KIDS CORNER!

Dear Kids and Parents,

This week's parsha craft will be an edible rainfall over Eretz Yisroel.

The answer to last week's riddle was the Shema which is written in both tefilin and mezuzah and read both morning and evening.

This week's question is: My name is not mentioned in the parsha this week unless you take away a letter from my name. Who am I?

Bonus question: What does this week's parsha have to do with feet?

Good Shabbos,

Rabbi Avrohom Wagshul

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Nava Sorani - August 4

Shlomo Braum - August 4

Elisheva Vosner - August 8

Yosef Chaim Vosoghi - August 10

In Bentching, the Chumash reads in 8:10 v'achalta v'savata v'veirachta es Hashem elokecha al ha'aretz ha'tova. The Chumash says that you eat, you are satisfied, and bless HKBH on the beautiful land of Eretz Yisrael. Bentching is somehow connected to Eretz Yisrael. The second beracha of Bentching is called Birchah Ha'aretz, the beracha on the land. The Gemara Berachos 48b says someone who does not refer to Eretz Yisrael as a desirable, good, and wide land is not yotzei Bentching. Indeed in nodeh le'cha we say the beracha of eretz chemda tova u'rchava. The question is why is it important to say eretz chemda tova u'rchava? We have to mention Eretz Yisrael as the Torah says al ha'aretz ha'tova, but why do we understand that mentioning the beauty and bounty of Eretz Yisrael is so important?

In the Toras Moshe from the Chasam Sofer, he quotes the following yesod in the name of the Chovos Halevavos. The yesod is that ahava, love, is noticeable when a person does something for someone else that is more than he is obligated to do. When a person does the things that he is obligated to do, that doesn't show that he loves the other person it just shows that he is an honest and straight person. He does the things that he is obligated to do. If a person wants to show that he cares about somebody he has to do something a little more. In mitzvos, we have ideas such as Hiddur Mitzvah and Zerizim Makdimin L'mitzvah, as well as situations of Hamachmir Tavo Alav Beracha. Situations of doing a mitzvah where we could show that we are not just doing it to be yotzei, but rather we are performing the mitzvah with an ahavah, with a love. The yesod is that to show love you have to do something a little more.

The pasuk says in Tehillim 118:5 min ha'meitzar karasi kah, anani ba'merchav ka. Dovid thanks Hashem and he says I called you during time of difficulty. Min ha'meitzar, during time of difficulty I called you HKBH, anani ba'merchav ka, and you answered me with a wide and open arm which shows love. When HKBH answers ba'merchav, it shows an ahavah. When we thank HKBH for the land that he has given us, says the Toras Moshe, we thank HKBH for eretz chemda tova u'rchava. Hashem could have satisfied his promise to Avraham Avinu to give us a land by giving us any random land. We got Eretz Yisrael which is a land that the world has been fighting over for at least 2,000 years. Eretz chemda tova u'rchava, part of thanking HKBH is anani ba'merchav ka, HKBH answered us and granted us a land with his wide open arms.
