Good Erev Shabbos,

The Beth Aaron 50th Year Celebratory Dinner is only 4 weeks away! Thank you to those who have signed up. We had an amazing week of signups, though I still haven't received any requests for help setting up babysitters. If you're all set with child care, then be sure to sign up today.

Congratulations to Eitan Isaacs for figuring out what was invented on this year's dinner date. Oreo Cookies were in fact invented on March 6, 1912. Eitan can claim his prize as soon as he sends me his T-Shirt size. We still do not have a winner for our other riddle, which is still an active challenge. For everyone's benefit I will repeat it here "This year's dinner will take place on a special historic day. What better way to celebrate that day than with your family at Beth Aaron, the members of our Mikdash Me'at, and its officers and Board of Directors?" If you're still having a hard time solving the riddle, Rabbi Rothwachs may be better placed to answer the question, but he is away this Shabbat.

For those who STILL haven't signed up for the dinner, I am now turning to our membership to help me make my case. Last week I gave my top 10 reasons to attend the Shul Dinner. This week, I want to hear yours. Please go to the following survey and tell us your Top 10 reasons to attend the Shul Dinner (attempts to out-humor me are highly encouraged. Extra-points go to entries coming from our former members now living in Israel - we want to make sure you're still reading). Our panel of highly skilled Top 10 judges will choose winners who may qualify for other 50th Year Celebration prizes, and we will post your "Top 10" in next week's announcements.

I'd like to recognize the amazing experience I had last night at Shul, seeing our Beit Midrash fully packed with adults and youth participating in Torah learning. Last night was the start of the new night seder learning program for men, organized and facilitated by Heichal Ha-Torah. Between the Heichal night seder program, the daily YU Alumni learning program, the daily Daf Yomi shiur, and the regular learning taking place in our Beit Midrash and overflowing into the Social Hall, the aura of Torah learning was spectacular. I encourage everyone to see what I am talking about and join the Torah learning taking place in our Beit Midrash each evening. Whether learning on your own, with a chavruta or as part of a chabura, or partaking in the many learning opportunities offered by our Shul, we encourage you to come learn with us.

The Beth Aaron Youth Department's Parsha Art Contest will be continuing for just one more week. Be sure to have your children submit their works of art this week so that they can qualify to win a $50 gift card and earn the title of Beth Aaron Youth Art Champion. The winner will be announced at Stanley Fisch zt"l Parent-Child Learning next Motzaei Shabbat, February 19. The contest is sponsored in memory of Mishel & Bernice Greenberg z"l.

Everyone should be aware of the programming scheduled for this coming week and beyond, in addition to the regular shiurim:

- Friday night, there will be a special ruach-filled Mincha/Kabbalat Shabbat in the Beit Midrash. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend.
- Motzaei Shabbat, at 7:00pm in the Social Hall, join us for another session of Rabbi Stanley Fisch zt"l Parent-Child Learning, with Torah, food, raffle, prizes, and fun!
- Sunday at 9:00am, Beth Aaron's Shviti program meets on the topic of "Rosh Chodesh, the 1st Mitzvah" We thank Meylekh & Gitl Viswanath for sponsoring.
- Sunday at 4:00pm, the Women's Learning Group led by Mollie Fisch will resume its study of Divrei HaYamim Alef, Perek 29.
- Wednesday at 8:00pm, the 8 week Night Seder program continues in the CBA Beit Midrash.
- Rabbi Rothwachs' Sanhedrin Shiur will not be taking place this week.
- Next Motzaei Shabbat, at 8:00pm, the Beth Aaron Sisterhood Book Club will meet virtually to discuss "Tevye the Dairyman" by Sholem Aleichem
- Next Motzaei Shabbat, at 8:45pm, join the Beth Aaron's Men's Club and Sisterhood for "Axe Throwing Night." Note the change in time and the determined location.

There will be a Board of Directors meeting on Sunday, February 27 at 8:00pm on the lower level.
