WORLD PREMIERE

women, wine, and

talmud

Conceived by Deborah Baer Mozes

Written by Hadar Galron

Women, Wine, and Talmud is a world premiere theatrical production commissioned by Theatre Ariel, conceived by Deborah Baer Mozes, and written by Hadar Galron.

Rachel, Mad Yalta, and Bruriah are three wise women, daughters, wives, and sages whose stories appear in the Talmud. Each of them challenged the “expected” and each of their stories will challenge you. This immersive, interactive theatre work will bring these women’s stories to life and will bring you into that action as a “commentator”.

All are warmly welcome ~ please feel free to invite family members and friends.
