THE UNITED SYNAGOGUE OF CONSERVATIVE JUDAISM

Volume MMXIX, No. 2 Elul/Tishrei/Cheshvan Sept/Oct 2019

From Our President...

As I write this, my first month as President is drawing to a close. I have spent most of the month in western Massachusetts, but did return to South Florida for a few days to attend Board of Director meetings and, of course, services. While in Massachusetts, Jane and I have been attending the Berkshire Jewish Film Festival – we have seen films about a holocaust survivor who returned to the town where he was hidden as a child, a movie about Joseph Pulitzer, and most recently a documentary about the prosecution of the accountant of Auschwitz more than 70 years after the fact. These films were all moving and thought provoking.

I will be returning to Florida in mid-September in time for the Holidays. Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are the apex of the Jewish religious calendar. It is the one time of the year when all of us, from the weekly Shabbat service participant to the three time a year attendee, come together to worship. It is a time of introspection and self-examination as we stand before God and ask for forgiveness, strength and guidance to be better individuals and to help us lead better lives.

The Holidays are also a time when families get together in celebration, some coming from long distances. Many of us are empty-nesters and look forward to having our children (and grandchildren) visit us. It is also a time to reflect on those who are no longer with us. I know Jane and I miss our parents throughout the year, but their absence is felt more keenly at the Holidays; however we know that we can count on our friends and extended family in the congregation to fill the void.

In many ways the synagogue has become a second home for us, developing new friends and relationships joining those already in place. It is my hope that over the next two years we can continue to build on the momentum of the past few years in making Temple Beth Am warm and welcoming for our entire kehilla. But this cannot happen by itself. It depends on all of us not only supporting our synagogue financially (although that is important), it also requires that we put in some sweat equity – giving of our time and participating in all that the synagogue has to offer. Please volunteer – join a committee, attend Minyan or work at bingo (or do them all!). Please attend adult education or one of the many activities our programming committee has scheduled. And of course, please come to services!

I look forward to seeing all of you at Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

L'shana tovah tikatevu v'techatemu.

Dear Friends,

I write these words from Israel where I am enjoying the spiritual renewal that comes from spending significant time in the Holy Land. The country finds itself in the challenging time of another political election, one that is impossible to predict. Both the right wing and left wing are divided and locked in complicated alliances. Various parties which share some ideological viewpoints differ over a combination of personalities, ambition, and tangential issues such as religion. A secular right winger may not wish to form a coalition with an ultra-Orthodox right winger and similar issues face the left as well. Benjamin Netanyahu has recently broken the record as the longest serving prime minister in Israel's history, surpassing the record set a few decades ago by David Ben Gurion. Having broken that record there is no guarantee that Netanyahu will continue to serve after this next election, scheduled for mid-September. We will have to wait and see.

The atmosphere here is, however, not limited to politics and negativity. Every day something wonderful and inspiring manages to happen here in Israel. Let me share just one. We have managed to share Shabbat with our children and grandchildren every week that we have been here. Late in the afternoon we all take a short walk to a nearby park where they are surrounded by friends and Melinda and I enjoy sitting on a park bench taking it all in. Every week one particular gentleman comes by and by now we are like old friends. He is 98 years old and walks with two canes. He refuses to be helped in and out of the bench next to us. He was born in Warsaw and his entire family was wiped out at Treblinka. Somehow he survived, was taken care of by distant relatives, ended up in various countries until finally settling in Israel of which he is fiercely proud and loyal. What has amazed us about him more than anything is his positive attitude. He got married and had children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. He can tell you what every single one of them does for a living and the pride he has in all of them is deeply touching.

Sitting with this gentleman reminds us that we all have a story. The Torah is the story of a people but we all have our individual stories to cherish, to remember, and to tell. When The Scribe arrives at your home the calendar will be telling us that the High Holidays are drawing near. Consider the fact that sitting in shul with us will be hundreds of individuals, all of whom have their own stories to share. I urge each and every one of you to seek those stories out and to share yours with others. You may be sitting down to a Rosh Hashana dinner and your grandchildren are there and have never heard your story. It is important to tell it to them. You may be at a pre-fast dinner Erev Yom Kippur with neices and nephews—tell your story. Over the course of the Holidays we repeat certain words and phrases over and over and those traditions are important. It is also important to use words for the first time by sharing your personal story with your family and friends. That's how you make them part of your story.

Melinda joins me in wishing you each a happy and healthy New Year. May you be blessed with stories to tell and relatives and friends willing to listen.

Shalom,

Rabbi Samuel S. Kieffer

SCOTT DEMSKY, SHALIACH TZIBUR

"The Man behind the Voice"

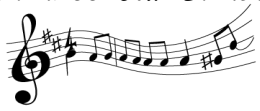
by Linda Storfer

On a hot humid night in July I met with Scott Demsky after he finished rehearsing choir practice. He completed choir practice after teaching a full day of classes at Broward College but didn't seem to be at all tired and was full of vitality and energy including a big smile.

Scott is the youngest of four siblings. His family moved from Brooklyn to Stroudsberg Pennsylvania. When Scott was 15 months old the family moved to Miami where he grew up. He attended Miami Coral Park HS and then went to Florida Atlantic University where he majored in math and minored in music. He went on to earn a Masters degree in Math at the University of Miami in Coral Gables. While in college Scott performed in a couple of musicals and in the early 90's, when he was with IBM, he performed in their Show Biz Club where he auditioned and played the lead role in The Music Man as well as Oklahoma and Guys and Dolls. We are very fortunate at TBA to have our very own "matinee idol" but please no autographs will be given on the Sabbath.

Scott always loved music and grew up listening to and appreciating it. While he was a student he always joined the chorus. When he was bar mitzvahed he led the entire service at his synagogue. He later became more involved with synagogue and High Holiday liturgy. At Bnai Torah he led the HH auxilliary services for 4 years and subsequently became the Cantor at Shaarei Kodesh for 9 years. He returned to Bnai Torah where he helped with their Chavurot Shabbat and served as the Cantor for HH Shacharit services.

Scott does not have very much spare time and his participation in golf, racquetball and bowling has given way to his busy work schedule. He is married to his lovely wife Yvonne and they reside in Boca Raton. They are the proud parents of Eva who just completed her freshman year at MIT in Cambridge, Mass. One of the family's great pleasures is to make their annual prilgrimege to the Big Apple during the summer where they enjoy several musicals over the course of a few days. Sometimes I sit in my seat on Shabbat morning with my eyes closed while listening to Scott's beautiful voice and melodic tones and try to guess which tune he is performing. Now in his 2nd year at TBA I hope that he will remain with us for many years to come and continue to enhance our Shabbat and High Holiday services.



Tashlich

We will meet again this year under the parking overhang at 5:00 PM on Monday. After refreshments, Mincha will be conducted followed by Tashlich, when we will walk together to the water and cast away our sins. Don't forget to bring some bread crumbs and dress comfortably.

Neilah, Yom Kippur

We encourage you to return for the last service of the day. Prior to the completion of the Service, We will have our annual Havdallah with all the children participating and receiving their glow lights.

Decorum

Please find your seats as quickly as possible. Due to fire code restrictions, children's strollers are not allowed in the main building and must be left outside. Greet your friends before or after Services, not during. Keep conversation to an absolute minimum. Dress should reflect the holiness of the season; men should consider jackets. Jeans and sleeveless outfits are not appropriate. Head covering is required for all men and married women. Tallit is used for the day Services and for Kol Nidre. Please bring your Tallit, as the Temple does not have enough for the entire Congregation.

Volunteers Needed!

Volunteers are needed as ushers and to assist during the holidays. We need everyone's help for the High Holy Days to run smoothly. Call the Temple office at 954-968-4545 if you can volunteer.

Seating Instructions

Congregants who either own or have upgraded seats are asked to enter through the south lobby doors. Congregants who have open seating tickets should enter through the West entrance.

If you have a handicap permit and require a reserved parking space, you must call the Temple office to reserve a parking space no later than Tuesday, September 25th. A Temple Beth Am Parking Permit will be issued at that time. Spaces will be held in the west lot for those with reservations only.

Sukkot

Sukkot is one of the three major pilgrimage festivals of the Jewish year. At the time of the Temple in Jerusalem, Jews would come from all over Israel to Jerusalem to celebrate the festival. Sukkot is known by a number of different names, each signifying a different aspect of the holiday.

The Feast of Booths

Sukkot reminds us of the forty years of wandering in the wilderness after our freedom from Egypt. During those years, the Jews could not live in a permanent home; so they lived in huts and booths.

Remembering that wandering of our ancestors, the Torah commands us by saying, "Ye shall dwell in booths seven days - that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt."

Thus, the first aspect of the holiday relates to the Sukkah, and we are commanded to build and live in a hut or tabernacle. The first two days of Sukkot are Yom Tov, festival days, with many of the laws similar to those of the Sabbath. Then, there are five intermediary days called Chol Hamo'ayd, which, while still the holiday, are much like weekdays in that we can go to work and resume most usual activities. There then begins a new holiday, which in the Diaspora is celebrated on two days. The first is called Shemini Atzeret, and it is followed the next day by Simchat Torah. These two days are also Yom Tov, full holy days, in which we're not permitted to go to work.

The Festival of Ingathering

Sukkot also has a strong agricultural component. Our ancestors completed the fall harvest & thanked G-d for the bounty they'd received. Sukkot then, is really the 1st recorded celebration of Thanksgiving.

The Season of Rejoicing

Because of the great joy with which the festival was celebrated, Sukkot is referred to as the most joyous of all festivals, and thus is called in the Prayer Book,

"The Season of Our Rejoicing."

Sukkot Observances

The two main ritual observances of the festival are eating in the Sukkah, and fulfilling the obligation of making the prayer with the Lulav and Etrog during each of the days of Sukkot, except for the Sabbath.

A Sukkah is a building consisting of a minimum of two walls and a beginning of a third, supporting a temporary roof, holding the sechach, which is anything that grew in the ground and is no longer attached. Over the last few years, some members of Temple Beth Am have undertaken to build their own family Sukkah. Many, having done it for the first time, have now turned it into an annual family event.

Lulav and Etrog

The other significant and unique ritual for Sukkot is the taking together of the four species. The Lulav, the palm frond, is attached with willows and myrtle twigs, and in the other hand we hold the Etrog, the Citron, Holding all four together, each day we make the blessings, and at services, we have a procession called Hoshanot, at which time all of the people who have the set of four species parade in a circle around the Sanctuary while chanting special prayers.

You may order a set from the office.

Hoshana Rabba

The seventh day of Sukkot is known as Hoshana Rabba. During the morning services, the procession with the Etrog and Lulav is repeated seven times while the reader chants the Hoshanot hymns asking for G-d's help. Towards the end of the service, branches of willows are beaten so that our sins, symbolically, fall just as the willow leaves drop off.

Shemini Atzeret

Shemini Atzeret, the eighth day of Sukkot, is in effect a separate holiday. We are no longer obligated to remain in the Sukkah. During the service, we pray for rain in Israel to nourish the crops. We say Yizkor at the morning service.

Simchat Torah

Simchat Torah, the happiness of the Torah, is the day on which we conclude the annual cycle of Torah readings and begin the cycle again from Genesis. In the evening and in the morning all the Sifrei Torah are removed from the ark and carried in a procession seven times around the congregation while the children follow with their flags. This procession is called "Hakafot" (circling). During the Hakafot, there is a great deal of singing and dancing.

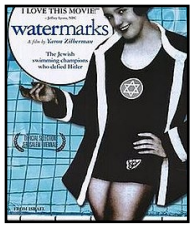
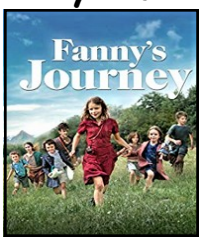
10th Annual Film Festival

Watermarks — Saturday, November 9, 2019



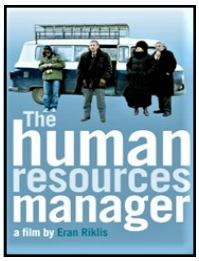
A fascinating documentary about a group of young Austrian Jewish women who swam for Hakoah, a popular Jewish sports club in the 1930's. After the Nazi takeover of Austria, the girls along with their families fled to Palestine and other countries. Sixty five years later, the director, Yaron Zilberman, travels around the world to interview all the swim team members and organizes a reunion in Vienna where they have the opportunity to swim in the same pool where they had trained as teenagers. You will be moved by their inspiring stories!

Fanny's Journey — Saturday, December 9, 2019



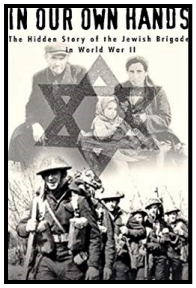
A touching, true story about thirteen-year old Fanny Ben-Ami and her two younger sisters who were sent from their home in Vichy France to live in an Italian foster home for Jewish children in 1943. They were forced to leave when the Nazis arrived in Italy. The film details their incredible escape from Italy over the Swiss border to freedom. It is a beautiful film about family ties, courage, and the will to survive against all odds.

The Human Resources Manager — Saturday, January 11, 2020

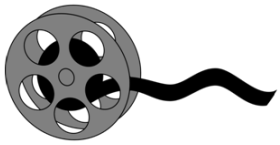


An employee of Jerusalem's largest bakery, a foreign worker, is killed in a suicide bombing. The bakery is accused of indifference and it sends its Human Resources Manager to return the woman's body to Romania, to make amends and to honor the woman he didn't even know. The Manager fights to restore his company's reputation and possibly his own humanity.

In Our Own Hands — Saturday, February 15, 2020



A true story of the Jewish Brigade in World War II. You will swell with pride as Jews use their time in the British army to learn military strategies and secure equipment and weapons which helped form the basis of the Haganah and later the IDF. Hear first hand stories of their chutzpah and ingenuity.



Refreshments will be served

$7 per person in advance / $10 per person @ door

TORAH FUND CAMPAIGN 2019-2020

Torah Fund is the campaign that is helping to ensure the future of Conservative Judaism by providing scholarship money for rabbis, cantors, educators, synagogue administrators, professional and lay leaders, and many more. Your Torah Fund contribution helps to strengthen and perpetuate Conservative/Masorti Judaism throughout the world.

Chesed means "kindness" in Hebrew. The word can also be translated as "loving kindness," to convey the deep love that animates Jewish acts of kindness, done without thought of reward.

The Bible has numerous examples of chesed, such as Abraham and Sarah welcoming three strangers to their tent in the heat of the day; Abraham's servant's prayer for a wife for Isaac, answered by Rebecca who offers water to him and to his camels; and Ruth, who shows loyalty and kindness to Naomi, adopting her religion and peoplehood, after Naomi has experienced great loss. The rabbinic tradition enacted many laws to formalize our commitment to kindness, making chesed one of the three central pillars of Jewish life, as Shimon HaTzaddik taught: "The world rests on three things, on Torah, on service of God, and on deeds of kindness" (Pirkei Avot 1:2).

The 5780 (2019-2020) Torah Fund pin depicts a heart surrounded by three circles, one larger than the next. This symbolizes the heart of kindness, which Jews enact in ever-widening realms of generosity: from family, to community, to the larger world; from North America, to Israel, to the world; or from sisterhood, to region, to the larger world of Women's League for Conservative Judaism. And as it is said in Psalm 89, may we build a world of kindness.

We ask you for your support in the Torah Fund Campaign. If you would like to participate in this mitzvah, please contact Maxine Szmulewitz by email at maxinepaula@gmail.com or call 954-675-3551.

Bikur cholim

(Hebrew: ביקור חולים; "visiting the sick"; also transliterated Bikur holim) refers to the mitzvah (Jewish religious commandment) to visit and extend aid to the sick.

Bikur Cholim is one of the important deeds included in Gemilut Hassadim—the performance of loving kindness. It means "caring for the sick" but there is much more that we can do. It is also one of the many mitzvahs we are commanded to do.

We have formed a Bikur Cholim committee to reach out to members who are ill or recovering from surgery. We would like to connect with these members with a card or a phone call and let them know we care. We need your help! Please let us know if you, your family member, or dear friend is in need and would like support from the Bikur Cholim. Contact the office for more information.

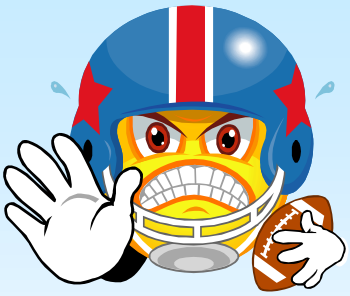
A MESSAGE FROM

The Men's Club of Temple Beth Am

A MESSAGE FROM

Welcome one and all to an exciting new year at Temple Beth Am. The Men's Club is currently hard at work at planning events and activities for the 2019-2020 year.



As it is the end of summer, we all know that means… FOOTBALL is starting! The Men's Club is running its annual football pool which gives you a chance to win up to $150 for each week of the football season for a one-time purchase of $20. Get your tickets now by going to our website at www.beth-am.org, calling the temple office, or calling the Men's Club vice president, Larry Schwartz at 954-298-8923. Football season starts on September 5!

Join us on Sunday, September 8 as we go on a fishing charter off of Ft. Lauderdale Beach. We will be boarding the Mary B III on Sunday morning as we all shoot to catch tuna, kingfish, cobia, and more. You'll have a great time, whether you are an old fishing pro or a newbie. Rods and reels will be available on the boat.

On Sunday, November 17, the Men's Club will be paying tribute to the Piano Man himself, Billy Joel, by bringing the Turnstiles to our social hall. Turnstiles is a band of 6 men, led by Tony Monaco. Turnstiles' renditions of Billy's classic songs are certain to move the casual listener as well as the hard core "Joel fan" to their feet and have them singing along with all the classics! Turnstiles has performed for 100's of thousands of fellow Billy Joel fans, leaving them overjoyed and screaming for more! They play all your Billy Joel favorites including "Piano Man", "Big Shot", "I Go To Extremes", and one of my personal favorites, "The Downeaster Alexa." Stay tuned to your Weekly What's Happening, Shabbat Bulletins and Temple website for more information.

The Men's Club is always looking for more volunteers with fresh ideas for events and ways we can help the Temple grow. Please reach out to me at mensclub@beth-am.org or 954-600-6021 to join in.

The Men's Club wish you all a happy and healthy New Year 5780. L'Shana Tovah!

Sisterhood News

Welcome to the upcoming calendar year for Sisterhood. Every fall we have a sense of a new beginning. Maybe it's the High Holy Days, but more likely, it's years of being a teacher. We have many things to share with all of you but let's begin by introducing the board.

Co-Presidents	Maxine Szmulewitz and Susan Weiss
Membership VP	Jill Finkelstein
Corresponding Secretary	Laura Sternberg
Treasurer Bingo	Sharon Yaro

As in the past we will have our Sunday Game Days in November, January and March. Keep a look out for information in the "What's Happening", the Scribe and the weekly Shabbat bulletin. In October we will once again sponsor the Nei'lah Nosh at the end of Yom Kippur, and the Sukkah Sizzle. Before Sukkot, we will get together with Melinda Keiffer and schmooze then decorate the sukkah.

November will have our first book club discussion, see the separate article, and December we will have an Indian cooking demonstration. There are many more events, but the one we are all really looking forward to the chocolate seder the end of March.

Sisterhood is a dedicated, caring and newly energized group of women with diverse talents and interests. All we are missing is your participation.

On behalf of the Sisterhood, we would like to thank all those that joined in sending new year cards, and we wish you all a wonderful and healthy new year. We look forward to seeing you at our future events.

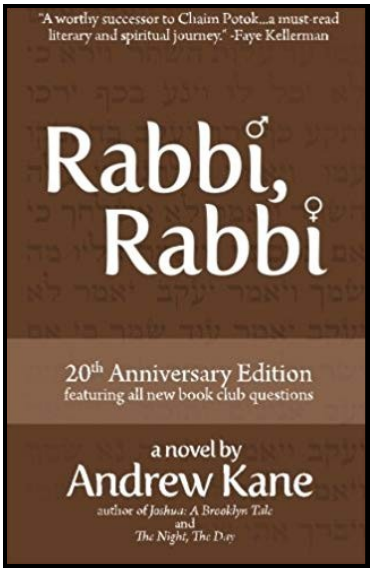
Rabbi, Rabbi

by Andrew Kane



Descending from a long line of revered rabbis, Yakov is expected to follow in his father's footsteps as the leader of an ultra-Orthodox community in Brooklyn. But for Yakov, who questions his faith from an early age, becoming a rabbi is more an obligation than a calling. One summer, he discovers love in Rebecca, a young woman who challenges both his beliefs and his doubts. All too quickly, a family secret tears them apart and their lives diverge.

Confused and curious, Yakov pursues a secular education alongside his rabbinical training. A chance encounter reunites him with Rebecca, who he learns is also studying to become a rabbi. His relationship with her blooms as he and his father continue to drift. But what will become of his relationship with God?

This 20th anniversary re-release of Rabbi, Rabbi, Kane's debut novel, is a masterfully written, deeply engrossing portrait of modern American Judaism. Now more than ever, Kane's intimate prose will move any reader who has ever struggled with the complexities of faith, family, love, and personal identity.

Adult Education

We seek meaning in our lives from texts and teachers. Adult education allows us to seek respite from the grind and look for answers. Lifelong Jewish learning has been a core value of Judaism. Batei midrash (houses of study) were established so adults could use their "leisure time" to fulfill the mitzvah of Talmud Torah. Join Temple Beth Am for a journey of Jewish learning.
