Friday, December 11, 6:30 - 7:30 pm

For our December Kabbalat Shabbat Experience, join Hal and Annie Aqua for a joyful, all-ages songfest of the best Chanukah songs, new and old, and some Shabbos tunes as well. Rabbi Evette will lead us in Chanukah candlelighting and Shabbat blessings.

We'll start the songfest with a chanukiot lighting: get your chanukiot set up and ready to go for a shared Zoom display of brightness and hope!

Stay after kiddush for more learning with Rabbi Evette and kaddish for those who are observing a yahrzeit.

Tikkun Olam

I want to share with our congregation a mitzvah that Alice Turak, a member of B'nai Havurah and of the Tikkun Olam Committee, did by organizing an extremely successful winter clothing drive to help our indigenous friends in South Dakota. Many members of B'nai Havurah as well as Alice's friends donated winter coats, boots, gloves sweaters, blankets, etc. to help provide protection from the extreme cold temperatures in that area of the country. Alice and Carole Smith, another member of B'nai Havurah and the Tikkun Olam Committee, packed these items into boxes and transported them to a nearby FedEx office, as depicted in the photo below. They amassed enough clothing to fill 13 boxes. Thank you to Alice, Carole and all of the members of B'nai Havurah who donated clothing for this drive, demonstrating the meaning of "tikkun olam", making the world a better place, which in this difficult year, is a true blessing.

Happy Hanukkah to all!

B'nai Reel Time – A Film Discussion Group: Little White Lie.

facilitated by Joan Wallis and Sharon Haber
Saturday, January 2, 7:00 - 8:30 pm

With the weather turning cooler and Covid restrictions keeping many of us at home, we are pleased to introduce our film discussion group, B'nai Reel Time.

Please join us for our first monthly B'nai Reel Time discussion on January 2 at 7:00 p.m., covering Lacey Schwartz's documentary, Little White Lie. Please watch Little White Lie at your leisure and then join us virtually over zoom for the discussion, facilitated by Joan Wallis and Sharon Haber. It can be found on several screening services.

Little White Lie, a film by Lacey Schwartz, is about "family secrets, denial, dual identity, and the power of telling the truth." Little White Lie tells Lacey Schwartz's story of growing up in a typical upper-middle-class Jewish household in New York, with a strong sense of her Jewish identity—despite the open questions from those around her about how a white girl could have such dark skin. Lacey does not learn until she is a young woman that her biological father was a black man with whom her mother had an affair. Lacey struggles to come to terms with her upbringing and identity. 66 minutes, English, 2014. Trailer: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qxHLpgYwcVY>.

Skirball Hanukkah Celebration

Online Program

Premiering on YouTube | Sunday, December 13, 2:00 pm (MST)

No Cost

Come one and all to celebrate the Festival of Lights online! Perfect for fans of our much-beloved annual Hanukkah Festival, this one-of-a-kind streaming event features everything you've come to expect from a Skirball holiday extravaganza. Enjoy a heartwarming community candle lighting and a lively sing-along to get you feeling festive. Groove to the klezmer beat of LA's own Mostly Kosher, jam to the psychedelic funk of Israeli superstar Gili Yalo, and gather 'round for a timely puppetry performance that retells the age-old Hanukkah story. If you tune in on Sunday, when the program premieres, you can participate in a virtual game for prizes.
