

Congregation Beth Shalom Sisterhood Education Day 2024

Jewish Historical Society of Michigan

Presents

Detroit's Kosher Meat Riot of 1910

(Photo courtesy of Library of Congress & Walter P. Reuther Library, Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs, Wayne State University)

In May 1910, Detroit's Kosher meat prices soared. To feed their families amid rapid inflation, fed-up Orthodox women took on the Gilded-Age robber barons' "Beef Trust" and won.

Presented by JHSM's executive director, Catherine Cangany, PhD.

Sunday, June 9, 2024
11:30 am

Congregation Beth Shalom
14601 Lincoln
Oak Park, MI 48237

Cost of lunch and program: $15 members/$18 non-members
Everyone Welcome

Registration Information (No reservations accepted after May 31)

Name (s) _____ No. attending _____
Address _____
City/Zip _____
Phone _____ Email _____
Total Amount Enclosed: _____

Please make your check out to Sisterhood of Cong. Beth Shalom and mail your check and this form to Gayle Bialick, 28795 Carmel Ct, Southfield, MI 48076 OR pay via Zelle (Beshalomsisterhoodba@gmail.com)

OR register online through the CBS website

(<https://www.congbethshalom.org/event/sisterhood-education-day-2024.html>)

For more information, contact Doris Schey (248-545-7112/dpschey@gmail.com)