Are there different classes for different ages?

We're offering classes for children ages 3 to 11 (entering 5th grade). We've divided class offerings into three age groups:

Lower Camp: 3 years old to entering kindergarten

Upper Camp: Entering kindergarten to entering 5th grade

Is there a class size limit?

There is a minimum of six students to run a class.
For some classes there will also be a maximum number of students.

What if I registered and paid for a class, but there aren't enough students to run the class?

Each Friday, our camp office will confirm your next week's classes. If any class is under-subscribed, you will have a choice of picking a different class or getting a credit. However, we cannot give credits for any other reason.

What is the cost for each class?

Each class is $45 for the week (that's just $15/day for a class). Your weekly cost will depend on the number of classes you select each week.

How will we be billed?

Each week when you register, you will be asked to pay at the end of the registration form. You will pay online using a credit card (there is a 3% fee) or by e-check (no additional fee).

If my child doesn't like the course or we decide to go away, will we be given a refund?

No. We will not be able to give any credits or refunds.

What about supplies?

Each class will receive a supply list before the class begins so parents can gather or purchase what they need before we begin. We are trying as much as possible to use items frequently found at home, but we realize some things will need to be purchased.

What's the goal of Summer Fun, Something's Begun at Barnert?

The name says it all! A summer of fun activities with Barnert friends!

I have additional questions. Who do I contact?
