Dear B’nai Jacob family and friends,

The picture you are seeing is of my granddaughter Shirel and her husband Shmuel Weisbrod. I will have the pleasure of seeing them married at Maarat Hamachpela (The Cave of our Patriarchs and Matriarchs) on May 28th. At that momentous occasion I will be given the honor of singing one of the Sheva Brachot (the Seven Blessings) under the Chuppa.

I am amazed to have reached this milestone in life, when grandchildren will be getting married! It is also possible by this bulletin that my oldest daughter will have given birth. Then our family will be blessed with 15 grandchildren!

Milestones and memories...............

As I remarked at our closing meeting, our congregation suffered the loss of beloved members this year, as we also joined with our congregational families in the losses of dear ones, including Donald Nusholtz, Dr. Aaron Borenstein, Ira Tanner, Nicki Kaplan Stern, Arnold Schaffer, Babette Seigal, Arlene Leib, Donald Kornspan, and Bessie Levy. May their memories ever be a blessing.

It is here that I want to share with you a small Dvar Torah. In the parsha of Ki Tisa, Exodus 33:17-23, there is an amazing dialogue between Moshe and Hashem. Here is where Moses will have the opportunity to "see" G-d. Well, as far as a human can!

Moshe asks Hashem to show him the Holy One's glory. G-d answers that "You cannot see My face, for one shall not see Me and live...Behold, there is a place by Me, and you shall stand upon the rock, and it shall come to pass, while My glory passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand until I have passed by. And I will take away My hand, and you shall see My back; but My face shall not be seen."

Moshe's yearning for G-d is answered with a "peek" at what humans cannot normally see. I have always been struck by the enormous love shared between G-d and Moses. The closeness, as it were, of friends. Moreover, I also believe that there is a lesson for us.

Rabbi J.H. Hertz writes: "Many interpreters deduce from this passage the teaching that no living being can see G-d's face, i.e. penetrate His eternal essence. It is only from the rearward that we can know Him. Even as a ship sails through the waters of ocean and leaves its wake behind, so G-d may be known by His Divine 'footprints' in human history, by His traces in the human soul."

I absolutely love what Rabbi Hertz taught us. Just like the waves of the sea after the ship has passed, we see G-d as we look back! The one who reflects will see this truth personally.

As we look back on our 14 1/2 year journey together, I can see the G-d moments in our lives. I can close my eyes and see Hashem's presence at our Simchas, rejoicing with us, and I can envision G-d's closeness crying with us, when we experienced the sad moments and the times of loss in our lives.

As I reflect, I see glimpses of how our interactions helped shape us. Each of us formed a piece of a beautiful puzzle. We needed each other in our lives, and we were interconnected.

Words fail at this time. How can I transmit the love that we have shared? I would have to say that the most important part of my Rabbinate was forming this closeness with each of you. To have the opportunity to form bonds of friendship with you, to be your teacher, to be a safe sounding board, to share your happiness and your sadness, these and more are the memories I will remember and cherish. I want to thank each and every member for helping support our congregation and my Rabbinic leadership.

I thank the individuals, who rose to the leadership of congregational President, a rewarding yet trying, and at times, thankless job. For each of you has a part in our life's journey together. But, I must single out the Presidents, who sacrificed so much of their time for us: Josh Tourkow who made the contact with me, inviting us to Fort Wayne, David Bussell, Ron Friedman, Mark Schneider, and Pam Friedman. I must add that Pam had a most difficult challenge, as she led us to look to the future, plan and with the help of her committees to put that plan into reality.

I want to thank the committee that planned the retirement celebrations: Janet Finkel, Donna Tourkow, Pam Friedman, Theresa Farber, Susie Miller, Paula Adams and Ruth Minkoff. Indeed, I am so thankful to each of you, too, who support our minyan, our classes and our events.

I looked at the congregational directory and realized for the first time, that I have been the 18th Rabbi here. How meaningful, for we experienced Chai, life together.

Being your Rabbi for the past 14 and a half years has been filled with so many experiences. We remember them now as they tug at the heart, and perhaps bring a tear or a smile. I have said it many times. We have prayed together, and we have studied together. We have celebrated together and we have mourned together. We have worried together and we have rejoiced together, when the worry was resolved. The caring and the sharing, the Congregation B'nai Jacob extends heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Irwin Mallin. He passed away on Monday, May 6, the first of Iyar. May his memory always be a blessing!

Message from the President

Congregation B’nai Jacob has been in existence for over 100 years. We have provided a center in Fort Wayne for spirituality, intellectual endeavors and cultural experiences; life cycle events are supported as well as programs fostering friendships and providing a place of warmth and kindness for anyone who comes through our doors.

Each of you is aware that the demographics of our community have changed; we have fewer members and the work of maintaining the congregation falls upon the same small group of people. A year ago we began anew a conversation with the members of Congregation Achduth Vesholom (CAV) to explore combining our resources. With the byline of “One Community, Two Traditions” we embarked on a journey. Both congregations are bringing a vote to their respective memberships to decide if our community will support the concept of “One Community, Two Traditions.” I am pleased to let you know that at the annual meeting of our congregation, this was approved by an overwhelming majority. Furthermore, a purchase agreement has been signed for the sale of our building.

As of July 1 (and pending the vote at CAV), we will become members of Congregation Achduth Vesholom with all the rights and responsibilities of participating in congregation life. In the ensuing months, we will begin the renovation of the chapel to become the Goldstine-B’nai Jacob chapel. We will vacate our “home” at Bittersweet Moors subdivision just before the High Holidays in September. Like with any kind of move that one experiences, it comes with a lot of uncertainty. We will have the opportunity to cultivate new friendships and participate in all educational, social, and social action activities while having two worship options.

What defines a congregation? Is it simply a quorum of 10 Jewish adults who gather together to recite certain prayers or to read from the Sefer Torah? Is it the list of people who are in good standing because they pay their dues? Although these elements are important if not imperative in the life of a congregation, it certainly does not define who Congregation B’nai Jacob is.

In Pirkei Avot it is written that when one loves based on a “thing”, this love will not endure if that “thing” no longer exists (5:16). Though Congregation B’nai Jacob will no longer exist as we know it, it can thrive if our love for our congregation is not simply based upon the physical space at Bittersweet Moors. I look forward to our journey together in our new space at the Rifkin Campus as we become members of Congregation Achduth Vesholom.

Sisterhood

Please Help:

We are seeking volunteers who will choose to cover one Kiddush at a time. Simple menus can be prepared on Shabbat at the synagogue and can be as easy as cream cheese and bagels served with a tossed salad or a bowl of fruit. Ingredients, however, must be delivered to the synagogue kitchen prior to the beginning of Shabbat. Reimbursement of $40 or less is available from Sisterhood if requested with a receipt. To volunteer, call the office at 260-672-8459. The Sisterhood is grateful to those who volunteered to coordinate and/or sponsor Kiddushim in the past.

Fort Wayne’s Chevra Kadisha is looking for volunteers to assist with the mitzvah of the ritual preparation of bodies for burial according to Jewish tradition. For more information on serving the Jewish community in this way, please contact Mike Adams (smadams49@yahoo.com or 260-444-9373) or Eileen Goltz (eztolg@gmail.com or 260-602-5544). Men are especially needed at this time. Thank you.

Thoughtful Thursdays

Thank you to the Thoughtful Thursdays volunteers for your continued support and hard work assisting with Thoughtful Thursdays.

We completed our ninth year on May 1 and celebrated with a volunteer luncheon. We appreciate everyone who donated food and household items to help our 72 Brightpoint Head Start students and families.

During the summer, we are collecting boxes of tissues. Donations may be dropped off at the Temple. Look for opportunities starting in September to help support three special fundraisers during the year to provide apples, turkeys, and winter mittens to our Brightpoint families.

Thank you to the volunteers from Congregation Achduth Vesholom, Congregation B'nai Jacob, and the Jewish Federation of Fort Wayne and Co-Chairs Jamie Berger and Bonnie Pomerantz. Thank you also to the Dr. Harry W. Salon Foundation for its generous support and to the anonymous donor from the Temple who generously supported our fundraiser to provide a turkeys for each family for Thanksgiving.

Martin Luther King III to Speak

Martin Luther King III will speak in Fort Wayne 56 years after his father appeared here. The event will take place on Wednesday, June 5 at 7:00 p.m. at the Embassy Theatre. Admission is free, but requires a ticket. Contact the box office for a ticket. A freewill offering will be taken to support the One Church-One Offender program. The Jewish Federation of Fort Wayne is a co-sponsor.
