PESACH INFORMATION

Bedikat Chametz: The bedikah is performed on Thursday, March 25, with a bracha. It should begin immediately after 7:55 p.m. and should consist of a thorough check of the entire house, garage and cars. If one will be leaving one's house for Pesach and will be doing the bedikah before Thursday night, no bracha is recited. The Bittul Chametz is recited after the bedikah, nullifying any chametz of which you are not aware. All chametz that will be eaten after the bedikah should be put aside in a safe place.

Biur and Bittul Chametz: The chametz should be burned on Friday before 12:00 p.m. This year, we do not recite kol chamira when burning the chametz on Friday but rather recite it on Shabbat morning before 11:59 a.m., after having finished disposing of any leftover chametz.

Preparation for the Seder: On Shabbat, one may not prepare for the seder. After 8:05 p.m., one may begin to make preparations for the seder, but only after having davened Maariv or reciting the words "Baruch ha-Mavdil Bein Kodsh le-Kodesh."

Every year, Beth Aaron designates a Shabbat around Yom Hazikaron and Yom Ha'atzmaut as Shabbat Chayal, where we choose a tzedakah tied to the IDF to give our support.

This year we have designated Shabbat, April 17, as Shabbat Chayal. We will mark Shabbat Chayal by raising money for two worthy organizations, Lev LaChayal and Special In Uniform. In addition, we are pleased to announce that this year we are welcoming several other Teaneck shuls to join us: The Jewish Center of Teaneck, and Congregation Shaarei Tefillah. Contributors will receive a link for the movie "Mekonen: The Journey of an African Jew." The film follows the personal journey of Mekonen Abebbe, a young African immigrant to Israel, as he rises through the ranks of the IDF to become a commander. In addition, contributors will receive a link for a Zoom session for Sunday morning, April 11, with Professor Mordechai Kedar, who will speak on the political and military challenges Israel faces and how the IDF is working to protect Israel.

Good Erev Shabbos and Good Erev Yom Tov:

We are very excited for the upcoming Shabbos and Yom Tov weekend! Our members continue to return to shul, and with the warm weather coming and two outdoor spaces tented for the entire Pesach, outdoor programming for our adults and youth is resuming.

We have added an outdoor minyan on the shul premises under an unwallled tent, and are pleased to begin providing outdoor davening and learning opportunities on shul property, to complement the ongoing offsite davening and programming offerings.

We are expecting indoor minyanim to be highly utilized over Shabbos and Yom Tov, and remind everyone to be mindful of the number of minyan signups made and to sit in correspondingly sized seating groups. Spaces have been set up with grouping that match signups, and keeping to your signed up group size will minimize disruption to seating arrangements.

We have recently announced a number of changes to shul policies and procedures as we continue our return to shul. The shared updates have generated a number of questions, and I encourage you to reach out if you'd like to discuss any of those changes or ask any questions about changes, shul policies in general, or plans to adjust to the changing realities resulting from growing vaccination numbers and recent changes in CDC policies.

Highlighting recent updates to our policies:

- We will be re-introducing singing in shul, beginning Friday night. Those who choose to sing are asked to sing softly along with the Shlich Tzibbur with their "indoor voices" (even if you are outdoors) and to be sensitive as we begin this process.
- Minyan Signups will no longer be used for weekday Shacharit and Mincha/Maariv at our indoor minyanim. Minyan times will be posted in the announcements and website calendar, and no longer appear on the signup portal. Outdoor weekday minyanim will continue to require signups. All minyanim (indoor and outdoor) will require signups for Shabbos and Yom Tov.
- Indoor weekday Shacharit minyanim will be returning to their pre-COVID structure. On Chol HaMoed we will offer 3 morning minyanim, and after Pesach we will return to 4 morning minyanim. As noted above, these minyanim will not require signup.
- Indoor weekday Zman Mincha/Maariv minyan will be held in the Main Shul starting Chol HaMoed. As noted above, this minyan will not require signup.

As we continue to introduce changes to shul policies and procedures, please continue to be mindful of our COVID safety guidelines at all indoor and outdoor spaces. Masks and Social Distancing continue to be required, and all must follow quarantine protocols and only come into shul spaces if feeling 100% well. If you are unsure of shul safety or quarantine policies, please review at www.bethaaron.org/minyanSignup or contact me directly.

I wanted to extend our thanks to all those who have helped make the upcoming Chag the special experience we expect it to be.
