GENEALOGY & THE HOLOCAUST PROGRAM AT THE DOWNTOWN LIBRARY

A special program on "Genealogy and the Holocaust" will be presented on Sunday, November 15 from 1:00-4:00pm at the Allen County Public Library Main Branch to learn about resources relevant to the Holocaust, including the recently opened International Tracing Service Archives and what's available locally.

Speakers include Robert M. Ehrenreich, Director of University Programs, and Elizabeth Anthony, International Tracing Service and Partnerships Program Manager, both from the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum; Curt Witcher, Allen County Public Library Genealogy Center Manager and Director of the Federation of Genealogical Societies; and Irv Adler, a Temple member who will share his experience researching what happened to his family during the Holocaust and discovering new relatives in the process.

"What makes this kind of research different from other genealogy research is that it is more than simply compiling a list of family names," said Dr. Steve Carr, director of IPFW's Institute for Holocaust and Genocide Studies. "Rather, it asks us to think about the hard questions and choices family members had to make under the harshest of circumstances."

The program is sponsored by Congregation Achduth Vesholom, the IPFW Institute for Holocaust and Genocide Studies, the Allen County Public Library Genealogy Center, and the Campus Outreach Lecture Program of the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies, supported by Jack and Goldie Wolfe Miller.

Do you have a family story about the Holocaust or a more recent genocide? Tell it at tellmyfamilystory.tumblr.com.

INTERFAITH THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The annual community Interfaith Thanksgiving Service will take place on Tuesday, November 24 at 7:00pm at the Temple. Sister M. Elise Kriss, President of the University of St. Francis, will deliver the message. The service will include representatives of Jewish, Christian, Muslim, and Hindu congregations.

Please support this important community event and the strong bonds we share with people of faith in the Fort Wayne community. Donations collected at the service will support St. Mary's Parish Soup Kitchen. A reception will follow the service.
