

Book of Remembrance

5781 - 2020

NEW CITY JEWISH CENTER

New City, New York

A Message from New City Jewish Center

The High Holidays season, perhaps more than any other time of the year, is a time of recollection, reflection and renewal. While reading this Book of Remembrance, those feelings can be especially be prominent as we recall all those who have departed to their eternal resting place. Even so, they continue to inspire us, encourage us and still feel their love.

This book of readings has been prepared to help you feel closer to your loved ones. As you know, when one says the Yizkor prayer in remembrance of a loved one, we express the following: “In loving testimony to their lives, I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to them. Through such deeds and through prayer and memory, are their souls bound up in the bonds of life.”

If you have any interest in exploring special arrangements for making a gift and/or establishing an endowment on behalf of the New City Jewish Center in memory of a loved one or loved ones to help foster and maintain their Jewish values and beliefs, we would like to hear from you, regardless of the magnitude. Please call the NCJC Office to arrange a meeting without obligation. May this Book of Remembrance be a source of comfort and solace to you and your family. And may the New Year be one of health, happiness and prosperity. May we all be inscribed in the Book of Life.

New City Jewish Center

Prelude to Yizkor

I KNOW NOT WHEN I GO OR WHERE

FROM THIS FAMILIAR SCENE;

BUT GOD IS HERE AND GOD IS THERE,

AND ALL THE WAY BETWEEN;

AND WHEN I LEAVE THIS LIFE I KNOW,

FOR THAT DIM VAST UNKNOWN,

THOUGH LATE I STAY, OR SOON I GO,

I SHALL NOT GO ALONE.

- Author unknown

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine in the darkest night and illumine for us the path...

- Hannah Senesh

Let us praise Adonai in this time of remembrance,
For the lives we have shared, for the memories we cherish.

Let us praise God even in times of sorrow,
As we remember God's many kindnesses to us.

God's love accompanies us throughout life's journey,
So that even in death we are not forsaken.

Mercifully, God redeems us from the grave,
Calling our souls to life everlasting.

As parents have compassion upon their children,
So Adonai has compassion upon those who revere God.

For God knows how frail and fragile we are,
how vulnerable we are to disease and death.

As blades of grass and flowers in the field
Tarry only briefly before they wither away,

So do the days of our lives pass swiftly by;
They are too quickly gone, never to return.

But Adonai's steadfast love endures forever;
Those who trust in God need not feel forsaken.

They know their Healer will bind up their wounds,
And will wipe away the tears from their faces.

This faith we bequeath to our children's children,
A precious legacy for all generations.

(Suggested by Psalms 103 and Isaiah 25)

YIZKOR

Yizkor is recited beginning on the first holiday after the death; there is no requirement to wait a year. Some congregants leave the synagogue during Yizkor if their parents are living. This is also not a requirement in Jewish practice. In synagogues where the congregants remain throughout, Kaddish may be recited for friends or relatives who have died, or in memory of Jewish martyrs. “Yizkor” is the first word of the Memorial Prayer (Hazkarat Neshamot). One prayer may be said for all one’s deceased, naming each person in the blank spaces indicated, or an individual prayer may be recited for each one. El Malei Rachamim, Kaddish, and other prayers may also be recited. Yizkor is an opportunity for making contributions in the name of the deceased to perpetuate their memories and to promote the values they held.

YIZKOR PLAQUES

When a family member dies, it is traditional to remember the anniversary of the death by reciting Kaddish, lighting a yahrzeit candle and giving tzedakah. Some families choose to dedicate a plaque on a yahrzeit tablet in the synagogue, which is illuminated on the yahrzeit date and whenever Yizkor is recited.

We urge you to take a moment during the break in services to walk to your plaque, sit a moment and reflect on your memories. We hope it will give you a warm and loving feeling to see the lights brightly illuminated around all the walls.

Yahrzeit (Memorial) Candles

A yahrzeit candle is a special memorial candle traditionally lit for deceased relations for whom one recites Mourner's Kaddish: parents, spouse, siblings, and children. The connection between flames and souls derives from the Book of Proverbs (20:27): "The soul of man is the light of God." Just as a flame is never still, the soul also continuously strives to reach up to God. Thus, the flickering flame of the Yahrzeit candle helps to remind us of the departed soul of our loved one. Lighting a yahrzeit candle is a Jewish custom (minhag). While it is not required by Jewish law (halachah), the custom of lighting yahrzeit candles has become deeply ingrained in Jewish life. A yahrzeit candle may be lit: 1) during Shiva, 2) at sundown on the yahrzeit, and 3) at sundown preceding the start of Yom Kippur, the last day of Sukkot, Passover and Shavuot when the Yizkor Service is recited in the synagogue. Special candles that burn for 24 hours are used. Only one Yahrzeit candle needs to be lit per household. Some people use an electric bulb instead of a candle today for safety reasons. Though there is no specific blessing (beracha) that must be recited while lighting a memorial candle, some people stop for a few moments to remember the deceased.

KINDLING THE Yahrzeit Light

O merciful God, I turn to You in prayer on the yahrzeit of the death of my dear _____. Be with me as I stand in remembrance and in loving recollection. As I light this candle in his/her memory, I put my trust in You. May his/her soul be bound up in the bond of life, in peace. I now recall words from the Book of Proverbs: "The soul of man is the light of the Lord." The memory of the righteous is a blessing. May my life continue to embrace the life and deeds, the words and thoughts of _____ who has gone to his/her eternal home. May he/she rest in peace. Amen.

In Memory Of Those Who Have Passed Away
During 2019 - 2020
5780

We record with profound sorrow the passing of these beloved members of our synagogue family during the past year.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we this day lovingly remember those whose lives endure as a blessing.

Richard Balogh

A man of great principal, he was tough and sometimes ornery. Richard was totally devoted to his late wife Janet (z'l), who passed away 13 years ago, but continued to talk to her every day until his passing. They were both devastated by the loss of their son Howard (z'l), who passed away at age 28, after a long battle with leukemia, later creating a scholarship at NCJC and Clarkstown
North High School in his name. A teacher and coach, he made men out of troubled kids. He served his community for over 20 years as volunteer fireman and was chief for some years. He would have been 94 years old next month

מִזְמוֹר לְדָוִד.

ה' רֹעִי, לֹא אֶחָסֵר.

Adonai is my shepherd, I shall not want.

בְּנֵאוֹת דָּשָׁא יִרְבִּיצֵנִי,

God gives me repose in green meadows,

עַל מֵי מְנוּחוֹת יְנַהֲלֵנִי.

and guides me over calm waters.

נַפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבֵב, יְנַחֲנִי בַּמַּעְגָּלִי-צֶדֶק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.

God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path
— for that is God's way.

גַּם כִּי אֵלֶּף בְּגִיָּא צִלְמוֹת
לֹא אִירָא רָע כִּי אַתָּה עִמָּדִי.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no harm, for You are at my side.

שִׁבְטְךָ וּמִשְׁעֶנְתְּךָ הֵמָּה יְנַחֲמֵנִי.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי שִׁלְחָן נֶגֶד צָרָרִי,

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes;

דִּשְׁנַת בִּשְׁמֵן רֹאשִׁי, בּוֹסִי רוּיָהּ.

You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.

אֵף טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל-יְמֵי חַיִּי,

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion
all the days of my life,

וְשִׁבְתִּי בְּבֵית ה' לְאָרְךָ יָמִים.

and I shall dwell in the house of Adonai forever.
