Good Erev Shabbos,

Tu B'Shevat Higiya and we all know what that means - Spring is coming! Once the cold subsides and the weather improves, we are looking forward to the resumption of outdoor shul activities and the opportunity to continue our return to normal. We hope everyone is staying safe, and remind those of you who have started to get vaccinated that the shul policies for masks and social distancing will still remain in effect, as will the requirements for entering any of our indoor or outdoor spaces.

The 45th Annual Beth Aaron (Virtual) Dinner has been officially announced, and now the only thing missing really is YOU. I am really excited for the program being offered, and hope you are as well. Our take home dinner menu looks delicious, and this year Rabbi Rothwachs is going big, taking his production from the stage to the big screen. Our interactive "Escape the Shul" program will keep you engaged and having fun - you may just forget that this is a virtual program. And of course we show Hakarat HaTov to all the many volunteers who have stepped up and given of themselves to help our shul thrive this past year, and in particular to the hosts of our outdoor and virtual minyanim. Sign up today, choose your level of giving, recognize your minyan hosts, select your dinner, and get ready for an evening of celebration with your neighbors and friends!

Purim is just over a month away, and we are hard at work getting ready. The Sisterhood Mishloach Manot Project is live, and I encourage everyone to join me in supporting this project and the Beth Aaron Sisterhood and all the amazing things they do for our Kehillah. We are now working through the details of Megillah reading offerings. Our goal as always is to ensure that we address to the best of our abilities the needs of all our members, and expect to announce signups very soon for a broad range of readings and minyan options.

We will continue offering the 8:00am indoor weekday shacharit minyan for at least another week, but ask that you support this minyan if you are able, along with the other minyanim that could use some help - The indoor late Maariv and outdoor Shacharit minyanim.

Finally, a couple of Beth Aaron offerings will be coming to close next week:

- Congregation Beth Aaron has reserved an exclusive section for our members and their families at the Eretz HaChaim Cemetery in Israel. Until January 31st, burial plots can be purchased directly through Eretz HaChaim at a discount. Contact Joshua Klavan for details.
- Beth Aaron's "Beyond the Call 2020" Campaign will be coming to a close on January 31st, and the lobby plaque will be updated to include this past year's participants. If you'd still like to participate please reach out to the office or to myself. Thank you again to all those who have generously participated.

Everyone should be aware of programming scheduled for this coming week and beyond, in addition to the regular virtual shiurim and Thursday night drasha:

- The Rabbi Stanley Fisch zt"l Parent-Child Learning returns Motzei Shabbat, at 6:45PM.
- This Sunday, at 8:45am Beth Aaron's Shviti learning program continues via Zoom, on the topic of "Bishul Akum". We thank the Lustiger family for sponsoring.
- Yaacov Metzger is giving a Tu bi-Shevat Origami Workshop on Sunday, at 11:00 a.m.
- Rabbi Rothwachs' Masechet Sanhedrin shiur continues Wednesday night at 8:30 p.m.
