

Machzorim (Prayer Books) are available

We all want to see Rabbi Niles and Gordon in the sanctuary. Putting prayers on screen during High Holy Day services will detract from watching the actual service. We do want you to be able to have the prayers, too, so Machzorim will be available.

If you would like to borrow both Machzorim (Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur), please come to the synagogue on Thursday, September 17 from 2:00–4:00 PM, where they will be handed out. If special arrangements must be made, please call the office at 707.253.7305 to discuss them.

The books will need to be returned to the office, at your convenience, or you can keep them and you will be billed. Please let us know your preference when you get them.

If you would like to have your own new copies of the Machzorim, you can purchase the hard copies at the website of the Central Conference of American Rabbis (CCAR): <https://tinyurl.com/ycq3affz> or purchase Kindle versions on Amazon.com: <https://tinyurl.com/y5h6jeor>.

Thank you and L'Shanah Tovah from the Ritual Committee
