

AMERICA'S JEWISH WOMEN:

A HISTORY FROM COLONIAL TIMES TO TODAY

PRESENTED BY

PROFESSOR PAMELA NADELL

CHAIR IN WOMEN'S AND GENDER HISTORY AT AMERICAN UNIVERSITY AND DIRECTOR OF THE JEWISH STUDIES PROGRAM

Professor Nadell's book, America's Jewish Women: A History from Colonial Times to Today, won the 2019 Everett Family Foundation Book of the Year Award from the Jewish Book Council. The product of a lifetime of research and dedication, America's Jewish Women is a powerful testament to the richness of Jewish life in America and the profound impact generations of Jewish women have had on American society.

VIRTUAL EVENT ON ZOOM

Wednesday,
November 3, 2021
5:30 - 6:45 pm MDT

REGISTER IN ADVANCE

Complete online registration by November 1

bnaihavurah.org/event/americas-jewish-women

A Zoom link will be emailed to you upon registration.

“Authoritative, comprehensive and readable, this long-awaited book by one of the field's premier scholars is destined to become an instant classic. It takes its place as the definitive history of Jewish women in America.”

Jonathan D. Sarna,

Professor of American Jewish History at Brandeis University