Good Erev Shabbos,

We wish a huge Mazal Tov to Chaviva and Rabbi Rothwachs and to Shira Rothwachs, on Shira's marriage to Akiva Hochbaum. Mazal Tov to Akiva's parents, Lisa and Rabbi Peretz Hochbaum. We welcome the extended Rothwachs and Hochbaum families who are joining us this Shabbos.

Pesach is just over a week away, and we are looking forward to an amazing Chag at Congregation Beth Aaron. Thank you to the hundreds of individuals who responded to our minyan poll. You were a great help in our efforts to set up minyanim and minyan times. We will be formally announcing minyanim over the weekend accompanied by a minyan signup group that covers Shabbos day as well as the entirety of the first days of Pesach.

For those wanting to return to shul property but still interested in davening outside, we hope you take advantage of this new offering and ask that you sign up immediately once minyanim times and locations are announced.

We will be offering a rich set of Pesach programming, from minyanim to shiurim, to youth programming, and encourage everyone to attend along with their guests for Pesach. Please remember to sign up ahead of time for any of the events you intend to take advantage of, and remember to be mindful of our COVID safety guidelines at all of our indoor and outdoor spaces. If you are unsure of the shul safety or quarantine policies, please be sure to review at www.bethaaron.org/minyanSignup or email / text me directly to inquire.
