Dear B'nai Tikvah Family:

"L'Dor Va'Dor – from generation to generation"

Our Book of Remembrance honors continuity, the threads that link generations. We honor how our congregation helps us remember those who came before us and offers us the knowledge that we too are part of something enduring. In a world of rapid change and short memories, B'nai Tikvah provides a setting in which to appreciate our location in the midst of a very long timeline. During the High Holidays and the festivals when we recite the Yahrzeit memorial prayers, we remember previous generations in our families and in our community. We read and sing words that were written over thousands of years by hundreds of authors and composers. And we imagine our future and those who will stand in our sanctuary and those of other synagogues someday remembering us and carrying on our legacy.

This Book of Remembrance contains the names we remember, and classic as well as contemporary prayers for the Yizkor Memorial Service. May their names and their memories continue to be a blessing in our lives.

Shanah Tovah from us and our families to you and yours, Rabbi Leonard Gordon

May their memory be a blessing.

The following may be read aloud or in silence:

Some of us recall beloved parents who watched over us, guided us, sacrificed for us, and encouraged us.

Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife or a husband with whom we were truly united—in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and sorrows.

Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities, bound to us by family traditions and by years of shared experience.

Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to us all too briefly, taken from us before they reached their years of fulfillment, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust which enriched our lives.

Many of us recall beloved relatives and dear friends who enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence can no longer return to cheer, encourage and support us.

Those whom we recall today are gone from us; yet we are grateful for the blessings which they brought into our lives.

We are sustained by the thought that the goodness which our departed brought into our lives remains an enduring blessing, which death cannot take from us.

We can show our devotion to our departed by demonstrating our devotion to noble ideas and values.

O God of Love, make us worthy of the love which we have received. Teach us to love You with all our heart, with all our soul, and with all our might, and to spread the light of Your Divine Love on all whose lives touch ours.

Give us strength to live honorably and, when our time comes, to die serenely, confident that you will not permit our lives to be wasted, but will bring all our worthy strivings to fulfillment.

Amen

MEMORIAL SERVICE

יָיָ מָה־אָדָם וַתַּדָעֵהוּ בֶּרְאָנוֹשׁ וַתְּחַשְּׁבֵהוּ: אָדָם לַהֶבֶל דְּמָה יָמִיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר: בַּבְּּכֶּר יָצִיץ וְחָלָף לָעֵרֶב יְמוֹלֵל וְיָבֵשׁ: לִמְנוֹת יָמֵינוּ כֵּן הוֹדַע וְנָבִיא לְבַב חָכְמָה: שְׂמָר־תָּם וּרְאֵה יָשָׁר כִּי־אַחֲרִית לְאִישׁ שָׁלוֹם:

Adonai, what are we, that You have regard for us? Or the children of man, that You take account of them? Each person is like a breath.

Our days are as a fleeting shadow.

In the morning we flourish and grow up like grass, In the evening we are cut down and wither.

So teach us to number our days,

That we may get us a heart of wisdom.

Mark the person of integrity, and behold the upright, For there is a future for the person of peace.

In this solemn hour consecrated to our beloved dead, we ponder over the flight of time, the frailty and uncertainty of human life. We ask ourselves: What are we? What is our life? To what purpose our wisdom and knowledge? Wherein is our strength, our power, our fame? Alas, human beings seem born to trouble, and our years are few and full of travail.

But our great teachers have taught us to penetrate beneath appearances and see the higher worth, the deeper meaning and the abiding glory of human life.

Prayer in Memory of the Jewish Martyrs

May God be mindful of the souls of all our brothers and sisters, departed members of the house of Israel who sacrificed their lives for the sanctification of the Holy Name and honor of Israel. Grant that their heroism and self-sacrificing devotion find response in our hearts and the purity of their souls be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bonds of eternal life, an everlasting blessing among us. Amen.

SORROW CAN ENLARGE THE DOMAIN OF OUR LIFE

Our sorrow can bring understanding as well as pain, breadth as well as the contraction that comes with pain. Out of love and sorrow can come a compassion that endures. The needs of others hitherto unnoticed, the anxieties of neighbors never before realized, now come into the ken of our experience, for our sorrow has opened our life to the needs of others.

Sorrow can enlarge the domain of our life, so that we may now understand the triviality of the things many pursue. What is important is not luxury but love; not wealth but wisdom; not gold but goodness.

And our sorrow may clear our vision so that we may, more brightly, see the God of whom it was said, "The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart." Beyond the hurry and turmoil of life rises the Eternal. There is a God in a world in which human beings could experience tenderness. There is a God in a world in which two lives can be bound together by a a tie stronger than death.

Out of love may come sorrow; but out of sorrow can come light for others who dwell in darkness. And out of the light we bring to others will come light for ourselves—the light of solace, of strength, of transfiguring and consecrating purpose.

Morris Adler

Birth is a beginning and death a destination.

But life is a journey;

A sacred pilgrimage to life everlasting.

WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and at its going down, we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and at its end, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; For they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share, we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make, we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

THEIR MEMORIES ILLUMINE OUR WORLD

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine in the darkest night and illumine for us the path......

A Psalm of David

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou has anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
