

The Louisville Council of Jewish Congregations (LCJC) invites the entire community to unite together at a virtual

Festive Chanukah Celebration!

SATURDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 12, 2020

6:30 p.m. Havdalah Service, Community-Wide Menorah-Lighting, and Festive Chanukah Singing!

6:50 p.m. Family-Friendly Entertainment by Hilarious Comedian, Raanan Hershberg!

Raanan Hershberg grew up in Louisville, and is now a talented, well-known, and REALLY FUNNY comedian (especially when he talks about his mother!) In January, he made his national television debut on "The Late Late Show with James Corden." To learn more, visit: www.raananhershberg.com.

What is the LCJC?

Since the mid-1800's, synagogues have served as the backbone of Louisville Jewish life. The Louisville Council of Jewish Congregations (LCJC) continues this tradition today with synagogue leaders collaborating as partners supporting Jewish Louisville. Representatives of Adath Jeshurun, Anshei Sfard, Keneseth Israel, Temple Shalom, and The Temple meet regularly to strengthen communal relationships, and to share ideas for sustaining our Jewish community.
