SHABBAT

SHABBAT IN THE PARK (Cook Park)
Saturday, August 21, 10:00 am - 11:30 am
7100 Cherry Creek South Dr., Denver /

Join in person and virtually on Zoom

Cantorial Ritual Director Hal Aqua will lead us in lively songs and prayers.

The service will include a healing prayer and an opportunity to recite the Mourners Kaddish.

For our kiddush lunch, we request that participants bring their own lunch. Challah, wine, and juice will be provided.

SHABBAT IN THE HOOD!

Hosted by Lissa Levin and Dan Taubman at their Lakewood home, close to the former White Fence Farm (address to be provided to registrants),

Friday, August 27, 6:30 - 8:00 pm

Join Hal Aqua on Friday, August 27 for one of B'nai Havurah's most cherished traditions: Shabbat in the Hood!

Entering its ninth year, Shabbat in the Hood is the perfect Friday evening for members and friends seeking community in an informal and congenial outdoor setting. Members open their backyards for a potluck-style dinner with a little Shabbat ruach (spirit), music and fun. The evening begins at 6:30 pm and will conclude at about 8:00 pm.

Shabbat Service: T'shuva and Forgiveness
Saturday, August, 28, 10:00- 11:30 am

Parshat Ki Tavo

Leader: Carla Sciaky

Every few months, Carla leads a Shabbat service in which we explore the energetic aspects of our journey together through the morning. Since we are now in the month of Elul, with its focus on our spiritual preparation for entering the new year, we will walk through this energy-based service examining the blessings of t'shuvah and forgiveness.

We will recite a Healing Prayer and Mourner's Kaddish. Light kiddush will be served. Everyone is welcome!

Community Events

Black Perspectives One Year Later: Looking Back & The Work to Come Tuesday August 24, 6:00 - 8:00 pm

In July 2020, the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) invited leaders from Denver's Black community to share their personal experiences with systemic racism and its effects on their community.

We invite you to join us again for an honest conversation about last year's progress and what still needs to be done to end systemic racism.
