SOCIAL JUSTICE AT B'NAI: OLAM CHESED YIBANEH (we will build this world from love)

Your $18 annual donation per family member over age 13 sustains the work of our Tikkun Olam Committee as well as Social Justice coalitions approved through Positioning B'nai (our social justice policy) and supported by the activism and generosity of our members.

In 2019, Tikkun Olam provided grants to more than 20 non-profit organizations. Grants go to projects that act on the Tikkun Olam obligation to repair the world. 2019 grant recipients include Reading Partners, Habitat Interfaith Alliance, Teach Men to Fish, Hunger Free Colorado, and many more. Go to bnaihavurah.org/tikkun-olam to learn more.

Through Positioning B'nai, our social justice policy, we have joined two high impact social action coalitions: Coloradans for the Common Good (CCG, formerly Colorado-IAF) and Colorado Faith Communities United Against Gun Violence (CFCU).

CCG (cocommongood.org) has built a broad-based organization in the Greater Denver Metro area comprised of local institutions including congregations, unions, educational institutions, non-profits, and neighborhood organizations who share a concern for families and a passion for democracy and are led by their convictions, values, and faith to act for the common good.

CFCU (cfcu-co.org) is a growing coalition of Colorado congregations and organizations that include the Abrahamic and other faith traditions working together to support legislation and policies at the state and national level designed to reduce the current levels of violence arising out of the improper use of firearms.
