SELICHOT

Annual AJ Cemetery Service • Sunday, September 25, 2016 • 11:00 a.m.

We come together at the place where so many of our dear ones sleep their eternal sleep. In a way that we cannot explain, we feel closer to their spirit by being near their last resting places. We pay tribute to them by visiting their graves and by remembering them most vividly. The service takes place in the Adath Jeshurun Cemetery at 2926 Preston Highway. PLEASE NOTE THE NEW SERVICE TIME OF 11:00 a.m.

TICKETS WILL BE REQUIRED FOR 2016 HIGH HOLY DAY SERVICES

Primarily because of security concerns, the AJ Religious Committee voted to require tickets be presented by members and guests purchasing or receiving reserved seats for the High Holy Days. Attendees will be asked to show their tickets to the ushers as they enter. Ushers will be directed not to let anyone inside the worship areas unless they have a ticket. Anyone who cannot afford to purchase seat reservations is asked to contact Rabbi Slosberg well in advance of the High Holy Days in order to receive a ticket. No one will be turned away from worship services due to their inability to pay for a seat reservation.

CAN YOU HELP SET UP CHAIRS?

In order to save dollars for our shul, we are following the example of other synagogues and asking for volunteers to assist in setting up and taking down chairs for the High Holy Days. We need your help on Sunday morning, September 25th. Join us for morning minyan at 8:45 a.m. followed by bagels, cream cheese and coffee. Chair set-ups will begin at approximately 9:30 a.m. and will last until about 12:00 noon. We can use volunteers at all times between those hours. In addition, volunteers are needed to take down chairs on Thursday morning, October 13th from 9:00 a.m. - noon. Please let us know if you can help by contacting Chairman, Craig Friedman at 640-4228 or craig.j.friedman@gmail.com. Craig would appreciate hearing from you by Sept. 18th if you can help.

Rabbi Slosberg is currently serving as Chairman of the Board of the Masorti Foundation, and has the opportunity on a daily basis to see the important work that Masorti provides for Israelis. For more information, please visit: www.masorti.org.

Investments in State of Israel Bonds. Investments in Israel Bonds have built and continue to build a resilient advanced economy. They have never missed a payment of principal or interest on Israel Bonds since they were first issued in 1951! For more information, please visit www.israelbonds.com. As a thank you to AJ members for your continued support, the State of Israel Bonds Development Corporation will be sponsoring the Kiddush lunch at AJ on October 1, 2016.

NEWS FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

By AJ President, Dr. Armand Rothschild

As the High Holy Day season approaches, I am happy to report that the AJ Preschool had a great summer session, and now the regular school year has begun. During the two-week break, work began on the major renovation of the lower-level HVAC system. A lot of the common-area work will be completed while school is out of session, but some work will continue in various rooms throughout the year. It is an important investment that will allow us to keep running our very successful preschool for many years. Cantor Lipp had a successful sabbatical. Our congregation will benefit from his research and study for many years. Although I have mentioned this in many previous articles, I can't emphasize how lucky we are that we had so many volunteers who stepped up to do various portions of the services while Cantor Lipp was away. This included reading torah and haftarah and leading daily minyan services twice a day. This is an essential reason to exist, and it is important that it continues uninterrupted no matter what. I also have to mention all of the extra time that Rabbi Slosberg had to put in during Cantor Lipp's sabbatical. Rabbi certainly deserves a little break after the High Holy Days.

One last thing I would like to mention. This year, we will be requiring members and guests to show their tickets for entrance to High Holy Day services. With ever-increasing concerns about security, the Board of Trustees and the Religious Committee has decided to reinstitute presenting tickets for entrance. We will have tables set up manned by volunteers to check our records in case you forget to bring your tickets, however it will slow your entry into the service. Please make an extra effort to remember to bring your tickets. It will make life easier for everyone. I hope everyone has a healthy and happy new year!
