Beyond Torah

The Book of Joshua

By popular demand, we are going to study the books that come after Deuteronomy, starting with Joshua. Using the JPS Translation, we will start with Chapter 1 and see where our study takes us.

Today is the final Day to let Jed know if you want to be a vendor

MIZPAH MARKET!

Dear Mizpah Members:

It's time for you to unleash your creativity and be part of Mizpah's first ever Mizpah Market. As program chairperson, I want to bring together an exhilarating display of what are members can do with their hands. I want to truly illuminate the depth of talent that our members bring.

On Sunday, May 5th from 2-6 PM, the Mizpah Market will feature the creative works of our members. If you have a craft that you would like to sell we want you. Artists, photographers, jewelers, bakers, chocolatiers, fabric designers, woodworkers and the list goes on and on.

Each person will get their own table to decorate "as they please." The tables will be set up in Feinstein Hall, and into the Garden and parking lot if needed. Shoppers can pay with cash, check or credit card. Whatever your payment method. We are asking each artist to please make a small donation to Mizpah's Choir and Music Fund.

If you would like to show off your wares, I need to hear from you. Just email me at jed.mescon@cumulus.com.

All entries must be received by April 15.

Mizpah CONGREGATION Intriguing and Delicious Conversation

Someone once said, "The deli is where you go to be Jewish." In Chattanooga, the closest Jewish delicatessen we have is right here at Coolidge Park. The River Street Deli is where you will also find Bruce Weiss, who for decades has been engaging all our senses, bringing to the south fun, lots of opinions and great food from his hometown of the Bronx.

Now it's time we get to know this man who is always available to dish out those juicy bits of Judaism and humor along with the best Brisket Sandwich you've ever tasted.

Sunday, June 9th
5:00pm - 7:00pm
 151 River Street, Chattanooga

The restaurant will be open for this event only. You order your meal, pay for it and then enjoy a great evening of conversation.

Judy Mogul
 interviewed by our own Jed Mescon

"Taking every life experience as an opportunity to expand her art and broaden her bandwidth, Mogul's work continues to reflect her paths chosen and those she finds herself on." This statement seems to say it all when talking about Chattanooga artist and Mizpah member, Judy Mogul. As part of our Intriguing Conversations series, we talk to Judy about her multi-disciplinary creations that feature drawings, paintings, sculptures, videos, window displays, puppetry arts, films, and costume designs.

This award-winning artist, who grew up just outside of New York City, has made Chattanooga her home for decades. Let's celebrate her many successes of bringing things to life with a paint brush.
