

meet YOUR NEIGHBORS

With this list or your own creativity, we can make new connections (or strengthen others ones). Through this holiday season, we can create new friends and fun experiences, maybe even new traditions.

COVID-19 – The safety of our community is highly important and we recognize there are different approaches to risk and COVID-19 safety precautions. This list of activities was intended to be creative and encourage safe ways to connect while maintaining appropriate physical distance.*

1. Organize a High Holiday service watching event
2. Have a Zoom Rosh Hashanah meal, sharing family recipes
3. Celebrate Tashlich together, either at a body of water, throwing scraps of paper into a fire, etc.
4. Host a Book Swap, even better if the books are about the High Holidays
5. Enjoy a nature hike, paying attention to animals you see and what we can learn from them
6. Hold a Zoom Story Time, especially older kids reading to younger ones
7. Make Rosh Hashanah cards for people in the community or family members
8. Take a neighborhood walk to meet people near you
9. Swap honey cake recipes
10. Have a Zoom Break-the-Fast
