CELEBRATING 50 YEARS TOGETHER

B"h in 2022, our shul will reach a significant milestone. The year 2022 will provide us with the opportunity to celebrate 50 years together as a kehillah; a shul that has grown from a minyan of members to close to 300 member and associate member families. As we look ahead with excitement, we are beginning our planning now with brainstorming and exploring unique ideas through which we can honor and remember our beginnings, celebrate and recognize our past and current members, and look ahead towards the next fifty years and beyond.

Please join us this Sunday evening, August 1, at 7:00 p.m., via Zoom, to discuss the ideas currently being explored and provide your input and participation in our efforts to mark this significant and exciting milestone. The Zoom link is:

Good Erev Shabbos,

So many of you may have been wondering "Where is Steven?".. "He used to come to Shul, bore everyone with 10 minute Shabbos announcements, yell out Parnas Hayom Sponsors, harass people who weren't wearing masks, relentlessly move chairs around the room, drawing blue squares on the floor, signs everywhere.. always with the signs... now I don't even see the guy ??" Well unfortunately my super athletic body was no match for Palisades Ave, which ruthlessly fractured my fibula on a pre-Shabbos run. After 3 weeks of abusing my foot waiting for it to heal on its own, X-Rays revealed the brutal truth. Two weeks later, my ankle has thankfully been repaired and is in the process of healing, and I figured it would be a good time to take a shul-cation and return to my COVID-times daven-from-home regimen. I do miss seeing everyone in Shul, and hope to be back very soon to bore you all with long announcements and readings of Parnas Hayom sponsorships, but for now I will keep my focus on writing lengthy Shabbos announcements and email reminders. And that, my fellow Beth Aaroners, is where Steven is..

On a possibly more exciting front, you should have all received an email this week from our very special past presidents and now 50th Anniversary Celebration Committee chairs, David Goldberg and Shuie Klavan, announcing a Zoom meeting this Sunday at 7PM to kick off the planning efforts for Beth Aaron's 50th Anniversary year. David and Shuie have been laying the groundwork for what will definitely be an amazing 52 weeks of celebrating the amazing Kehillah to which we all belong. While it will certainly be amazing to join in the celebrations, I assure each of you that it will be even more amazing to take part in the planning and execution of next year's events. I encourage you to join Sunday's meeting and see where you can take a part in this extraordinary opportunity.

Two Signup Re-reminders:

- Please sign up as soon as possible for High Holiday Seats. Sign up by July 31st to help give our seating committee sufficient time to plan out seating, as well as to help ensure that you get the seats of your choice at the location of your choice. We appreciate your expeditious response.
- Please also remember to submit dedications and new names for the Beth Aaron Simchat Torah Chuppah. Names must be submitted by July 30.

The Shabbat Morning Pre-Shacharit Shiur resumes this week in the Main Shul, with Rabbi Feld speaking at 8:25AM on the topic of "The Living Yerushalayim". Rabbi Feld will also speak in the Main Shul between Mincha and Maariv on "'Avodah She-ba-Lev: The Essence of Tefilla".

Everyone should be aware of programming scheduled for this coming week and beyond, in addition to the regular virtual shiurim and Thursday night drasha:

- Tonight at 8:45PM, Rabbi Meir Finkelstein presents part 2 of his 3 part series of shiurim on topics related to Eretz Yisroel. The shiur will be on "Is There a Mitzvah to Live in Israel?", and will be held in the Social Hall.
- Youth Groups will meet Shabbat Morning on the Shul Patio at 10:15AM.
- This Sunday at 8:45AM, Beth Aaron's Shviti learning program meets via Zoom, on the topic of children doing Melacha on Shabbos. We thank Gitl & Meylekh Viswanath, for sponsoring this week's program in memory of Charne & Mordkhe Schaechter.
- This Sunday at 4:00PM, Mollie Fisch will lead the Women's Learning Group in studying Haftarat of Consolation and Shabbat Shuva.
- This Sunday at 7:00PM, join the Beth Aaron 50th Anniversary Celebration Committee via Zoom, as we kick off the planning effort for next year's celebration.
- This Monday at 8:45PM, Rabbi Meir Finkelstein presents his final shiur of his 3 part series of shiurim on topics related to Eretz Yisroel. Monday's shiur will be on Aliyah Considerations Then and Now: What We Have in Common with the Ba'alei Tosafot". If you are interested in sponsoring this week's shiur, please contact the office.

Thank you to this past week's and this coming week's Parnas Hayom sponsors:
