

Israeli Elections 2019

WHO'S WHO, AND WHAT'S WHAT

Sunday April 7, 7:30 pm PART 1
Sunday April 28, 7:30 pm PART 2

Israelis will be heading for the polls on April 9th. The run up period to all Israeli elections is a rollercoaster experience with parties breaking up, forming, breaking up, re-forming, aligning and then maligning each other!

Several candidates have possible indictments hanging over them. Who are they, and does anyone care? Who are the major players? What and whom do they represent? With whom might they jump into bed and who will be sorry the next morning? Who is likely to form a government and who will hold the balance of power? It's Proportional Representation, aka, Democracy on Steroids!

To help you make sense of this circus, come and learn from our resident Israeli political analyst, Shirley Segev. Shirley watches Israeli politics like a hawk. (No, not that kind of a hawk!). She reads Israeli newspapers and watches Israeli television in Hebrew. She follows left, right and centre to get a comprehensive understanding of the issues. In a 2-part presentation, Shirley will provide you with the tools you need to understand who's who and what's what prior to the elections (on April 7th) and then help you make sense of the voting results (on April 28th).
