

BROUGHT TO YOU BY:

SEEKING AN AMERICAN JEWISH BIBLE

PRESENTED BY

ALAN T. LEVENSON, PH. D.

SCHUSTERMAN/JOSEY CHAIR OF JEWISH
HISTORY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA
AND DIRECTOR OF THE SCHUSTERMAN CENTER
FOR JUDAIC AND ISRAEL STUDIES

What can we learn about the American Jewish community by exploring the different denominational translations of the Torah that have been published in recent years? What are the ideologies and theologies reflected in these translations, and in what ways do they resonate within different populations of American Judaism? Join us as Professor Levenson takes us on this journey to discover the ways in which diverse Jews in America find meaning in the ancient Torah text.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Alan Levenson (BA/MA Brown University, Ph.D. Ohio State University), holds the Schusterman/Josey Chair of Jewish History at the University of Oklahoma and serves as Director of the Schusterman Center for Judaic & Israel Studies. Alan has an extensive teaching career and is author of numerous books, including The Making of the Modern Jewish Bible (Rowman & Littlefield, 2011).

VIRTUAL EVENT ON ZOOM

Thursday, December 8, 2022

5:30 - 7:00 pm MST

6:30 - 8:00 pm CST

REGISTER IN ADVANCE

Complete online registration by Monday, December 5, 2022:

bnaihavurah.org/event/jewish-bible

A Zoom link will be emailed to you upon registration.

6445 East Ohio Ave. • Denver, CO 80224 • 303-388-4441 • bnaihavurah.org