Brit* (covenant) for Students, Families, and Our School
Adath Emanu-El Religious School

Effective synagogues do not simply engage with students; they form families. This is even more true for religious education: parents, siblings, and other family members are all a part of the learning team. The Religious School can teach about Judaism. However, it cannot make people Jewish; only a supportive and nurturing environment can do that. This covenant reflects those principles.

FAMILIES ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR:

- sending their child(ren) to school regularly and on time
- showing an interest in what their child(ren) are learning
- making Religious School a family priority
- attending Shabbat services periodically with their child(ren)
- attending school family events
- communicating with teacher(s) and/or Abby Wolf if problems arise

STUDENTS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR:

- a serious approach to learning which includes:
 - coming prepared to work
 - participating in activities, discussions and projects with enthusiasm
 - completing any assignments given
- appropriate behavior in school which includes:
 - respect for the dignity of teachers and students alike
 - respect for your property, the synagogue, and the property of others
 - working to ensure that the Religious School environment is a safe one for yourself and others
- periodic attendance at Shabbat services with your family

THE SCHOOL IS RESPONSIBLE FOR:

- providing teachers and staff committed to excellent instruction
- providing support materials necessary for learning
- creating a safe and nurturing environment conducive to learning and to the development of self esteem and positive Jewish identities
- respecting and providing for the needs of individual students
- maintaining on-going communication with families and students

Lapid Family Experience-A New Alternative to Religious School

Lapid (lah-pee'd) is a Judaica alternative that strives to integrate Judaism and Jewish living with the lives of 21st Century Jewish families.

In lieu of Judaica classes, students and families come together multiple times per year to engage in Jewish learning as a community. Each session contains a T'filah component, a meal and a shared Family Education Experience.

Families shape the rest of their experiences together. Activities include attending services outside of Lapid and engaging in a variety of experience across the Jewish world. This can be done on your own schedule to accommodate your family's busy lifestyle. For more information please see Morah Abby Wolf or pick up a brochure in the office.

Pick Up/Drop Off Procedures

Drop Off: The traffic cones in our parking lot provide a safe space for all of our students to enter the building. Please be respectful of the entrance to the Religious School wing. If you choose to walk your child/children into the building, please park in the lot and enter through the Religious School doors.

Pick Up: You may still elect to meet your child(ren) at his/her classroom and walk to your vehicle together. Students who are not met by a parent/guardian will be escorted to the office until a parent or guardian is present.

Lateness and Early Dismissal

Please make every effort to be on time for class. Students who arrive late must sign in with the Temple Office before going to class.

If a student needs to leave early, a parent or guardian must come into the Temple office – students will not be released without a parent or guardian present in the building. The parent or guardian must sign the student out in the designated binder, and a staff member or madrach/a will bring your child to the office. Please inform the office in advance if your child will be departing before class time ends. This ensures we know where every student is at all times.

Cell Phone Policy

Please do not expect your child(ren) to answer his/her cell phone or respond to text messages during school hours. If you need to be in contact with your child, please call the Temple Office. Cell phones will not be allowed for personal use during Religious School, but students may use them during class as a learning tool and for recreation during break. Students using their technology inappropriately will have the item confiscated and a family member must retrieve it from the Temple Office. Each classroom teacher reserves the right to make his/her own policy in addition to this one.

Dress Policy

Our Religious School expects respectfulness in all areas, including manner of dress. Casual attire is welcome in the school environment as long as the appropriate guidelines below are observed. Please keep in mind that we have young students who will be looking up to the older students as role models in our school and synagogue.

- No clothing with slogans or images that could be seen as offensive.
- Clothing should cover well, not exposing large or inappropriate areas of skin or undergarments and clothing should fully cover the undergarments beneath them.
- With the exception of religious head coverings, hats or caps should not be worn in the classroom.
- Due to safety issues, we strongly discourage wearing flip-flops.

Food and Snacks in the Classroom

On Sundays, third graders through sixth graders who stay from 9am to 12:30 pm have a fifteen minute break during which a light snack is served. This is to sustain our students' energy to provide an opportunity for the class to join together in the appropriate blessings, and give the students a chance to socialize and establish friendships. We ask that families do not send snacks with their children so that we can be respectful of those with allergies. If you have questions about the food items served or need to make special arrangement please contact the Temple Office.

Learning Support

We pride ourselves on opening our souls, our building, and our programs to all individuals. We will work with students and their families to accommodate any and all needs. If your child has special needs of any kind, please contact Abby Wolf so that an appropriate individual educational plan can be developed to ensure that your child has a meaningful and rewarding educational and social experience. If you have an individual educational plan from your child's school, we invite you to share it with us so we can create a positive learning environment for each of our students.

Room Parents

Each classroom has a room parent who helps coordinate room parties, special events, and facilitates communication between parents and the instructor. Be on the lookout for a welcome email from your room parent(s)!

Texts and Supplies

Textbooks will be provided for each student at the beginning of the year and are included in your Religious School tuition. Teachers may send home an additional list of items for your child to bring to class. Please make sure that your child brings his or her materials to class each week and back home afterwards in order to complete assigned homework.

Tzedakah* Collection

Tzedakah is collected at the start of every Sunday. Of course, contributions are voluntary and the amount each student contributes is left to the discretion of the family. Each class will collect tzedakah throughout the year. At the end of the school year, the class or teacher will decide where they would like to donate the accumulated funds. We have also donated thousands of pounds of food to the South Jersey food bank and JFCS food pantry over the course of the year! These are concrete ways our school helps the community around us.

Life Cycle Events at Adath

Consecration

To mark the beginning of our students' formal Jewish education, they are invited to the Bima on Erev Sukkot to celebrate with the community. This is a lovely and meaningful ceremony for children and families alike. Our teenagers create a "bridge" for our young students that they run through to the bima to receive recognition for this milestone. The service is followed by a celebration in the Sukkah provided by the youth group.

Bar/Bat Mitzvah

Bar/Bat Mitzvah marks an important step in your child's spiritual growth and maturity. This is conveyed in the very words Bar/Bat Mitzvah (son or daughter of the Commandment). It suggests that the B'nai Mitzvah (sons and daughters...) are developing more mature understanding of Judaism as they begin assuming the responsibilities of adult Jewish life.

It is Adath Emanu-El's policy that candidates for Bar/Bat Mitzvah be enrolled in Religious School during the year of their Bar or Bat Mitzvah. Those celebrating their Bar/Bat Mitzvah during the summer must be enrolled for the upcoming school year. Please see our Bar/Bat Mitzvah handbook (available in the Temple office) for more details about preparation for your child's big event.

Confirmation

Reform Judaism, recognizing the need for a ceremony that would mark the free acceptance of Judaism by both sons and daughters at a more mature age than the thirteenth year, introduced the Confirmation ceremony. Each year a new class of students, in the tenth grade year of Religious School training, participates in the Confirmation ceremony held in the synagogue on Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks (late May or early June).

Informal Learning at Adath

Adath-Emanu-El's unique youth programming reaches from our youngest students to our high school seniors with AEFTY, AEFTY Junior (grades 7-8), AEFTY 5-6, AEFTY 3-4, and AEFTY 1-2. Few other Reform Congregations in the country provide such programming for their learners. See www.aefty.com for a full list of this year's events and how your child(ren) can participate. AEFTY is part of NFTY-PAR, the Reform Movement's youth group for the Pennsylvania and South Jersey region. Contact Jamie at youth@adathemanuel.com

Policies & Procedures

Absence Policy

If your child is ill on a Sunday or Wednesday, please call the Temple Office or email Abby Wolf prior to the start of class. The school appreciates advance notice of any planned absences and will work with families to make up any missed work.

Administration of Medication

Adath Emanu-El Religious School has established the following policies and procedures regarding the administration of emergency medications during Religious School hours. Medications shall include all over-the-counter (non-prescription) medications as well as medications available only by prescription. All medications will be kept in the Temple Office. No medications are to be kept or administered by classroom teachers or students. If medication is kept in a child's backpack or possession during school hours, it will be treated as a violation of the Religious School Behavior Policy.

Each medication to be administered by authorized Religious School personnel shall be provided to the Religious School according to the following:

- Each medication must be properly labeled. Pharmacy labels are required for all prescriptions. Over-the-counter medication must be sent in the original container with the student's name written on it.
- Medications are to be turned in to the Religious School office together with the Authorization for Emergency Administration of Medication form. That form must be completed and must include signatures by both the parent/guardian and a physician, as well as a physician's stamp.
- Medications will not be accepted or administered without compliance with these requirements.

The following procedures will be followed with respect to allergic reactions:

- The Religious School will designate personnel trained to administer antihistamines and epinephrine in case of allergic reactions and who will administer medications consistent with this policy.
- Medications are to be administered following the protocol set forth by a student's physician on the Authorization for Emergency Administration of Medication form.

- If epinephrine is administered, the Religious School will call 911 and the student's parents immediately. If any other medication is administered under this policy, the Religious School will call the student's parents immediately.

Illness Policy

We must rely on parental judgment and discretion in deciding when children are ill and unable to attend school. A child who is ill is not likely to be an effective student. In addition, schools can be breeding grounds for contagious infections unless parents exercise reasonable caution in monitoring the health of their own children. If you are in doubt about whether your child is healthy enough for school, consult your physician. If a child arrives at school and, in the judgment of the school staff is too ill to remain in school, we will contact a parent or emergency contact and ask that the child be taken home.

Your child will not be allowed to attend class if he or she displays the following symptoms:

- Temperature of more than 100.5 degrees
- Diarrhea or vomiting
- Outbreak of a contagious disease (e.g., chicken pox, impetigo, conjunctivitis, scabies, lice, or ringworm)
- Unidentified rash
- Yellow or greenish nasal discharge or sputum (from coughing)

In order to return to class after an illness, your child must meet the following conditions:

- Fever-free for 24 hours without fever reducing medicines
- Symptom-free of vomiting or diarrhea for 24 hours
- 24 hours after the first administration of prescribed medications and that the child is no longer contagious
- In cases of conjunctivitis, the child's eye must be free of discharge before he or she attends class for a minimal timeframe of 24 hours
- Child is able to participate in the routine and curriculum of the class

Parents of children with chronic medical problems (asthma, severe allergies, diabetes, etc.) should discuss these conditions with Abby Wolf prior to the start of the school year so that we can take appropriate actions should a problem arise. A treatment plan must be provided by the child's physician.

Promotion Policy

All students in Kindergarten, First, and Second grade will automatically be promoted to the next grade.

Hebrew (3rd - 6th grades)

1. All students must attend a minimum of 75% of scheduled classes.
2. Students must perform satisfactorily in the classroom. Satisfactory performance is up to the discretion of the teacher.
3. If a student does not meet the minimum requirements for promotion, he/she would be expected to do remedial work over the summer to be prepared for the next grade. Parents may opt to hire a private tutor to help achieve these goals.
4. Parents will be notified if a student is likely to need additional summer work by evaluations, interim reports, and contact from Abby Wolf.
5. It is expected that the school and the family will work closely together to ensure success!

Judaica (3rd - 6th grades)

1. All students must attend a minimum of 75% scheduled classes.
2. Students must perform satisfactorily in the classroom.
3. If a student does not meet the requirements for promotion, he/she may do remedial work over the summer. The remedial work will be a meaningful project jointly agreed upon by the teacher, parent, and school administration. The project will be completed prior to the student being assigned to the next grade.
4. Parents will be notified if a student is likely to need to complete a summer project, as well as a letter from Abby Wolf.

Confirmation: Students will be admitted to Confirmation class after successfully completing grades 7, 8 and 9 in Religious School.

If you have questions or concerns about the promotion policy, please contact Abby Wolf.

Lapid (3-6th Grade): Families must satisfactorily complete the prescribed program in order to reenroll for Lapid in the coming year.

Snow Day Procedure

New Jersey weather is notorious. Inevitably, there will be days where, because of inclement weather, school will be canceled. If we choose to cancel school, we follow a set of procedures in order to inform everyone who is enrolled. The first line of communication will be our Remind text message alert system. Please sign up for this if you have not already.

Sundays: <https://www.remind.com/join/adathrs> or text “adathrs” to 81010

Wednesdays: <https://www.remind.com/join/adathteens> or text “adathteens” to 81010

We will also post an announcement on the Religious School page of the Adath Website.

Student Evaluation

Once per year parents will receive a report detailing their child’s progress in class. These will be distributed in conjunction with parent-teacher conferences. Please read these reports carefully and address any questions or concerns to Abby Wolf.

Beyond the Classroom

Service Attendance for Bar/Bat Mitzvah

In order to be a candidate for Bar/Bat Mitzvah, our students must have a solid grounding in Adath's Shabbat minhag (customs). To ensure your child meets these criteria, 5th and 6th graders are required to attend nine services each year at Adath. They may be any combination of Friday night, Saturday Morning, Saturday afternoon, or holiday services. In order to receive credit, students must submit a service slip to Abby Wolf. The slips are located in the foyer outside of the sanctuary on the long wooden tables near the entrance.

This requirement is designed to help your child prepare over time and not feel rushed or overwhelmed as they approach Bar/Bat Mitzvah. If your child does not attend t'filah regularly, the Bar/Bat Mitzvah preparation process will be more difficult. Please be aware that should your child need extra tutoring before the Bar/Bat Mitzvah ceremony (beyond the standard that we provide in the Bar/Bat Mitzvah fee) you will be responsible for compensating the tutor for his/her time.

Worship Opportunities

Attendance at Shabbat and holiday services is an indispensable part of your child's religious education, as well as a meaningful family experience. Family attendance at services strengthens and reinforces the family education component of our curriculum and, of course, fulfills a significant component of Jewish practice. Judaism has always promoted communal prayer, much more so than individual, because of the importance it places on community. We support each other on the road to greater understanding of our purpose and potential in life.

For our younger students and their even younger siblings, My Shabbat (formally Tot Shabbat) is a fun and interactive service for those who aren't yet readers. Please see the Temple calendar for the next scheduled service.

Family Services offer a shorter, congregational family worship experience and often feature the voices of our Youth Choir. Religious School classes have the opportunity to experience leading the congregation in worship. Family services are the first Friday night of each month beginning at 7:30 PM. Each month we will have a different class join us for dinner beforehand and participate on the bima.

Everyone is invited to Saturday morning services at 10:00 AM – whether we are honoring a young adult as Bar or Bat Mitzvah or simply worshipping together as a community. We encourage families to attend this service in order to become familiar with the customs of our congregation and prepare for their own Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

Shabbat Together is open to anyone of any age with Special Needs and/or anybody who would like to join us. It is open to the community and is offered at no cost. Come celebrate Shabbat with us! The program includes a brief, musical service, mixers, and art projects. Please see the Temple calendar for the next scheduled service.

Sunday Morning T'filah

We will be continuing with our brief prayer service at the beginning of each Sunday session (9:00-9:30 AM.) Parents and siblings are encouraged to join their kindergarten, 1st, 3rd-6th grade students as they start their day in prayer.

2nd grade will worship from 10:30 am-11:00 am in between both sessions.

Parents and siblings are welcome to attend this service as well.

This mini-service will be led by Rabbi David, Cantor Sandi or lay leaders and will help the youngest students gain familiarity with worship at Adath Emanu-El.

The clergy, teaching staff and administrative staff are so excited to share another year of fun, learning and friendship with students and families.
