COMING THIS WEEK AT B'NAI HAVURAH

- Saturday, August 5: Shabbat Service with Hal Aqua and Carla Sciaky
- Sunday, August 6: Books and Bagels
- Sunday, August 6: Sustainable Gardening: Sundays in the Garden!

SHABBAT

We are grateful to the many Shabbat service attendees bringing items for us to share at Kiddush lunch after services. We will be continuing to have potluck lunches after services unless a lunch is sponsored. Please feel free to bring your vegetarian lunch item if you join us on Shabbat morning. Not able to bring anything? No problem. Your presence is appreciated and we still want you to join us for lunch.

If you have a life simcha or an appreciation that you would like to share with the B'nai community, contact Laura Intfen at director@bnaihavurah.org to find out more details about sponsoring a kiddush. We are the community we need to celebrate Shabbat together.

Film Viewing and Discussion
with Dick Reinish
Sunday, August 13
3:30 - 6:30 PM

In Person only at B'nai East

Fifteen years before Rosa Parks refused to surrender her bus seat, a full decade before the U.S. Supreme Court overturned separate-but-equal legislation, Pauli Murray was already knee-deep fighting for social justice. Both Pauli's personal path and tireless advocacy foreshadowed some of the most politically consequential issues of our time.

SUSTAINABLE GARDENING

Sundays in the Garden!
Sunday, August 6
8:30 AM - 11:30AM
at B'nai East

Please join us as we continue to engage in the values of Tikkun Olam. At our first session, we had a small but productive group of gardeners maintaining the newly installed B'nai landscape – still in progress!

Get your garden gloves on and help us pull a few weeds along with other garden tasks as we approach our sustainable landscape goal! Then we'll go indoors to enjoy cool refreshments while sharing our own garden stories. Dress to work outdoors – we'll have the tools needed; please bring a hat, sunscreen, garden gloves (we'll have some), water bottle, etc.

For more information and to register (not required, but we appreciate knowing who is coming!), CLICK HERE.

MEET OUR NEW MEMBERS!

We welcome Frank Perlov and Juliet Cleere-Lachman, two new members of B'nai Havurah. To get to know a little about them,

B'NAI HAVURAH FACILITIES EVALUATION PROJECT

Why are we now being asked to sign-in at every B'nai Havurah event, meeting or program? Good Question!

The B'nai Havurah Board of Trustees has undertaken a Facilities Evaluation Project to track attendance at all B'nai Havurah events, meetings and programs. This includes B'nai West (Highlands Church), B'nai East (Ohio Street building), any other in-person locations, & on Zoom.

This will help the Board understand our attendance patterns, and provide concrete data to help the Board when making future facilities decisions.

In August, you will be receiving a Participant Satisfaction Survey to provide your feedback on our B'nai Havurah facilities.

Thank you for signing in at all B'nai Havurah events, meetings or programs you attend, identifying yourself on Zoom, and completing the survey in August!
