Mourner's Kaddish is recited by the immediate relatives at all services on the yahrzeit. If one is unable to recite Kaddish on the day of the yahrzeit, it is acceptable to do so at the Shabbat services proximate to that date. As is traditional at Beth Shalom, your loved one's name will be read from the bima at the service on Shabbat morning, prior to the day of the yahrzeit.

A GUIDE TO THE OBSERVANCE OF MOURNING
(This is a general guide only.
For details, please consult Cantor David Mannes).

Who is a mourner? We are obliged to mourn for a father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister (including half-brother and half-sister), husband or wife. Males from the age of thirteen years and females from the age of twelve years should observe the laws of mourning. While one is permitted to observe mourning rites for others, those who wish to do so should consult their rabbi.

Between death and burial. During the period between death and burial the mourner is known as an onen. The onen is obligated to arrange for the funeral and burial of the dead. In recognition of this obligation and of the mourner's fragile state of mind at this time, the onen is exempt from fulfilling certain other religious duties, such as reciting prayers or putting on tefillin, and is not called the Torah. On Shabbat or a Festival, however, an onen may attend services.

Mourner's Kaddish. The Kaddish is generally thought of as a prayer for the dead, but it does not mention death or the dead. Reciting the Mourner's Kaddish is an act of faith, expressing hope in the presence of grief. We praise God with the words of the Kaddish, accepting God's sovereignty and affirming life in this world. In Jewish tradition, this takes place in public assembly. Thus the Kiddush is recited only in the presence of a minyan. The Mourner's Kaddish is recited for one's parents for eleven months (in some communities for twelve months), counting First and Second Adar, in a leap year, as two separate months. Some count these eleven months from the date of death; others from the date of the funeral. It is recited for thirty days by the other relatives. In many communities it is customary to extend the period of saying Kaddish for other relatives, as well, to eleven months. The Mourner's Kaddish is also recited on each anniversary of the death (yahrzeit), and commonly, at Yizkor services on Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Pesah, and Shavuot.

It is appropriate to perform an act of tzedaka in memory of your loved one at the time of a yahrzeit. Please consider a contribution to the following funds in memory of loved ones:

Memorial Plague in the sanctuary	$540
Chumash	$125
Siddur	$54
