KIDS CORNER!

Dear Kids and Parents,

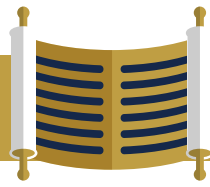

This week's parsha craft will be an edible well for the one where אליעזר found רבקה.

The answer to last week's riddle was ישמעאל, who רש"י explains that הגר had to carry him because he got sick with fever because of שורה giving him an עין הרע.

This week's question is: I was offered for free but bought for full price. My old owner only pretended, but my new owner was truly nice. What am I?

Harder question: I traveled on an eastern road, an impure gift of a name or kings' presents I do hold, who am I, and what was the gift?

Good Shabbos,
Rabbi Wagshul

The GRA in Bava Kamma has an insight into the three Shemoneh Esrei's of Shabbos. On Shabbos, the middle berachos of the three Shemoneh Esrei's are different. Ata Kidashta for the Maariv Shemoneh Esrei, Yismach Moshe in the morning, and Ata Echad V'shimcha Echad for Mincha. This is unlike Yom Tov where we say Ata V'chartanu where all three Shemoneh Esrei's are identical. During the week, certainly the three Shemoneh Esrei's are identical. On Shabbos however, they are fundamentally different. The middle beracha is different in each of the three. The Tur explains there are three aspects of Shabbos. There is Shabbos Bereishis which is the Shabbos of creation, Shabbos of Mattan Torah which is the Shabbos on which the Torah was given at Har Sinai, and Yom Shekulo Shabbos which is l'asid la'vo, which is the eternal Shabbos of Yemos Hamashiach. Therefore, the first Shemoneh Esrei of Ata Kidashta refers back to Va'yichulu Ha'shamayim V'haaretz which is a reference to creation, the second Shemoneh Esrei of Yismach Moshe B'matnas Chelko is a reference to the Shabbos of Mattan Torah, and the final one Ata Echad V'shimcha Echad refers to the ultimate day of the Yom Shabbos, which is a Shabbos of Hashkeit Va'vetach of Menucha Shelaima She'ata Rotzeh Ba which is the Shabbos of L'asid Lavo.

The GRA adds the three Shemoneh Esrei's represent the three steps in the bond between HKBH and Klal Yisrael. Ata Kidashta is like a Kiddushin -- HKBH refers to the Jewish people as his Kallah, the initial connection with Klal Yisrael. The second Shemoneh

Esrei is K'lil Tiferes B'rosho Nasata Lo refers to Klil, to the Chuppah, to that which Klal Yisrael received as a wedding celebration. We talk then about Yismach Moshe, about celebrating. The third Shemoneh Esrei of Ata Echad V'shimcha Echad is the Yichud of Hashem and Klal Yisrael. The Chosson and Kallah go into a Yichud room or go off as one and live their lives Echad, as one -- as a Menuchas Emes V'emunah, Menuchas Shalom V'shalva V'hashkeit Vavetach. A relationship of Menucha, of living together as one. That is the ultimate bond of Klal Yisrael with HKBH.

As Shabbos continues, it becomes more significant and the relationship grows. The highlight of Shabbos should be the Mincha and Maariv, the twilight as Shabbos leaves where you have the experience of the entire Shabbos behind you; it is a time of greater Kedushas Shabbos.

But, there is a fourth Shemoneh Esrei. When Shabbos leaves, we say goodbye with Ata Chonantanu. We talk about the Havdalah of Shabbos D'chol by mentioning one last thing. That is, the importance of Da'as, of the Havdalah between Shabbos and Chol; the significance of having seichel, of having understanding and awareness, in our daily interactions throughout the week. The ultimate Ata Echad and coming together should be founded upon an understanding, awareness, and intelligence of discerning Kedusha from Chol - of always being mindful of shivisi hashem li'negdi samid wherever we may be.
