presents

The Politics of the Holy City

Monday, April 23 • 7:30–9 p.m.

Neff Hall, Room 101

This event is free and the public is welcome

Gil Hoffman, the chief political correspondent and analyst for the Jerusalem Post, is well connected to Israeli and Palestinian leaders.

He has interviewed every major figure across the Israeli political spectrum; has been interviewed by top media on six continents; and is a regular analyst on CNN, Al-Jazeera, and other news outlets. Called “the most optimistic man in Israel” by Israel Television, Hoffman’s writing and TV appearances provide a behind-the-scenes look at the intrigue and humor in the Israeli political arena.

The 2012 UC² theme is “The City.” This year UC² events are examining the city and its multiple meanings: The city as Fort Wayne, the city as any global urban center, and the city as an abstract idea. As a growing percentage of the world’s population congregates in cities and as Fort Wayne works to redefine itself in the 21st century, “The City” is a theme and topic in which we are all invested.
