

Supplemental Food Assistance Denver Area Sites

During the COVID pandemic, impoverished persons and their families received increased SNAP (Food Stamps) allotments. However, these benefits were cut in Colorado this past March 1st. According to the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, this cut will lead to a reduction of at least $95/month in SNAP benefit per eligible household!

Compounded by inflation and subsequent elevated grocery prices, many individuals and families may go hungry unless action is taken. Below is a list of the major food banks and pantries in the Denver area. We are hoping that members of our B'nai community can help alleviate the potential suffering of those who are affected by the cuts and make a contribution to the food bank/pantry of your choice.

What You Should Do If You or Someone You Know Needs Food Assistance

Along with SNAP benefits, there are government and community resources available throughout the Denver area. Call 211 to get information about nearby community organizations that provide help with food insecurity and other needs.
