 24:5. It is quoted in our prayer book, and it forms the basis of the opening prayer that is sung when we enter the synagogue.

The full phrase is Mah tovu ohalecha Yaakov, mishk'notecha Yisrael, "How goodly are your tents, O Jacob, your dwellings, O Israel!" It is a spontaneous exclamation of joy and appreciation, said when gazing at the nation of Israel, dwelling in peace and mutual respect. As we celebrate the beginning of the 100th year of Women's League for Conservative Judaism and the end of the 75th year of the Torah Fund Campaign, we count our many blessings as individuals within the community of Israel. We are blessed in our synagogues with depth of learning, prayer, and acts of kindness that bind us together; with communal leaders who are thoughtful and learned; with children and grandchildren who make us smile; and with the love of family and friends—especially our Women's League sisters—who are such a strong support to us. How good are all these blessings in our lives!

The pin, featuring the number 100 in raised letters and encased in a silver frame, is a treasured keepsake of the Women's League centennial celebration to wear with pride!

To make a pledge of between $18 and $5000, please contact Maxine Szmulewitz, Sisterhood President and Torah Fund Chair at maxinepaula@gmail.com

Celebration at TBA!

Celebrate your simcha
with all your friends at temple!

You can sponsor an Oneg on Friday evening, a kiddush lunch on Shabbat, or a Kiddush lunch cake to honor the occasion!
