NITZACHON

We are now accepting articles for the next issue of Nitzachon. This issue will BE"H cover topics relating to the Moadim of Purim, Pesach, Sefira, Shavuot, and Bein Hametzarim. We also would like to have a special section on Machshava and halacha related to Eretz Yisroel. This is in addition to our usual section for general halacha and Machshava. Please discuss any of the non-Moadim or Eretz Yisrael topics with the editors before starting to write. Topics are now due and articles are due February 1st. If you would like to contribute an article, please speak with Michael Kleinman, Yaakov Rich, Steve Kirschenbaum or Yaakov Siegel. We are also looking for sponsors - there are dedication opportunities in honor or in memory of loved ones.

KIDS CORNER!

Dear Kids and Parents,

This week's parsha craft is an edible tree in honor of Tu B'Shevat which was on Thursday. The answer to last week's riddle was that the Mitzriyim made pickled locusts during Makas Arbeh. The bonus answer was the moon which grows bigger and then gets smaller, but we do the mitzvah of Kiddush Hachodesh when it is the smallest after it appears again.

This week's question: Who in this week's parsha had to take a test every day, and they weren't even in school?

Bonus question (Rashi): You can't do two things at the same time, but I can! Who am I and when did I do two think things at the same time?

Torah Code Beshalach: The Jewish people needed f to eat in the desert. Hashem sent them M each day. M told the people to G one Omer per P. Those who G more the M would get S. Those who G less the M would become more.

Good Shabbos,
Rabbi Avrohom Wagshul

Rav Gedalya Shorr in the Ohr Gedalyahu has a Yesod regarding Az Yashir being lashon asidus. He makes the comment that the letter Yud with which Yashir begins is a siman of future. Yud symbolizes the future. For example, if you have a word in Lashon Kodesh like Asa -- he did, or Amar -- he said, that is past tense. If you put a Yud at the beginning of the word, it becomes Ya'aseh or Yomar. It switches from past tense to future tense based on the Yud. Az Yashir Moshe is the idea and lesson from that letter Yud that it is added to show future tense.

The Sefer Megaleh Amukos on Parshas Toldos 25:26 says after Yaakov was born, his name was Yaakov. Rashi says who called him Yaakov? HKBH. G-d gave him the name Yaakov. Why Yaakov? The pasuk says because his hand was holding the heel of Eisav, and so he was called Yaakov. But, there is an extra Yud. Eikev is the heel so his name should have been Eikev. Yaakov means there is an extra Yud in Yaakov. Where did that Yud come from?

Says the Megaleh Amukos, Eisav was called Eisav. Why? Rashi says he was born complete. He had hair like someone much older. But if he is called Eisav because he was already formed, then his name should have been spelled Ayin, Sin, Vav, Yud (עשוי). So just like Yaakov gained a Yud, Eisav lost a Yud. Says the Megaleh Amukos, Yaakov held on to the heel of Eisav. The heel is the end, as in the Ikvisa D'mishicha. Yaakov grabbed on to the end of Eisav's name and took the Yud for himself. Therefore, Eisav lost a Yud and Yaakov gained the Yud.

The Yud symbolizes the future. A fundamental difference between someone who believes in Hashem, who believes in an Olam Ha'bah, who believes that the things he does matters, is that he thinks about the future when he does things not just for the present. The Eisav is the one who does things for the now, for instant gratification. He may even have a noble reason, but it is a reason for the present. What are we told about a Chacham? As can be found in Pirkei Avos, a Chacham is one who is Ro'eh Es Ha'nolad, someone who has foresight and sees the future. Klal Yisrael took the Yud from the nations of the world. The Yud is this ability to do things based on the future. Ideally, we do things for the purpose of Olam Ha'bah, the ultimate future. But in general, the wisdom of the Jewish people is this understanding to act with a plan, to act with a purpose, to be able to sacrifice now for a more meaningful objective later. This is the Yesod of Yahadus according to the Megaleh Amukos. The Yud of the Az Yashir signifying the Yud of Yaakov and the Ikvisa D'mishicha, the ultimate redemption
