Good Erev Shabbos, and Happy Tu BiShevat,

Purim is less than a month away, and we are finalizing the schedule for Minyanim and Megillah Readings. Signup details will be released shortly, and will include a number of indoor and outdoor options, with all of the outdoor options to be held in covered spaces. We are doing this well in advance in order to ensure that we adequately accommodate all of our members.

Yeshiva Break and Travelling: We hope those of you celebrating yeshiva break have enjoyed your week. For those who have travelled outside of the NY/NJ/CT/PA metro area, please be mindful of our travel policy which requires a 14 day quarantine prior to entering the shul building or any of our outdoor minyanim. For those who have engaged in activities this week that have introduced potential exposure to a broader number of individuals not part of your regular interactions until now, we ask that you be very mindful of your health, and that you do not come to shul or to any of our outdoor minyanim if you are feeling sick in any way.

Eretz Hachaim Cemetery: Sunday, January 31st is the final day to purchase burial plots at a discount for Beth Aaron's exclusive section at Eretz HaChaim cemetery in Israel. Contact Joshua Klavan for details.

Beyond The Call: Sunday, January 31st is the final day to participate in the "Beyond the Call 2020" campaign. Please contact the office to participate.

Main Shul Arrangements: Please continue to be aware of the flexible Shabbos usage of the Ezrat Nashim and Book Room. The book room will serve as an Ezras Nashim for Kabbalat Shabbat and Shacharit. The Ezras Nashim near the main entrance will be used for men for Kabbalat Shabbat only. The other Ezras Nashim will be used for men for all Shabbos Minyanim.
